

Music Club To Study Music Of Allied Countries

Mrs. Hugh A. Love was hostess to the initial meeting of the Waynesville Music Club on Saturday afternoon at the rectory of Grace Episcopal church. Miss Stephanie Moore, newly elected president, presided.

Plans were discussed for the district meeting which will be held at the S. and W. Cafeteria in Asheville, at which time the local club will be hostess. The meeting is scheduled in Asheville rather than Waynesville, so it will be more convenient for the members in the district to attend.

Members were urged to send in old victrola records, or victrolas to Mrs. Troy Wyche, who is serving as local chairman of the committee on war service.

Mrs. Hugh A. Love, chairman, announced that the program for the year would be on "Music of the Allies," and include the following subjects: "North Carolina Composers"; "Music Inspired by the World Wars"; "Early French Composers"; "Modern Composers"; "Early and Modern Russian Composers"; "Chinese Composers"; "English Composers."

Miss Margaret Stringfield offered to donate the book entitled "Music of the Allies" around which the program is to be centered.

Miss Ida Jean Brown was elected first vice president for the coming year. Mrs. H. G. Hammett was named delegate to represent the club at the district meeting.

During the social hour the hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Stephanie Moore and Mrs. Robt. H. Stretcher.

Mrs. M. Ferguson Heads Haywood Council Home Clubs

Mrs. Mark Ferguson, of the Fines Creek section of the county, was elected president of the Haywood County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs at a meeting held on Saturday in the office of the home demonstration agent, Miss Mary Margaret Smith. She succeeds Mrs. L. J. Cannon, of Beaverdam.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Ferguson were: vice president, Mrs. Troy Leatherwood, of Jonathan Creek; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mark Swain, of Beaverdam.

Miss Anna K. Rowe, district home agent, was present for the meeting and discussed various phases of the work.

Miss Smith presented the program of work for 1944, the theme of which will be "Together We Work, Save and Serve."

Mrs. L. J. Cannon, retiring president, presided over the meeting.

Marie Strange Given Party On 13th Birthday Anniversary On Monday

Mrs. Joe Linder was hostess of a party on Monday evening honoring Marie Strange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Strange on the occasion of her 13th birthday anniversary. Assisting in receiving and serving were the mother of the guest of honor, Mrs. Lawrence Green and Mrs. Jack Arrington.

A color motif of pink and white was observed in the party appointments. Games and dancing featured the entertainment of the evening. The honor guest was the recipient of many gifts.

The guest list included, Jean Crouser, Peggy Wells, Nancy Jones, Dot Miller, Theresa Alley, Mary Joe Green, Johnny Maples, Betty McClure, Anna Joe Miller, Ida Lou Gibson, Jean Ann Bradley, Betty Joe Brown, Phyllis Ferguson, Janet Abel.

Bobby Hardin, Billy Miller, Aaron Hyatt, Happy Hudson, Bobby Leatherwood, Thomas Wilson, Boyd Medford, Virgil Hoglan, Fletcher Ferguson, Robert Gibson, Wallace Brown, Orion Hammett, and Robert Ferguson.

Mrs. E. J. Hyatt Will Have Paper At UDC Meeting Tomorrow

Mrs. Ernest J. Hyatt will have the paper at the October meeting of the Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which will be held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Swift on Friday afternoon. Her subject will be "Matthew Fontaine Murray."

Mrs. Grover C. Davis, president, will preside. The nominating committee will bring in their report and the annual election of officers will follow. All members are urged to attend.

Miss Jennie Greer had as her guest last week, Lt. Keith Forest Cooper, of Greensboro. Lt. Cooper was en route to San Diego, Calif.

A young lawyer was trying a case dealing with the ownership of a number of hogs.

Lawyer (stressing a point)—Gentlemen of the jury, there were just 24 hogs in that drove—just twice as many as there are in this jury box.

Then he wondered why he lost his case.

September Bride

MRS. TOMISH H. CARVER, of Elmer, N. J., who was before her marriage Miss Nola Conrad, of Haywood county and Elmer, N. J.

Legion Auxiliary Entertains With Dinner Saturday

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary entertained with a dinner last Saturday night at the Legion Home on Depot street in honor of the Legion Post in celebration of the final payment made on the Legion Home.

