

Old Glory Soon Wave Over Berlin, Rome and Tokyo!

GREETINGS TO HAYWOOD'S 2,500 MEN AND WOMEN IN THE ARMED FORCES

Haywood Takes Part In All War Efforts

56-Page Edition Is Tribute To Haywood Men And Women Now Serving Their Country

Citizens of County Active In All War Undertakings

Generations will recall the Haywood County's role in World War II, both on the home front and in the field.

Fine Montana Sheep Coming Into Haywood

One hundred head of fine Montana sheep are expected to arrive the last of the week or the first of next for Haywood county.

This Edition Dedicated to Those Who Have Paid Supreme Price

This edition of The Mountaineer is dedicated to the 13 men from Haywood County who have given the supreme sacrifice in this war; and also those who face death as they fight to free the world from the beasts of the Axis powers.

This Is Largest Newspaper Ever Published Here

As far as records are available, this is the largest single edition of a newspaper ever published in Waynesville.

This edition of The Mountaineer is being published as a tribute to the sons and daughters of Haywood who have answered their country's call and gone to war.

Well Known Editor Dies At Home In Albemarle

James Daniel Bivins, president of the Press Printing company, publishers of the Stanley News and Press, of Albemarle, and former postmaster of Albemarle, died at his home on last Thursday morning.

Wilt and Blight Hit Tomato Crop Hard In Haywood

Wilt and blight are playing havoc with tomato crops in all sections of Haywood county, the county agent's office reported this week.

Crawford Giles, Jr., Killed By A Gun In Newport News

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Rock Spring Baptist church for Crawford Giles, Jr., 18, son of Mrs. Grace Hill Giles, who died at Copeland Park, Newport News, Va., on Saturday of a gunshot wound of undetermined source.

Last Rites Held For Charles N. Jordan Saturday

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Hazelwood Baptist church for Charles N. Jordan, 65, who died at his home on the Fairview road Thursday night at 9:15 after a short illness.

Leadership Classes At First Baptist To Close Friday

The Sunday school revival which has been in session at the First Baptist church during the past week has been well attended, and will close Friday night.

Photos Used In Edition Ready

Those who furnished photographs for this edition can get them by calling at this office.

Hazelwood Baptists Are Having Training Meets

The Vacation Bible school which began Monday morning at the Hazelwood Baptist church will continue through Friday with classes from 9:30 o'clock till 11:45 o'clock.

Death Claims Mrs. J. P. Knox

Friends here were notified of the death of Mrs. J. P. Knox, formerly of Waynesville, who died on Thursday the 15, at her home on 3914 Elmwood Ave., Norwood, O., after a long illness.

Lt. Col. Minthorne Reed Serving Overseas

Lt. Col. William Stringfield Sloan, U. S. Medical Corps, son of Hugh J. and the late Linda Stringfield Sloan, of Waynesville, who volunteered in the service on Dec. 5, 1940, is now stationed at Camp Pickett, Va.

Lt. Col. William S. Sloan Stationed at Camp Pickett

Lt. Col. William Stringfield Sloan, U. S. Medical Corps, son of Hugh J. and the late Linda Stringfield Sloan, of Waynesville, who volunteered in the service on Dec. 5, 1940, is now stationed at Camp Pickett, Va.

Just Arrived

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, of Canton, route 1, announce the birth of a daughter on July 11.

Day Gas Tanks Can Be Refilled

Furnished gas tanks that are fed by "A" coupons, can feast again today, as coupon No. 6 becomes good for three gallons each—but it must be remembered that the eight coupons must last two months.

Limited Number of Extra Copies Available

The supply of extra copies of this edition is limited. Although more than two thousand extra copies were printed, the advance sales were ahead of expectations.

Bethel Presbyterian Women To Organize 29th

The women of the Bethel Presbyterian church will meet at the church Thursday, July 29th, to organize an auxiliary.

Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan Red Cross Worker Overseas

Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan, daughter of Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan, who is a recreational Red Cross worker, is now serving somewhere in Australia.

Ted D. Arrington, Gunners Mate in the Navy, Left Friday for Washington to take a four-months course in naval gunnery, after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. S. B. Arrington, on the Balsam road.

For the past eighteen months he has been action in the Pacific aboard a destroyer and helped rescue the crew of the aircraft carrier Lexington when she went down.

Only 11 men Classified During Past Week

The Waynesville area draft board has announced the classification of only 11 men during the past week as follows:

BUYS HOME HERE

John Vandenberg, plant manager of Dayton Rubber Manufacturing Company, has purchased the home of Oliver Seagriff, of Jacksonville. The property formerly was owned by Jim Frady.