

Marriage Of Miss Catherine Davis To Everett Brown Is Solemnized

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Catherine Charlotte Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Spurgeon Davis, of Hazelwood, to Everett Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brown, of Asheville, which took place in a candlelight ceremony at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Waynesville.

Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor of the church, officiated using the ring ceremony.

For the occasion the church was decorated with white gladioli and evergreens, with white candelabra on either side.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was given by Mrs. Hammett, organist, and two songs by Kenneth McSwain, soloist, music teacher at Lees McRae College and choirster of First Presbyterian church in Asheville. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a two-piece aqua wool dress. Her only ornament was a string of pearls given to her by the bridegroom and she carried a bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums.

Miss June Brown, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a two-piece navy crepe dress. She carried a bouquet of yellow baby chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom had as his best man Chester Davis, of Newport News, Va., a brother of the bride. Ushers were: Bill Young, Ian Morrison and Charles McChesney, of Bristol, Tenn., classmates of the groom at Kings College.

Mrs. Davis, mother of the bride, was dressed in black crepe and wore corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Brown, mother of the groom, wore brown crepe and her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The house was decorated with late fall flowers. A handmade linen cloth, the bride's oldest brother brought from China, covered the bride's table, which was centered by a two tier wedding cake. Punch was served by Miss Croleta Brown and Miss Dorothy Richeson.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for a short wedding trip, after which they will reside in Bristol, Tenn., where Mr.

Brown is a ministerial student.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Waynesville high school, and Lees McRae College. While there she was a member of the Student Council, secretary and treasurer of the freshman class, member of the Sullivan Society, a Green and Gold Masquers and A Capella Choir.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of Lee Edwards high school, Asheville, and Lee McRae College, where he was outstanding in Forensic work, a member of Christian Council and the Phi Rho Pi, Demosthenean Club. He plans to enter the Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond after completing his work at Kings College.

Fines Creek News

By MRS. D. N. RATHBONE

Mack Fische, of Gastonia, son of Mrs. Agnes Fische, is visiting with relatives on Fines Creek. He is also visiting with his cousin, Reeves Green, of the U. S. Navy, who is spending his leave here.

Reeves Green, who left with the August quota of inducted men, has now completed his boat training in the Navy at Bainbridge, Md., and is now spending his leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Green.

Mrs. Jack Redmond and children are spending a few days here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Noland. Mr. and Mrs. Redmond have been living at Newport News, Va., for some time where the former holds a position.

Verlu Ferguson, who holds a position at Newport News, arrived on Fines Creek during the week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ferguson. He was accompanied by his mother who had been visiting with him.

Grover Davis and his sister, Victoria Davis, of Newport News, Va., are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Davis, of upper Fines Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. McCrary were among those from Fines Creek who attended the Methodist annual conference which was held at Statesville last week. After the meeting adjourned on Wednesday, they immediately left by bus for Newport News, Va., where they visited their son, Billie McCrary, who is a welder in the shipyards there.

The Golden Rule isn't used enough to keep it polished up.

In Iceland

PVT. EUGENE JEFF LEWIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lewis, of Maggie, is now serving with the armed forces somewhere in Iceland. He has been in the service since September 11, 1942, and was inducted at Camp Croft. From Croft he was sent to Leesburg, Fla., and then to Atlantic City. From the latter he was sent overseas.

Prior to entering the service Pvt. Lewis was employed by the Lowdermilk Brothers on scenic highway construction.

DEATHS

MRS. TINA KUYKENDALL

Funeral services were held on Saturday at the home near Cruso for Mrs. Tina Kuykendall, 77, who died Friday following a long illness. The Rev. Marvin Mann officiated and burial was in the Bethel cemetery.

Mrs. Kuykendall was a native and life-long resident of this county. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Nancy Kuykendall and Mrs. Ida Revis and one son, Bill Kuykendall, all of the Cruso section.