The sixty guests attending the affair were seated at two long tables decorated in the patriotic motif. Commander Henry Lee, commander of the post, was master of ceremonies. Rev. S. R. Crockett gave the invocation.

During the evening the Rev. Robt. Tatum, Legionnaire, rector of Grace Episcopal church, gave a talk on his experiences in Alaska. William Shoobred introduced Rosemary Herman, who attended Girls State at Woman's College of the University this summer, and Robert Gibson, who represented the local post at Boys State at the State University, Chapel Hill. Both made brief talks, expressing their appreciation of the honor they felt in being selected.

Mrs. J. C. Brown, president of the Legion Auxiliary, was handed a lighted match with which she burned the notes on the building.

The Rippetoes Are Having A Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Rippetoe are having a family reunion this week. They have with them their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert White and children, Mary and Hugh White, of Patterson, N. J. Mr. White holds a position with the Wright Aircraft Corporation of Patterson; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd G. Rippetoe, Jr., and young daughter, Linda Rippetoe, of Miami. Mr. Rippetoe is a flight engineer with Panama American Airways. They also have with them Mrs. Rippetoe's mother, Mrs. Julia Fudge, who spends the greater part of her time in Waynesville.

Miss Hilda Way, who is teaching at Kannapolis, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way.

Mrs. R. B. Hundley and two children, June and Teddy, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearce and daughter, Mrs. R. D. Herndon, spent last Sunday at Fontana Dam with Mr. Hundley, who is employed there.

Miss Jane Isley, of Cooleemee, spent the week-end here with her brother, Chas. Isley, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Richeson.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler had as their guests over the week-end, Tom Bowen and Lens Stratton, of Chicago.

Mrs. Clem Cade and Mrs. Joe Moore, Jr., are visiting their mother, Mrs. George Austin, who is ill at her home in Cusseta, Ga.

Mrs. Fred Carey, of Hartford, Conn., arrived on Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Hugh Jolly. Mrs. Carey came here from Kansas City where she and her husband had been visiting their sons, Ensign Fred Moody Carey and Ensign James Clayton Carey, both serving in the Naval Air Corps. Mr. and Mrs. Carey made the trip from Hartford to Kansas City by plane. Mrs. Carey is the former Miss Elizabeth Moody, of Waynesville.

Mrs. Betsy and Miss Harrold Lee Lee, young daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Lee, of Asheville, spent the week-end in town as the guests of their aunt, Miss Lois Harrold.

Mrs. Herman Francis returned during the week from a visit to Sgt. Herman Francis who is now stationed at Fort Dix, N. J. While on her visit to Fort Dix, Mrs. Francis and her husband were the guests of the latter's uncle, Ensign Hubert McCracken who is stationed in New York City.

Mrs. J. W. Killian Elected President Of Woman's Club

Mrs. James W. Killian was elected president of the Waynesville Woman's Club at the meeting held at the Hotel LeFaine Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick was named first vice president. Mrs. J. Harden Howell served as chairman of the nominating committee.

The program was featured by a number of short talks and the formulation of plans for the coming year. Mrs. Killian introduced Mrs. S. P. Gay, district chairman, who spoke at length on the necessity for club women buying bonds. She stated that the N. C. Federation had set as its goal the sale of $300,000 in the third war loan drive.

Mrs. W. H. F. Millar, chairman of nursing in the local Red Cross chapter, introduced Miss King, consultant nurse in the Red Cross district, who spoke to the members of the need for nurses in the service. She stated that a call would soon be made for 36,000 nurses, and 200,000 nurses' aids. She pointed out that 1,500 women had completed the work in this state.

Mrs. J. C. Brown, welfare chairman, reported that she had sent 250 garments to the Russian relief and a large number of shoes.

Mrs. J. M. Kellett, was appointed chairman of the annual reading contest sponsored in the high school for the girls. Plans were made to hold the monthly meetings at the Hotel LeFaine, due to its central location.

Mrs. J. H. Howell, Mrs. J. C. Brown and Mrs. Frank Ferguson were named as a committee to check on the sale of bonds in the club.

A membership committee was named to visit and see each old member of the organization with the hope of reviving their interest in the club.

All members were urged to attend the district club meeting to be held in Sylva on October 11. Members were also asked to compete for the prizes offered by the State Federation.

