Aviation Cadet James Robert Leatherwood, son of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Leatherwood, of Hazelwood, has successfully completed his pre-flight training at the Santa Ana Army Air Base, Santa Ana, Calif. He has been ordered to an advanced flying school for further instruction as a Bombardier-Navigator.

In the next phase of his instruction, he will receive training under actual flying conditions and upon completion of it will receive his silver wings.

He is a graduate of the local high school and of Wake Forest College.

Volunteers

CLAUDE N. ALLEN, prominent business man, farmer and civic leader, is now serving in the Army, and is stationed at Camp Butner.

Mr. Allen volunteered many months ago, and left here the 21st for induction. When he volunteered he sold the furniture, dry goods and clothing departments of his firm—C. N. Allen & Co. The grocery and market department is now in charge of Roy Ruff, who has been with the firm many years.

Mr. Allen has been in business in Hazelwood for more than 20 years. He served as alderman of the town several times, was past president of the Boosters Club, member of Rotary, chairman of the local school board, member of the bank committee and director of the Hazelwood Home Building and Loan Association.

He took an active part in civic affairs, and spent much time to the promotion of better farming and cattle raising. He is a leader in Hereford breeding.

"I feel it is my duty to join and help. I believe I can be of service to my country by serving in the army," he said, as he left.

Mrs. Allen will remain here.