HARDY T. FULLBRIGHT

Last rites were held at the home in East Waynesville Friday afternoon for Hardy Talmadge Fullbright, 47, who died at 8:15 a. m. Thursday at his residence after an illness of several months.

The Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated and burial was in the Fullbright cemetery in the Rogers Cove near Lake Junaluska.

Mr. Fullbright was a native of this county. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Polly Hicks Fullbright, of Waynesville; two sons, James, of Waynesville, and Floyd, of the U. S. Navy, now with the fleet somewhere in the Pacific; six daughters, Mrs. Sam Gibson, Jr., Miss Anne Fullbright, Miss Louise Fullbright, Miss Aileen Fullbright and Miss Hazel Fullbright, all of Waynesville; one brother, John Fullbright, of Union, S. C. The Massie Funeral home had charge of the arrangements.

FARIDA F. DOTSON

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Hyder Mountain Methodist church for Farida F. Dotson, 48, veteran of World War I, who died in an Asheville hospital last Thursday. The Rev. Grady Burgin and the Rev. R. P. McCracken, officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Dotson made his home on Waynesville, route 2. He is survived by his widow, three children, Ruth, Thomas and Troy Dotson, all of whom reside at home; and his mother, Mrs. Zina Dotson Harris, of route 2.

MRS. LEONA FORD GOSNELL

Mrs. Leona Ford Gosnell, 30, wife of Lawson Gosnell, died at her home in the Thicketty section of Beaverdam township at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. The plans of the services have not been completed, but will be held in the Old Thicketty church. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Gosnell is the daughter of J. H. Ford and the late Mrs. Lily Preston Clark Ford, of this county.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Willie Joan, age 9, and Norma Ruth, age 4; her father; four brothers, Ott, of Clyde, Theodore, of Waynesville, route 1, Grady, of Canton, route 1, and Alvin, of Canton, route 2; five sisters, Mrs. Albert Shipman, Mrs. James Conard, Mrs. Chas. Meadows, Mrs. Garland Trantham and Mrs. Oswell Holcombe, all of Canton.

Clyde School News

A Hallowe'en carnival will be staged at the Clyde school on Friday evening, starting at 7 o'clock. One of the features will be a popularity contest with girls from the various grades competing.

The competitors are: first grade, Judy Abbot, and Martha Jean Downs; second grade, Sammy Kay Haynes, and Shirley Rhodamer;

WANTED—Men apple pickers this week and next. Bolling Hall Apple Orchard, Saunook. Oct. 28.

Law Governing Changes Of Jobs, And Workers Seeking New Jobs Is Changed

Mrs. Edith P. Alley, manager of the Waynesville office of the United States Employment Service stated yesterday that she had been instructed by the War Manpower Commission, to emphasize to employers and workers the following important provisions of the War Manpower Commission Employment Stabilization Program for Region IV as revised October 16:

1. Any worker employed in an essential activity during the preceding 60 days must possess a Statement of Availability before he can be hired.

2. Any worker employed in an essential activity during the preceding 60 days may be hired in an activity other than essential only through the USES.

3. A worker who was not engaged in an essential activity during the preceding 60 days may be hired only if he signs a certificate of prior employment or is referred by the USES.

4. A worker desiring to go to another locality for employment must first clear with the local USES office and obtain a referral or Statement of Availability. This applies to all workers regardless of occupations except workers in excluded employment.

5. Excluded from the Program are new employees in agriculture, workers leaving or entering employment in State and local governments, workers leaving or entering domestic work, employment of less than 7 days duration and work supplemental to an employee's principal work.

6. All workers leaving agricultural employment may be hired only through the USES.

7. All workers in occupations third grade, the Fowler Twins; fourth grade, Lois Smith and Barbara McKinney; fifth grade, Alice Neal Medford; sixth grade, Geraldine Fish; seventh grade, Virginia Medford; eighth grade, Louise Reed; ninth grade, Jeanette Killian; tenth grade, Cleo Baldwin; eleventh grade, Louise Warren.