Mrs. J. R. Morgan To Preside Over Meet In Asheville

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Asheville Division of the Baptist church will hold its annual meeting on October 7th, at the First Baptist church in Asheville. Mrs. J. R. Morgan, of Waynesville, superintendent, will preside over the meeting which will start promptly at 10 o'clock.

A program of unusual interest with outstanding speakers is being planned. Among those who will take part on the program are: Miss Mary Christian, of Birmingham, Ala., southside chairman of community missions; Miss Mary Currin, of Raleigh, state executive secretary; Mrs. J. S. Farmer, of Raleigh, state W. M. U. president; a missionary representative, and other leaders.

All presidents and officers of the W. M. U. also counselors of Young People's organizations and others are urged to attend this important meeting.

The Asheville division comprises the following associations: Buncombe, Carolina, French Broad, Haywood, Mitchell and Yancey.

Among those who will attend from the local First Baptist church are: Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Mrs. Z. L. Massey, Mrs. H. G. Hammett, Mrs. Marion Bridges, Mrs. E. H. Balentine, Mrs. H. O. Champion and others.

Mrs. Lawson Summerrow, the former Miss Mildred Boineau, who has been employed in Washington for the past year, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boineau, of Hazelwood. She later plans to join her husband, Sgt. Lawson Summerrow, who is now attending officers candidate school at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Joe M. Tate, of Hazelwood, spent the week-end in Newton visiting his sons and daughters and their families who reside there.

Mrs. Hobert Duckett has returned home after spending the summer with her husband, who is stationed at Indio, Calif.

Miss Jane A. Grace Becomes Bride Of Pvt. J. H. Crawford

Miss Jane Agnes Grace, daughter of Mrs. Charles Ernest Grace and the late Captain Grace, of Hazelwood, became the bride of Private James Howard Crawford, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Crawford, of Popular Bluff, Mo., in a simple candle-light service at the home of the bride on Saturday evening, September 18, at 8:30 o'clock.

The Rev. R. H. Crockett, pastor of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli interspersed with fern and palm leaves. White tapers in candelabra were placed on either side.

The bride, who was given in marriage by A. G. Boineau, was attired in a gown of white Brocade satin made with tight fitting bodice, sweetheart neckline and full length skirt. Her short length veil was caught to a Juliet cap of white seeded pearls. She carried a bouquet made of bride's roses.

Mrs. A. G. Boineau was matron of honor and the only attendant. She wore blue tuffeta with basque waist and full skirt fashioned along the same lines as that of the bride's. She wore red roses.

The groom had as best man L. C. Davis, of Hazelwood.

Mrs. Grace, mother of the bride, was attired in a blue lace dress with short jacket. Her flowers were pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained with an informal reception. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Crawford is a graduate of Waynesville township high school, and graduated in June of this year from Woman's College of the University of North Carolina.

Pvt. Crawford is a native of Popular Bluff, Mo., and is now stationed at North Camp Hood, Texas.

After a short honeymoon Pvt. Crawford will return to his post at Camp Hood and Mrs. Crawford will remain here with her mother.

Mrs. J. C. Ferguson left Monday for St. Petersburg, Fla., where she will visit relatives. From Florida she plans to go to Neuma, Ariz., for a visit and from there will go to Long Beach, Calif., where she will make an extended stay.

Private Earl Massey, accompanied by Mrs. Massey, spent last week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Massey, Pvt. Massey is now stationed at Camp Kilmer, N. J., with the medical corps.

In The Navy

J. C. JENNINGS, general manager of Belk-Hudson Company here, was recently inducted into the Navy, and is now taking his initial training at Bainbridge, Md. Mrs. Jennings and small son are making their home with her mother, Mrs. Clontz, in Canton. Miss Mackey, of Orangeburg, is now in charge of the store here.

Miss Arbutus McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter McClure, of Fairview Road, is leaving this week to enter the Baptist Memorial Hospital, School of Nursing in Memphis, Tenn.

School opens October 1st, at this time she will begin her training. She is going to specialize in surgical nursing. Upon finishing she will have a chance to enter U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps.

She will be accompanied to Memphis by her mother and father.

