

Methodist Church Youth Caravan To Close Friday

The Youth Caravan Program at the Methodist Church is proving of interest to many young people of our town. In the well-rounded program of instruction, worship and recreation, which has been in progress each afternoon and evening since Sunday, the leaders are succeeding admirably in making Religion vital and interesting and in making recreation wholesome.

Among the five visiting Caravan leaders, four different states are represented. One is from Alabama, one is from Tennessee, one is from Arkansas, and two are from this state.

Mrs. Connie Cope, the counsellor, has had extensive previous experience with Caravan work and is offering a stimulating course for adult leaders in the organization of a youth program in the local church. The other four are college and university students who have been given special training for this work.

The week's program will come to a close Friday evening with a Communion Service, beginning at 8:15. This is to be a carefully planned consecration service not only for young people but also for the adult members of the church. As in the other services of the week effective music will be rendered by the Young People's Choir under the