The proceeds of the carnival will be turned over to the school librarian. On Thursday the 21st, Mr. Olive, a Chinese missionary gave an address to the student body. He was introduced by Rev. H. G. Hammett, of Waynesville. Following the address the Glee Club gave several numbers.

Miss Margaret Stringfield, well known composer and music teacher is teaching in the Clyde schools.

Buy War Bonds and Stamps.

In Oregon

CPL. WAYNE M. OWEN, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie J. Owen, of Waynesville, route 2, is now on maneuvers in Oregon. He has been in the service since November 2, 1942, and has been stationed since then at the following: Camp Wheeler, Ga., Camp Adair, Ore., and Fort Lewis, Wash. From the latter he was sent on maneuvers. His wife and small son reside with his parents.

designated as critical by the War Manpower Commission may be hired only through the USES.

8. Workers are required to stay on their jobs pending receipt of a Statement of Availability.

9. Local offices may issue Statements of Availability to employees of employers not utilizing their workers at highest skills or full time or paying them below the standards set by the War Labor Board.

10. Employers are required to keep Statements of Availability, referral cards from the USES offices and certificates of prior employment in their files for inspection by the War Manpower Commission to evidence compliance with the Program.

Workers or employers who desire clarification or additional information on employment stabilization should communicate with the local United States Employment Service office immediately. Within a short time checkers will be sent into the various areas to see that the points outlined above are being observed by local employers.

In Pacific Area

WILLIAM R. McCLURE, seaman second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McClure, is now serving in the Pacific area. Seaman McClure volunteered in the U. S. Naval Reserve in July of this year. He took his training at Great Lakes, Ill., after which he was transferred to California. From the latter he was sent on sea duty. Before entering the service Sea-

Miss Frances Brown Active In Journalism

Miss Mary Frances Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. of Waynesville, and a Western Carolina Teacher was on the English Club recently, reviewing "Drama" by Upton Sinclair.

Miss Brown is a 22 year old Waynesville high school graduate who is doing journalistic work.

man McClure, 18, son of the incoming senator, Waynesville township.

Relief At For Your C

Creomulsion relieves pain because it goes right to the trouble to help loosen germ laden phlegm, and to soothe and heal raw, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist a bottle of Creomulsion with understanding you must like quickly allays the cough to have your money back. CREOMULSION For Coughs, Chest Colds,

Plan For The Future - - - Let Us Help You With Your Plans.

Many are planning to homes and modernizing still others are looking ward to the day when boys and girls will go to college. This association can you with all these plans.

October Series Open Now. Building and Loan ASSOCIATION

Phone 17 Main Street

Now Enjoy BILTMORE WHEAT-HEARTS TOASTED GOLDEN BROWN Cooks in 3 MINUTES

Want Ads

LOST—"A" gasoline Ration Book issued in name of Eugene Russell. Finder please return to Underwood Lumber and Supply. Oct. 14-21-28

LOST—Ration books Nos. 1 and 2, issued in name of C. F. Medford, route 2, Waynesville. Finder please return. Oct. 14-21-28

LOST—Gas Ration Book. Pick-up truck, issued in name of Brading Gas Service, Inc. Finder please return. Oct. 14-21-28

LOST—Oil ration book issued in name of Grady Pruitt, Hazelwood. Finder please return. Oct. 21-28 Nov. 4.

WANTED TO RENT OR BUY—Small luggage trailer in good condition. J. H. Christie, Hannah Apartments, Phone 471-J. Oct. 21-28.

LOST—Sugar ration book (canning) issued in name of Arthur Lewis, Maggie, N. C. Finder please return. Oct. 21-28 Nov. 4

LOST—Ration book No. 1 issued in name of David D. Green. Serial No. 798065-347. Finder please return. Oct. 21-28 Nov. 4

FOR SALE—66-acres mountain land at Cove Creek Gap joining the park; some 25 acres grass land; has considerable development possibilities. H. C. Wilburn, Waynesville, Phone 132-J. Oct. 21-28.

