

The Mountaineer

Published By THE WAYNESVILLE PRINTING CO. Main Street Phone 137

W. CURTIS RUSS, Editor Mrs. Hilda Way Gwyn, Associate Editor W. Curtis Russ and Marion T. Bridges, Publishers

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY SUBSCRIPTION RATES One Year, In Haywood County $1.75

Entered at the post office at Waynesville, N. C., as Second Class Matter, as provided under the Act of March 3, 1917.

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1943 (One Day Nearer Victory)

Another Appeal

Perhaps we are more conscious of the appearance of debris on the streets since the city officials asked the citizens of the community to join in with the annual clean-up campaign...

Take, for instance, the matter of paper drinking cups. We realize that the touch of summer also created a greater thirst in the community...

This may sound to some people as a matter of slight importance when the world is in such turmoil, but keeping the town clean should be a matter of personal as well as civic pride.

Haywood Holds Own

In the second war loan, Haywood seemed to be just a wee bit ahead of the average county in the district according to population.

Table with 2 columns: County Name and Amount. Includes Buncombe ($2,665,416.50), Haywood (669,669.25), Henderson (457,864.50), Transylvania (324,203.25), McDowell (293,997.25), Polk (203,466.25), Madison (191,080.25), Cherokee (175,146.50), Swain (142,379.25), Mitchell (131,830.00), Macon (109,178.00), Jackson (93,040.25), Yancey (52,418.75), Graham (12,631.25), Clay (7,825.00). Regional Total: $5,529,146.25

Pretty Low Figure

Here lately, with the sale of war bonds soaring, there has been lots of talk that thousands of dollars are being "cashed in."

So Far, So Good

We imagine that the reaction of our own citizens to the reports from the battle fronts during the past two weeks has been typical of that of the people from every section of the United States.

Brighter Outlook

Regardless of what we might have thought last winter, and of the many discouraging aspects of the Spring development, we hear from a number of sources that letters of inquiry are steadily coming in for accommodations in Waynesville area for the summer months.

Timely Definitions

The Sanford Herald, one of Eastern Carolina's leading semi-weekly newspapers, recently carried the following list of timely definitions: Modern Home: A place where a switch regulates everything—but the children.

Tourist Outlook

From Waynesville, Brevard and other mountain resort towns come encouraging reports concerning the outlook for tourist traffic in Western North Carolina this summer.

A Suggestion

It has been suggested that we should lend our support to the new wine-flavored lipsticks. Instead, with summer coming on, we have been asked to throw our support to a phosphorescent lipstick which will shine in the dark.

Might Be

A Washington man, who was clinically dead for five minutes, said afterward that he "floated in a warm friendly place."

HERE and THERE

By HILDA WAY GWYN

It is a funny thing about town bread... the kind we have here in the mountains... natives who have been brought up on a hot cake with good forest home made butter never lose their taste for this kind of bread.

Auxiliary Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Ora Platt McLaughly, of Waynesville, volunteered and reported for duty with the WAAAS on March 21...

A couple of weeks ago we ran into Zeb Curtis... who is always immaculate in his dress as he stands behind the counter at Smith's Drug Store.

Speaking of the WAAAS brings to mind the boys... we have been thinking for some time of making a suggestion about the draftees leaving this area.

We happen to be on a committee that often dispenses cigarettes to the boys... and again in the role of a reporter, it falls our lot to see them off.

Japan's premier, we read, still visualizes a Nipponese conquest of the United States. Powerful stuff, that opium, eh, Tojo?

It is a funny thing about town bread... the kind we have here in the mountains... natives who have been brought up on a hot cake with good forest home made butter never lose their taste for this kind of bread.

Rambling Around

Bits of this, that and the other picked up here, there and yonder. By W. CURTIS RUSS

Voice OF THE People

What do you think of Senator Bailey's proposed amendment to the constitution limiting the future presidents to two terms of office?

Jonathan Woody—"It would depend on the president as to the number of terms."

Jack Messer—"There might be some exceptions, but under usual circumstances I would favor it."

Walter Crawford—"Without any trimmings or trappings I am in favor of the proposed amendment."

