

Reclassifications Announced For Week

The Waynesville draft board has announced the following reclassifications made during the past week: Placed in class 1-A were: Klaus Hams Rollman, Ernest Dalton, Medford Addie Grasty, Robert Emmett Bradley, Charles Ray Pressley, Jessie Eckles Pressley, James Lee Milner, Clarence Everett Arrington and Orville David Messer. Frederick A. Love was placed in class 1-A (H). William Carl Justice and Zeb Walton Curtis, Jr., were placed in class 1-C. Raymond Francis Swayngim was put in class 1-C (H). Hobart Farrady Hoggan was put in class 3-A (H). Ralph Lewis Duckett was put in class 3-D. Hobert Pressnell and Isaac Shafter Rollins were placed in class 4-A. Placed in class 4-F were: Charles Milford Dunn, Estus Rathbone, George Garnett Snyder, Verlin Gunter, Woodrow Wilson Ferguson, Coy Grooms, Lyman Brown-Jowes Rogers, Odell Rogers, Charles Lewis Crayne and Dencille Cagle. Clarence Willie Moore was put in class 4-F (H). Columbus Wright was put in class 2-B.

Sgt. George A. McCracken Spends 15-day Furlough

Technical Sergeant George A. McCracken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McCracken, of Waynesville, has recently returned to his post at Drane Field, Lakeland, Fla., after spending a 15-day furlough here with his parents. Sgt. McCracken volunteered in the service in Miami in 1941 and was sent to Mac Dill Field, Tampa, and from there to his present post where he is serving as an instructor in the air corps.

Pvt. William Rhinehart Now At Fort Eustis, Va.

Pvt. William A. Rhinehart, of Lake Junaluska, has just arrived at Fort Eustis, Va., the nation's largest Antiaircraft Artillery Replacement Training Center, to begin his period of basic training in the army. Pvt. Rhinehart, who arrived at Fort Eustis on June 30, attended school at Lake Junaluska.

Gordon E. Hendricks, U. S. Navy, Promoted

Gordon E. Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hendricks, formerly of route 1, Waynesville, and now stationed in Newport News, Va., has recently been promoted to the rank of petty officer, first class in the U. S. Navy. He and his wife, the former Miss Hazel Ellen Hall, of San Antonio, Tex., were the recent guests of his parents. Following a brief visit to the home of Mrs. Hendricks in Texas, the couple will go to San Diego, Calif., where Mr. Hendricks will attend a Navy school until December at which time he will return to his ship. He has been in the navy for the past three and one half years and has been on active duty in the Pacific since the outbreak of the war. Before enlisting he attended the local high school and was sports editor of The Waynesville Mountaineer for several months.

Lt. Sam C. Welch Put In Command of Company

Lt. Sam C. Welch, who is stationed at Camp Croft, has been transferred from Company D of the 31st Training Battalion and has been placed in command of Company A. Lt. Welch volunteered in the service shortly after the attack on Pearl Harbor and was inducted at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. He took his basic training at Camp Wolters, Tex., and from there was sent to officers candidate school at Fort Benning, Ga. He was senior examiner with the Federal Home Loan Bank, with headquarters in Topeka, Kan., at the time he entered the army.

Staff Sgt. Paul M. Miller Has Arrived In England

Staff Sergeant Paul M. Miller, U. S. Air corps, has arrived safely in England, according to information received by his parents. Sgt. Miller was inducted in the service at Camp Croft in Sept. 1942, and was sent from there to Fort Bragg. After being stationed at Fort Bragg for a brief time he was sent to eight different camps prior to his being sent overseas. Sgt. Miller is an aerial gunner and before entering the service he was employed by Ben Sloan, local contractor.

In Idaho

SGT. J. B. WYATT, son of Mrs. J. F. Wyatt, of Waynesville, route 1, is now stationed at Gowen Field, Boise, Idaho. He was inducted at Fort Bragg in January, 1942, and from there sent to Puerto Rico, where he served 17 months. From Puerto Rico he was transferred to his present post. Before entering the service he was employed by the Unagusta Manufacturing Company. He has two brothers in the service: Pfc. Dewey Wyatt, who is stationed at Fort Moultrie, and Pfc. Henry Wyatt, who is now at Camp McCain, Miss. Sgt. Wyatt recently spent a nine-day furlough with his mother.

