

Civic League Holds Last Meeting Of Club Year Tuesday

The Waynesville Civic League held the last meeting of the club year on Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Rufus L. Allen. Mrs. Noble Garrett and Mrs. Homer West were joint hostesses of the meeting.

After the routine business session various civic problems were discussed. A petition was formulated to present to the mayor asking that the traffic lights be resumed on Main street and that double parking be stopped, and also that cars passing churches and schools be restricted in speed.

Mrs. Royan McMurrin, of Virginia, was a special guest of the evening. Mrs. Rufus L. Allen, president of the league, presided.

With the adjournment of the meeting there will be no other meetings unless especially called until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Willson Shoobred and young son, William, Jr., were the guests of relatives in Atlanta last week. They went to attend a birthday observance of Master Shoobred's great grandmother, Mrs. Mary Barnes. Mr. Shoobred has returned home, but Mrs. Shoobred and young son will remain for a more extended visit.

Mr. R. E. Wood, of Elizabethton, Tenn., returned yesterday to her home after visiting her mother, Mrs. John N. Shoobred.

Mrs. Evelyn Peaces has returned from visiting friends and relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Mrs. Catherine Hill, who has been attending Agnes Scott, has arrived to spend a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Chas. R. Thomas, after which she will go to Chapel Hill where she will attend the summer school at the State University.

May Bride

MRS. FRANK ROWE ROBERTS, of Portsmouth, Va., who was before her marriage here on May the 26th, the former Miss Mary Ruby Davis, daughter of Mr. Gerald Culbertson Davis and the late Mrs. Maude Shelton Davis.

Miss Eugenia Martin, who has been attending Brevard College, has arrived to spend the summer vacation here with her mother, Mrs. O. R. Martin.

Fred Yeatout, former manager of Pat Dairy Products Company here, and now of Johnson City, Tenn., was in town on business last Friday.

Mrs. Calvin Houghland who has been spending several days here with her aunt, Mrs. Adora Smithers Rayne, is leaving this week for Virginia Beach. She and her young daughter, Sarah Josephine, will remain at Virginia Beach while her husband, Ensign Calvin Houghland is stationed at Norfolk.

Miss Meta Dicus, who attended Lees-McRae college this past year, has arrived to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dicus.

Marriage Takes Place In Clayton

MRS. ELMER DAVID HENDRIX, who was before her marriage in Clayton, Ga., the former Miss Lu', Elizabeth McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. McCracken. The young couple are residing with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Swamp Hendrix, of Allen's Creek.

Miss Lois Sharp Is Bride Of Paul Mull

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sharp, of Canton, Ga., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lois Sharp, to Cpl. Paul Mull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gravel Mull, of Waynesville, on Friday evening, May 7. The marriage was solemnized in a quiet ceremony at Clayton, Ga.

Mrs. Mull received her education at Bethel high school. For the past two years she has been employed with Welleo Shoe Corporation.

Cpl. Mull is in the U. S. Army, stationed near Jacksonville, Fla.

Following the wedding trip to Western North Carolina, he reported to duty at Jacksonville.

The bride will make her home in Waynesville and will retain her residence at The Welleo Shoe Corp.

Miss Sobil Jackson, of Baltimore and Charlotte, arrived on Sunday to spend her vacation here with her grandmother, Mrs. Willard Francis, and her great grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Miller. Miss Jackson, formerly of Waynesville, is in training at the School of Nursing at the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte.

Publisher Of The State Passes Through Here

Carl Gorch, publisher of The State, was a Waynesville visitor Monday. His publication recently observed its tenth anniversary, and in the edition, he named ten things that always impressed him about North Carolina. He listed Waynesville among those ten as being such a clean and pretty town.

When he visited The Mountaineer Monday he was thanked in behalf of the community for his consistent and kind remarks about the town.

Miss Catherine Davis, who graduated at Lees-McRae college last week, has arrived to spend some time here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Davis.

Mrs. Richard Gorranger and two daughters, Mary Lou and Helen, left last week for Brunswick, Ga., where they plan to spend two weeks with Mr. Gorranger who is employed there.

Miss Ruby Frances Brown left Monday for Greensboro where she will take special work in accounting at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Miss Doris Colkitt And Sgt. Paschall To Wed This Month

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Evan Colkitt have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Doris Colkitt, to Sergeant Dwight on Paschall, who is now attending Officers' Candidate School at Fort Belvoir, Va., from which he will be commissioned in the near future.

The marriage will take place the last of this month with the date to be announced later. A number of social entertainments have been planned for the bride-elect.

Mrs. Clyde H. Ray Extends Courtesy To Bride On Friday

Mrs. Clyde H. Ray, Jr. was hostess of a luncheon on Friday at her home in compliment to her cousin, Miss Ann Byrd Pafford, whose marriage to Lt. Samuel C. Welch, of Waynesville and Camp Croft, took place the next day.

The luncheon table was a riot of red roses and gardenias. The place were marked by bridal favours.