FOR SALE—10 H. P. Fairbanks-Morse Kerosene Stationary engine, also 2-ton truck. Saddle horse seven years old. Paul Hyatt, Telephone 266-J. Oct. 28 Nov. 4.

LOST—Ration Book No. 3, sugar ration books issued in name of Margaret Gray and William Gray, Waynesville. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—Between Hyatt Creek and Hazelwood, oil stamps issued in name of Ralph Crawford, Hyatt Creek. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11.

LOST—Four Number one ration books and one number three book. Finder please return to Mrs. John Morrow, route 1, Waynesville. Oct. 28

WANTED—Black walnut kernels. Any quantity. Waynesville Bakery. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—Fuel oil ration book issued in name of Lillie Shelton, route 1, Waynesville, N. C. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—Ration book number three, by Charlotte Caldwell, Smathers Street, house 51. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—War Ration Book No. 3 issued in name of Rebecca Ann Long, Hazelwood, N. C. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—Oil ration book issued in name of Mrs. Spurgeon Shelton, route 2, Waynesville. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

FOR SALE—16 gauge double-barrel hammerless shot-gun, or trade for S. and W. revolver. E. Mauldin, route 2, Box 132, Waynesville, N. C. Oct. 28

LOST—10 5-lb. sugar canning ration certificates, issued in name of J. Edward Jaynes, route 2, Waynesville. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—Ration Book No. 3, issued in name of Arthur Hartsell, Hazelwood, N. C. Finder please return. Oct. 28 Nov. 4-11

LOST—Ration books issued in names of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramey, and Evelyn, Pauline, and William Ferguson. Finder please return to Aiken Gift Shop. Oct. 28 Nov. 4.

APARTMENT FOR RENT—Mrs. W. T. Crawford, Phone 250-J. Oct. 28.

WANT—Maid for general housework. For whole or part time. Phone 324-R. Oct. 28

WANTED TO BUY—Two galvanized washtubs on stand. Phone 324-R. Oct. 28

FOR SALE—Four-burner electric range and suite of dining room furniture in solid oak consisting of round table with extension leaves, sideboard, serving table, china cabinet and ten chairs. Address Waynesville, box 855. Oct. 28.

Distinctive Printing

That Always Satisfies

Some of the things we are prepared to satisfactorily print for you—

- BILLS
- TAGS
- BONDS
- BADGES
- BLOTTERS
- BOOKLETS
- PLACARDS
- DODGERS
- CIRCULARS
- VOUCHERS
- HANDBILLS
- PROGRAMS
- CHECKS
- BILL HEADS
- PRIZE LISTS
- PAMPHLETS
- INVITATIONS
- PRICE LISTS
- POST CARDS
- STATEMENTS
- CATALOGUES
- MILK TICKETS
- BLANK NOTES
- FILING CARDS
- NOTE HEADS
- LEGAL FORMS
- MENU CARDS
- SHOW PRINTING
- VISITING CARDS
- MENU BOOKLETS
- LEGAL BLANKS
- SCORE CARDS
- MEAL TICKETS
- ORDER BLANKS
- MEMO BLANKS
- LETTER HEADS
- BUSINESS CARDS
- LAUNDRY LISTS
- STORE SALE BILLS
- WINDOW CARDS
- POSTERS, all sizes
- DANCE PROGRAMS
- GUMMED LABELS
- RECEPTION CARDS
- AUCTION SALE BILLS
- ADMISSION TICKETS
- UNGUMMED LABELS
- SOCIETY STATIONERY
- WEDDING INVITATIONS
- FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
- BY-LAWS & MINUTES
- EVERYTHING IN PRINTING

Modern equipment in the hands of skilled workmen, with a desire to render satisfaction assures you quality printing at reasonable prices. Whatever your printing requirements be sure to see us.

Phone 137

The Mountaineer

PRINTING—PUBLISHING—OFFICE SUPPLIES

Phone 137

Main Street