Lt. Grey C. Winchester Is Navigator Aboard A Flying Fortress Bomber

A fighting crew member of the army's powerful and best-known airplane is 2nd Lt. Grey C. Winchester, of Waynesville, who is completing his training at Dyersburg, Tenn., aboard a Flying Fortress and will soon head into combat with the rest of his 10-man crew. A graduate of the Army Air Forces training schools, Lt. Winchester for the past several weeks has been a member of the Second Air Force which train heavy bombardment crews for aerial warfare. Son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Winchester, of Waynesville, Lt. Winchester is the navigator aboard the Army's prize bomber. As navigator he is responsible for plotting the courses of all flights, both in training and overseas. At the fighting front it will be his task to navigate the Fortress to the enemy target and, the mission being accomplished, to return the bomber and men safely to their home base. In civilian life Lt. Winchester was a student. Chief ambition of his is to return to his home and family after he has paid his respect to the axis.

Pvt. Edgar Walker Norris, who is stationed at the Orlando Air Base, Florida, has returned to camp after spending a furlough with his father and other relatives here. He is the son of Fred Norris, of Route Two.

Apprentice Seaman McClure Now at Great Lakes

Apprentice Seaman William Robert (Bill) McClure, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McClure, of Waynesville, route 1, who is serving in the Naval Reserve, is now stationed at Great Lakes, Ill., where he is taking his boat training. Seaman McClure volunteered in July of this year. Prior to entering the service he was employed by A. C. Lawrence Leather Company, and was a member of the senior class of the high school.

Julius Bynum Miller Left After Leave Here

Seaman Julius Bynum Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller, of Waynesville, who was inducted at Camp Croft on May 18, left yesterday for Bainbridge, Md., to report after a week's leave spent here with his parents. Seaman Miller has recently completed his boat training at Bainbridge. Prior to entering the service he was a student in the local high school.

Pvt. Billy B. Medford Receives Promotion

Private Billy B. Medford, who is stationed at Fort Jackson, has been promoted to Private First Class, it was learned recently.

In Navy

Ensign Claude G. Davis, U. S. Navy, who has been in the service since 1926, expects to be called to serve with the fleet at any date. He has served in Nicaragua in 1927, in Europe in 1927-28, in Asiatic waters from 1929 to 1932; was in Shanghai when Japs captured Woosung Forts at entrance to post. Was on duty at Naval Air Station in Pensacola from June, 1932, to August, 1934. In 1936 was sent to Island of Guam and served as secretary to governor; in 1939 returned to the States. He was in Battle of Solomons; made warrant officer and served at St. Louis Naval Air Station. In June was commissioned ensign.

Sgt. Milas Green Is Now A Staff Sergeant

Milas L. Green, formerly a sergeant in the Army Air Forces, has been promoted to staff sergeant at the Army Air Base, Casper, Wyoming. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Green, Clyde, route 1. He is an assistant engineer and in civilian life was an inspector at the Canton mills.

Lt. Hobart Hyatt Here On Leave From Mo.

First Lt. Hobart Hyatt, son of Mrs. Marion Worsham and the late Raymond Hyatt, is spending a several days leave here with his mother. Lt. Hyatt was inducted at Fort Bragg in October, 1941 while a student at State College, Raleigh. He attended Officer Candidate school at Fort Sill, Okla., and is now stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

A Nice Print

If you don't get everything you think is coming to you, maybe you should be glad.

CURVACEOUS Pat Fitzgerald, the Swim for Health Week Girl of 1943, is shown wearing the latest in Celanese swim suits. It's called Mississippi Magic, but as far as we can see Pat doesn't need any hocus to catch our eye. (International)

In Mississippi

Private Lyndon Bryson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bryson, of Canton, who is now stationed at the Greenville Air Field, in Mississippi. He was inducted at Fort Jackson and from there was sent to Keesler Field, Miss. From Keesler Field he was transferred to Maxwell Field, Ala., and then to his present post. Before entering the service he was employed by the Anchor Looking Glass Company in Salem, N. J., as a shipping clerk. He is a graduate of the Sylva and Waynesville schools.

Frank Brown, Jr., U. S. Navy at Camp Endicot

Frank Brown, Jr., Carpenter's Mate, third class, has recently completed his boot training at Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va. He volunteered in the Seabees on May 27, and was inducted at Camp Croft, and is now stationed at Camp Endicot, R. I. Before entering the service he was employed in the Ammunition Depot at Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Edna Mae Burress, who holds a position as teacher in the public schools of LaGrande, Ore., left Sunday after spending several weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bolling H. Burress, Miss Burress will go to Washington, D. C., and visit her sister, Miss Frances Burress, who holds a position with the Red Cross there on route West. From Washington she plans to go to Columbus, Ohio, where she will visit a friend.