C. N. Allen—"Under ordinary conditions I approve of one term. Under present conditions I do not approve of a change."

Jim Nolan—"I think if the people want a fellow for President, I would say let him have the office as long as they want to vote for him."

Grayden Ferguson—"Generally speaking I think two terms should be enough for any man, but there might be conditions where it would be best for a president to serve longer."

Pink Francis—"I think two terms is enough for one man to be president of the United States."

Mrs. Thad Howell—"I approve of two term limit, but during a great emergency, it is different."

Hugh Leatherwood—"If the people want a man for three or four terms and he is a good executive, I approve of letting him serve."

Rev. W. L. Hutchins—"I would not approve of such an amendment, as the law would remove President Roosevelt from office and that would be a calamity to the world."

The primal duties shine aloft, like stars: The charities that soothe and heal, and bless. Are scattered at the feet of Man, like flowers.

known job... I have painted, I have condensed, I have done carpenter work... there is nothing around the place that she hasn't had me on... No, never again will I take a vacation in the Springs...

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

By WILLIAM RITT Central Press Writer

IN SHAKESPEARE'S time, according to Factographs, school children spent 12 hours a day studying. Wasted effort. Only one of them got to be a Shakespeare.

A New Zealand reptile has a third eye on top of its head. Must come in handy during an air raid.

A writer frowns on hitch-hiking. What's this—thumbs down on thumbs up?

The average unabridged dictionary is said to contain about a half million words. Gosh, Joe Goebbels has used up a lot more words than that!

The hippopotamus has a hide two inches thick. This explains why, thinks Grandpappy Jenkins, the hippo is so nonchalantly homely.

Those Georgia convicts caught operating three stills within prison walls were not just trying to keep up their spirits.

Japan's premier, we read, still visualizes a Nipponese conquest of the United States. Powerful stuff, that opium, eh, Tojo?

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By STANLEY

Hugh Jolly is holding a beautiful rock flower... his Main Street home... and should have some beauty and permanency.

Perhaps you don't know an Allen's Creek farm... acres of onions plant... the largest... old timers have...

And speaking of the Haywood soldier recently... were complimentary... in which things... personnel. This was... was expected however.

Ray's Super Magazine... advertised glass... boards. If you have... new war models you... ed. And if you want... out, that can be arranged.

OPA officials were... checking over... were complimentary... ed by the local... personnel. This was... was expected however.

And when rationing... issued it will come... Charlott, and the... office will not have... ever to do with... tend to get it... some that the... orders from ad... the privilege of... which they ex...

In case you are... bits eating your... a bit of sulphur... Br'er Rabbit will... that's sulphurless...

One Waynesville... are so many children... hood, that when... playing together, and get dirty... hard to tell one from the other... each family has a personal... the children use who...

Some students... North Carolina... were over last... their paper... plant of The Mountaineer... seeing the many... and stages of... bly, press work... a newspaper... and too complicated... for the reader... took this much... they saw just a... vast amount of... got the paper...

One of the best... out of the war... incident in the... carrier was... with several... was one plane... not answer... as the carrier... another direction... insisted that... The pilot... command to land... After a few... carrier's command... the plane's radio... mission. About... glided in, and... of everyone, it... who had mis... the carrier. He... out from under... aloft, and he... tured.

And speaking of... tity in landing... trouble an Eastern... field had lost... ducks flying... At a certain time... reflection of the... phant runways... of water, and many... and ducks sailed... to make a three... to find the "water" was hard.

James Dee Crawford... nesville, route 2... son of Clyde... Robert E. Bl... Hampton, N. H... Adams, of Oak... Odell Rogers... to Avia Kate... ville, route 2... Odell Rogers... to Avia Kate... ville, route 2.

It's Not Cou... In all this... gram, no one... widen the straight... path.—The Detroit Wife—My, oh my! I'm so... erable. My husband... er evening and I haven't... faintest idea where he is.

Friend—My dear, you must... worry. You'd probably be... as miserable if you did know.

MARRIAGES

James Dee Crawford... nesville, route 2... son of Clyde... Robert E. Bl... Hampton, N. H... Adams, of Oak... Odell Rogers... to Avia Kate... ville, route 2... Odell Rogers... to Avia Kate... ville, route 2.