Tunisian Sand

By FRED B. MOODY (On Duty In North Africa)

There's blood on the sand of Tunisia, It's the blood of the brave and the true, Of three nations who battled together With banners of red, white and blue.

As they marched o'er the sand of Tunisia, To the hills where the enemy lay; They remembered their General's order: "The pass must be taken today."

Some thought of their homes and their mothers, And some thought of their sweethearts so fair, And some, as they plodded and stumbled, Were softly whispering a prayer.

Forward they went to the battle, With faces unsmiling and stern; They knew as they charged up the hillside That many would never return.

There's blood on the sand of Tunisia, It's their gift to the freedom they love, May their names live in Glory forever, And their souls rest in Heaven above.
