Married Here Yesterday

MRS. EDWARD GORDON HATCHELL, JR., who before her marriage yesterday morning in the First Methodist church here, was Miss Thomasine Stringfield, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Tom Stringfield.

Miss Thomasine Stringfield Is Wedded To E. G. Hatchell, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Stringfield have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Thomasine Stringfield to Edward Gordon Hatchell, Jr., of Portsmouth, Va. The vows were solemnized at 11:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning in the First Methodist Church with the pastor, the Rev. J. Clay Madison, performing the ceremony. Only members of the families, including the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. E. G. Hatchell, of Portsmouth, and a small group of close friends were in attendance.

The church was simply but effectively arranged in palms, with floor vases containing white gladioli. On either side of the altar were tall candelabra holding cathedral candles.

A brief program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. W. L. Matney, organist, and Mrs. Harold Tingen, soloist. Mrs. Matney played Schubert's Serenade while the guests were assembling. During the ceremony she softly rendered "Lieberstrum," and for the professional the March from Lohengrin and the Recessional from Mendelssohn were used. Mrs. Tingen sang, "At Dawning," and during the prayer, "O, Perfect Love," by Barnby.

There were no attendants. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was met at the altar by the bridegroom who entered the church from a side aisle.

Mrs. Hatchell wore a becoming two piece crepe silk dress of soldier blue trimmed in lace of the same shades. Her accessories were of black and her hat was a small black model with touches of blue ribbon worn with a short veil. Her corsage was of bride's roses.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school and of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. For the past two years she has been teaching in the Waynesville District schools.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon Hatchell, of Portsmouth, Va. He attended the Norfolk branch of William and Mary College. At present he holds a position with the Norfolk Navy Yards, in Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatchell left shortly after the ceremony for a wedding try prior to going to Portsmouth, where they will reside in the future.

Miss Clara McCall Becomes Bride Of Pvt. W. M. Avery

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Clara Belle McCall to William McConaughy Avery which took place at noon Sunday, January 10th, at the First Methodist parsonage in Morganton. The bride's pastor, the Rev. Fletcher L. Nelson, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. Only members of the families and close friends attended the wedding.

The bride wore a tailored navy blue two-piece crepe dress with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white rose buds.

Mrs. Avery is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley McCall, of Marion. She is a graduate of the Mission Hospital Training School for Nurses of Asheville, and received her certificate in Public Health Nursing from William and Mary College, Richmond, Va. For three years she was connected with the District Health Department here serving as public health nurse for Haywood County. Since leaving Waynesville she has held a similar position in Morganton.

Private Avery is the son of A. L. Avery and the late Mrs. Avery, of Charlotte, formerly of Morganton, and a grandson of Mrs. McConaughy and the late W. E. McConaughy of Quaker Meadows. He is a graduate of the Morganton city schools and attended Rutherford College. Before his induction into the army last August he was assistant tax collector of Burke County. He is in the Air Corps and is now stationed at Stinson Field, San Antonio, Texas.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip of unannounced destination.

State College Hints

By Ruth Current, State Home Demonstration Agent N. C. State College.

We must make the most of what we have—and do it well and quickly.

Don't let food stick or burn. Use the right cleansing agent for each kind of utensil.

Do not subject pots and pans to sudden changes of temperature. Have small breaks repaired at once.

Take care of the clothes you have. Keep shelves and drawers neat, so that ribbons, ties, extra collars, underwear do not require pressing.

Have a completely equipped shoe cleaning kit for the family. Check personal hygiene to avoid damage by perspiration.

Learn how to buy in wartime. Learn to understand labels and standards of quality, also changes and substitutes necessitated by the war program.

Know your neighbor better. This is no time to hold grudges. Learn to help each other do the extra jobs: laundering, shopping and other household chores that demand special attention.

Carry packages. Shop for the neighbor—let her shop for you. A boy's wagon may do neighborhood war service!
