Fire Started By Children Playing With Matches

—children will be children, and sometime play with matches, and often the damage runs into hundreds and sometimes many thousands of dollars.

—you can't watch every child, so the safest thing to do is to have adequate insurance.

Masonic Lodge To Hold Regular Meet Friday Evening

The Waynesville Lodge, number 259, will hold its regular communication in the Masonic Temple on Friday, the 5th, at 7:30 o'clock. W. H. Owens, the worshipful master, is starting the new year off with splendid plans.

Mr. Owens believes that the educational committee will hold to the ideals and principles of Masonry in the programs which are to be a part of the regular communication nights during the year. The nature of the program planned for Friday night is still a Masonic secret and only the visiting members will appreciate it in its reality. All Masons are invited to attend.

Norman Pless To Be Called For Active Duty Soon

Norman Pless, bookkeeper-teller, who has been connected with the First National Bank since last April, has been released from active work until he goes into the service. He will continue to be paid a salary by the bank until he leaves for the army.

He expects to leave for camp around the first of March. He has gained the confidence of his employers and the customers of the bank by the manner in which he has done his work.

Mr. Pless is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Pless, of Canton, Mo. He is a graduate of Blount Business College. He is being placed in the bank by Miss Edna Summerrow, of Hazelwood, Mo. in the service.
