

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gill Observe 25th Wedding Anniversary On Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Gill, of Waynesville and New York, held open house at their home, Walnut Cove, on Saturday afternoon and evening. Around them were gathered fifty guests called to the appointed hours. The occasion marked their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Guests were greeted at the entrance to the reception room by Mrs. Frank Smathers, of Miami, and Mrs. Joe Gill. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Davis, of Waynesville, and Mrs. C. C. White, of Dallas, Tex., were also present. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White, of Dallas, Tex., were also present. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White, of Dallas, Tex., were also present.

The house was arranged in quantities of yellow roses and white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Gill, who have been spending their summers in Waynesville for the past several years, were married in Dallas, Tex., on October 2, 1918. Mrs. Gill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Jenkins, of Dallas, Tex. At the time of their marriage, Mr. Gill was a Lieutenant in the U. S. Army, having recently graduated from the Officers Training School at Fort Monroe, to which post he and his bride returned after their wedding.

Following the war Mr. and Mrs. Gill returned to Dallas, where they resided until 1925 when they went to Miami to reside. A few years ago Mr. Gill's business connections took him to New York City and they maintained their residence in Greenwich, Conn. In 1940 they purchased the Thad Howell farm on Jonathan Creek and last year erected their present residence. They plan to spend their summers here each year.

A number of the out of town guests coming here for the occasion arrived on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Gill were hosts of a house party at their home and entertained another group at the Waynesville Country Club.

On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Gill were hosts of a square dance at the Piedmont Hotel. Sam Queen, of the Soco Gap Dance group and his team were in charge of the dance. Music was furnished by a local string band.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gill christened their picnic grounds on their farm with a barbecue honoring their house guests. On Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Prevost entertained with a tea. On Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woody were hosts of a buffet supper party at their home for Mr. and Mrs. Gill and their guests. They were assisted by Mrs. Henry Troutman, of Atlanta, sister of Mrs. Woody, Mrs. Nora Swift Atkins and Mrs. Phillip Myers, of Miami and Atlantic City.

IF THROAT IS SORE

IF A COLD has given you a miserable sore throat, here's how to relieve the suffering.

DO THIS NOW—Melt a small lump of VapoRub on your tongue and feel the comforting medication slowly trickle down your throat—bathing the irritated membranes—bringing blessed relief where you want it, when you want it.

DO THIS TONIGHT—Rub throat, chest with VapoRub. Its long continued poultice-and-vapor action loosens phlegm, relieves irritation, eases coughing, invites restful sleep.