The guest list included the following: Miss Mary Virginia McWhorter, of Huntsville, Ala., Miss Sarah Frances Lacey, of Birmingham and Atlanta, and Miss Harriet Emery, of Durham and Atlanta, all attendees in the wedding on Saturday. Mrs. Ralph Paveset and her guest, Mrs. Frank Inman, of Atlanta, Miss Martha Way, Miss Hilda Way, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, by Mrs. G. R. Leach and Mrs. Ben Shan.

Miss Hilda Way, who has taught for the past two years in the schools of Kannapolis, has arrived to spend the summer vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way, Jr. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Margaret Way, who spent the last few days of her stay in Kannapolis with her.

Miss Patsy Gwyn, who has been a student at St. Mary's school, Raleigh, will arrive tomorrow to spend the summer vacation here with her family.

Miss Carroll Bell, who has attended Salem College during the past year, has arrived to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bell.

Miss Pafford, of Raleigh, who attended the Pafford-Welch marriage here on Saturday, has returned home.

Bride-Elect

MISS DORIS COLKITT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Evan Colkitt, whose engagement to Sergeant Dwight Lon Paschall is announced this week by her parents. The marriage will take place this month.

The bride-elect, Miss Doris Colkitt, is a member of the First Baptist church here. She is a member of the Junior League and the Y. W. C. A.

She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. She is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.

Joint Hostesses Give Breakfast For Bridal Couple

Mrs. J. H. Way, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, and Mrs. Ann Byrd Pafford, joint hostesses of the breakfast given for the bride and groom at the home of Mrs. J. H. Way, on Friday, followed by a First Baptist church ceremony was held on Saturday.

The breakfast was held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Way, on Friday, followed by a First Baptist church ceremony was held on Saturday.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

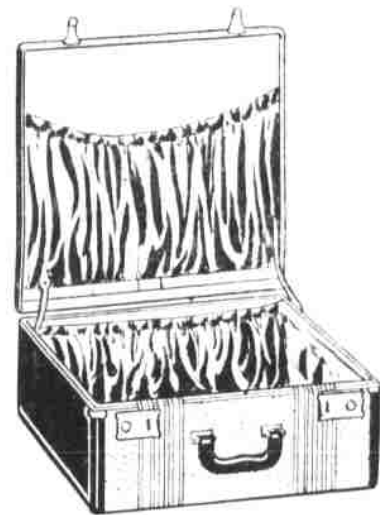

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and other relatives.

YES, WE HAVE LUGGAGE

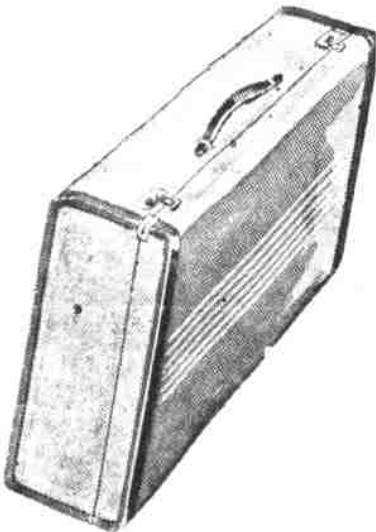

-Of the Several Popular Types

For Men and Women

Women's Hat Cases -- $6.95 up

-Women's Flat-Cases-

$1.69 up

-Men's Cases-

$1.69 up

Furlough Bags

$1.98 up

Women's Aeroplane Luggage In Matched Sets of 2 and 3 Pieces

Men's All Leather Gladstone Bag - - - $14.95

C. E. RAY'S SONS
Your Best Bet For Medium Priced—Popular Types
Of Luggage

50,000 Men Wanted For Kaiser Northwest Pacific Coast Shipyards

Needs skilled and semi-skilled workers — Construction Mechanics and Helpers in all Crafts

95¢ to $1.20 per hour day shift

10% bonus for swing shift—7½ hours per day and pay for 8.

15% bonus for night shift — 7 hours per day and pay for 8.

Time and half for work in excess of 40 hours.

Immediate complete living facilities available for all men employed.

1-A, 2-A, 2-B, or 3-A men without children will not be considered.

Those now employed in essential war work utilizing their highest skill need not apply.

Applicants must have draft registration, classification and Social Security Cards.

Apply at the United States Employment Service, War Manpower Commission, Waynesville Office any week day—Canton on any Thursday 9:00 A. M.-2:30 P. M. at Y. M. C. A.

GET SHOES AT BELK-HUDSON CO.

Tuesday Is the Last Day To Spend

Lucky Coupon 17

It Means NEW SHOES for Mother, Sister, Brother and Dad! WE'LL FIT YOU ALL!

Every member of the family who still has Stamp No. 17 in War Ration Book 1—can get a new pair of shoes up to June 15th. And if any member of the family has plenty of shoes, someone who hasn't can use the ration stamp that can be spared—out of any other ration book in the family!

Women's Styles $1.98-$5.95
Men's Styles $2.98-$7.95
Children's Styles $1.18-$5.95

Ladies SEE US FOR Natural Bridge Shoes We Are Exclusive Agents For Them Here

These Shoes Are Not Rationed . . .

In Natural Colors $1.94 Also Other Types

Blue—Black—Brown $2.45

BELK-HUDSON CO.
"Home Of Better Values"