Phil Medford, who has been attending the first semester of the summer school at Davidson College, has arrived to spend the remainder of the summer here with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Medford.

Uncle Sam has offered to buy all beer surpluses on hand in Venezuela, says a Caracas paper. And we'll have a barrel of fun!

NOTICE OF SALE

On Monday, August 23rd, 1943, at 11 o'clock a. m., at the court house door in Town of Waynesville, Haywood County, N. C., I will offer for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash that certain parcel of land, with improvements, situate in said county and state and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

BEGINNING on a stake in the westerly margin of Brown Avenue, said stake being 106.5 feet from Killian-Brown line, and runs with the margin of said Brown Avenue S. 24° 45' W. 50 feet; S. 21° 10' W. 50 feet to a stake in the margin of said Brown Avenue at the corner of a new street (Fairview St.); thence with the northerly margin of said new street N. 70° W. 191.3 feet to a stake 16 feet from the center of the Southern Railroad; thence parallel with and 16 feet from the center of the Southern Railway as it curves 113 feet to a stake; thence S. 63° 30' E. 192 feet to the BEGINNING containing one-half acre, more or less, and being Lots Nos. 9 and 10 of the D. M. Killian property as per survey and map of J. W. Seaver made May 25, 1927.

Sale made pursuant to the powers and authority vested in me by that certain deed of trust executed by Dr. Furman Angel dated April 6, 1940, and recorded in Book 45, Page 95, Haywood County Registry, to which instrument and record reference is hereby made for all the terms and conditions thereof. Sale will be made subject to a prior deed of trust to Home Owners' Loan Corporation. This July 21, 1943. A. T. WARD, Trustee. No. 1315-July 29-Aug. 5-12-19.

A absent-minded boss is the one who makes the mistake of going to the office instead of the golf links. Now is the time when even the poorest voice can safely break with the "Star-Spangled Banner". We're all glad to stand by you.

Financial statement for STANDARD INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK, N. Y. Condition December 31, 1942. Assets: Amount of Capital paid up, $2,118,119.00; Amount of Ledger Assets, $2,118,119.00; Income, $2,118,119.00; Disbursements, $2,118,119.00. Liabilities: Unearned premiums, $2,118,119.00; Salaries, rents, expenses, bills, accounts, fees, due or accrued, $2,118,119.00. Total admitted Assets, $2,118,119.00. Total Liabilities, $2,118,119.00.

Financial statement for STAR INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK, N. Y. Condition December 31, 1942. Assets: Amount of Capital paid up, $1,000,000.00; Amount of Ledger Assets, $1,000,000.00; Income, $1,000,000.00; Disbursements, $1,000,000.00. Liabilities: Unearned premiums, $1,000,000.00; Salaries, rents, expenses, bills, accounts, fees, due or accrued, $1,000,000.00. Total admitted Assets, $1,000,000.00. Total Liabilities, $1,000,000.00.

Financial statement for STATE FARM MUTUAL AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE COMPANY, BLOOMINGTON, ILL. Condition December 31, 1942. Assets: Amount of Capital paid up, $1,000,000.00; Amount of Ledger Assets, $1,000,000.00; Income, $1,000,000.00; Disbursements, $1,000,000.00. Liabilities: Unearned premiums, $1,000,000.00; Salaries, rents, expenses, bills, accounts, fees, due or accrued, $1,000,000.00. Total admitted Assets, $1,000,000.00. Total Liabilities, $1,000,000.00.

FOR YOU... FOR ME PEPSI-COLA FOR ENERGY 5¢ Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Asheville

NO MORE COAT HANGERS Coat hangers are "no more." Blame it on Snicker-gruber, the beast of Germany. When you send in your garments, please send in a hanger, otherwise we will have to return them to you just folded as best we can. Yes, we're sorry, too, but we'll all smile together, work together, and see this thing through. Waynesville Laundry PHONE 205

For Staple Groceries, Choice Fresh Fruits and Vegetables See Us BALENTINE'S CANNING SUPPLIES Everything the canner needs for home canning. We have Jars, Tops, Rings, Sugar, Wax. Get all your Canning Needs here and save. "Good Things To Eat"