Miss McClure Enters Memphis Nursing School

High School Group Enjoy Party On Saturday Evening

Miss Peggy Ingle, assisted by Miss Nancy Jones, entertained a group of friends with a party on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smathers. Games featured the party, after which refreshments were served.

The guest list included: Jean Ann Bradley, Jane Wyche, Betty Brown, Marguerite Way, Betsy Siler, Frances Hendrix, Carolyn Burgin, Jean Isley, of Cooleemee, Aaron Hyatt, Bill Richeson, Bill Miller, Bob Hardin, Bruce Briggs, Colvin Frances, Bobby Leatherwood, Bob Ferguson, Charles Burr Way, Wallace Brown, Boyd Medford, Zeb Alley, Joe Turner and Tommy Norris.

Miss Vivian Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Clark, of Hazelwood, has entered St. John's Business School.

Hazelwood Baptist Group Give Shower For Mrs. Davis

The Ladies Missionary Union of the Hazelwood Baptist church gave a miscellaneous shower on last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lethen Knight for Mrs. C. S. Davis, whose home was recently damaged by fire. Mrs. Davis received more than a hundred gifts.

Those attending were: Mrs. W. R. Blanton, Mrs. T. L. McHone, Mrs. Dewey Hyatt, Mrs. G. C. Summerrow, Mrs. J. H. Messer, Mrs. T. G. Stump, Mrs. W. T. Queen, Mrs. George Walls, Mrs. Clyde Jordan, Mrs. J. B. Hoyle, Mrs. John Blalock, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Roy Colvard, Mrs. L. McHaffey, Mrs. Louie Clark, Mrs. Jack Snyder, Sonja Snyder.

Mrs. R. L. Cope, Mrs. Tom Blalock, Mrs. Tom Garrett, Mrs. W. P. Sutton, Mrs. Ralph Summerrow, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Sam Lane, Jr., Mrs. Roy Swanger, Mrs. Larry Robinson, Mrs. Frank Compton, Mrs. Bee Cunningham, Mrs. Pink Compton, Mrs. Lucius Smith,

Wanted To Buy

Any quantity—not less than 25-pound units of Clean Bundled Standard Size Newspapers at 1 1/2 cents per pound.

Magazines and Sunday Supplements and Tabloid Newspapers not wanted. Clean regular size newspapers only.

ERKRAFT PLANT

Hazelwood, N. C.

Give Us Your - - Property Listings FOR SALE OR RENT

We Work For Your Interest

L. N. DAVIS CO.

Rentals—Real Estate—Insurance—Bonds

PHONE 77 MAIN STREET

ACT FAST WHEN A COLD THREATENS

At the very first sniffle, sneeze, or sign of a cold just try a few drops of Vicks Vapo-rol up each nostril. Used in time, Vapo-rol keeps the head cold from getting a grip. It helps prevent many a cold from developing. And remember this, when head cold makes you miserable or when a cold causes a sore throat, Vapo-rol does three important things. It shrinks swollen membranes, relieves irritation, (3) helps clear clogged nasal passages. Enjoy the relief it brings. Follow directions in folder.

VICKS VAPORO-ROL

WINGS

WEATHERMAN

Water-Repellent Jackets

Each in a Carrying Envelope

Styled and tailored for good looks, real service, and long, satisfying wear. Come in and see them today.

$3.95 to $5.95

Worthwhile savings are made when you buy Wings Shirts—the luxury shirts at "low-ceiling" prices. The substantial, pre-tested fabrics look like new even after many trips to the laundry, and the tailoring is the kind you'd expect in fine custom-tailored shirts. Come in and get Wings—today. $1.95 up

RAY'S DEPARTMENT STORE

Mrs. F. E. Kuykendall, Mrs. Bert Putnam, Mrs. Frank Underwood, Mrs. David Gaddy, Mrs. S. Knight, Miss Edith Queen, Mrs. Wilma Hoyle, Mrs. Katherine Knight, Mrs. Oscar Knight, Mrs. Elmer Dudley, and Mrs. J. Head, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woodard of Lake Wales, Fla., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodard, in Hazelwood.

NEED NEW SHIRTS, AND BUDGET REELING?

TAKE TO Wings

FOR QUALITY AT "LOW-CEILING"

Your first introduction should tell you WHY

BLACK-DRAUGHT

is a BEST SELLING LAXATIVE all over the South

Follow Label Directions