

Mrs. John K. Boone Honored With Luncheon On Her 85th Birthday

Mrs. Hugh Massie was hostess of a luncheon on Saturday in compliment to her mother, Mrs. John K. Boone, on the occasion of her eighty-fifth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Boone, who is beloved by a large circle of friends, has resided in Waynesville for the past sixty-five years.

She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. William Kerr, member of the Holston Conference and a former pastor of the First Methodist church here. She and her family have been active in the affairs of the community for many years. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts and messages on her eighty-fifth anniversary. The guest list was confined to a small group of intimate friends.

They were seated at one long table centered with a small pumpkin, containing an arrangement of daisy-anthemums in yellow and bronze shades. At the four corners were crystal holders with long yellow tapers. Each place was marked by a candle in the form of a turkey.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Massie were: Mrs. John K. Boone, Mrs. H. G. West, Mrs. B. F. Smathers, Mrs. J. C. Welch, Mrs. T. N. Massie, Mrs. Ernest Hyatt, Mrs. Will Shelton, Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan, Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell, Mrs. S. C. Satterthwaite, and the Misses Ann and Corrie Kerr, sisters of the honor guest, of Asheville.

Is Married

MR. AND MRS. A. K. MESSER, of Cove Creek, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Hazel Messer (above), to James H. McClure, son of Mrs. G. C. Hooker, of Waynesville, route 2. The marriage took place in a quiet ceremony in Waynesville on November 13th.

Miss Evelyn Pearce, who is a student at Western Carolina Teachers College, spent the week-end here with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Queen, Jr., are spending several days here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Queen.

Mrs. P. T. Price, of Columbia, S. C., and her sister, Miss Katherine Palmer, of Raleigh, spent the past week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Palmer, at their home on the Fairview Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Therrell and sons, Frank, Jr., and Ashton Therrell, of Knoxville, were the guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way, Jr.

Mrs. John K. Boone had as her guests during the week her sisters, Miss Ann and Miss Corrie Kerr, of Asheville.

Mrs. Roxie Ashe, of Cedro Woolly, Wash., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Leopard.

Mrs. Wayne Battle and two children, of Bryson City, were the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Plott, during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Luther have gone to Oveta, Fla., for the winter months. They will return to Waynesville in the early Spring.

Rev. Joe Daniels To Speak At Cove Creek

Rev. Joe Daniels, Holiness preacher, will speak at the Congregational Holiness Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Another Osborne Cow Sets Up Good Record

Another cow of the Osborne herd has just completed another creditable advanced register record of 9,023 pounds of milk and 427 pounds of butterfat. The cow is Haywood H. Limate, 3 1/2 years old, and during the period produced a healthy calf for her owner.

Thomas G. Jones Here On Leave

Thomas G. Jones, seaman second class, son of Mrs. James H. Jones, is spending a several days leave here. He enlisted in the U. S. Navy at Atlanta and from there was sent to Williamsburg, where he took both his boat and advanced training at Camp Peary. Prior to entering the service he was a radio operator at Fort McPherson.

Pfc. Robt. Cope, Jr., Here On 15-Day Leave

Private First Class Robert Cope, Jr., U. S. Army, is spending a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cope and his wife, Mrs. Cope and small daughter, Pfc. Cope who has been in the service over two years, is now stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Joe Cathey, of Greenville, Tex., announce the birth of a son on Nov. 15, at the Bection Hospital in Greenville. Mrs. Cathey is the former Miss Sara Jane Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Walker, of Waynesville.

Miss Withers Gives Book Review To Woman's Club

Miss Hester Ann Withers was in charge of the program at the November meeting of the Waynesville Woman's Club which was held on Thursday afternoon at the Hotel LeFaine, with Mrs. James W. Killian, president, presiding.

Miss Withers reviewed "Western Star", narrative of America in poetry by the late Stephen Vincent Benet. Miss Withers also told of the life of the author and his place in literature.

Mrs. Cornelia Nixon, chairman of music, presented Mrs. Fred Martin, who gave a vocal selection, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Matney.

During the business session plans were made for the annual community Christmas tree, which will be staged this year on Christmas Eve afternoon on the courthouse grounds, with Mrs. J. C. Brown serving as chairman. Plans were also made to entertain the local troop of Girl Scouts, which is sponsored by the organization.

Leslie Moody, Jr. Returns To Bainbridge

Leslie Moody, Jr., seaman second class, has returned to his post at Bainbridge, Md., after spending a seven-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moody of Waynesville.

Seaman Moody has completed his boot training and will shortly be assigned to another post. He was inducted at Camp Croft and sent from there to Bainbridge.

It was decided to give a cash prize to the art department of the township high school. Members were urged to work in the Red Cross surgical dressings rooms. Plans were discussed regarding a planting of shrubs and flowers at the county home.

During the social hour the following served as hostesses: Mrs. Rufus H. Blackwell, Mrs. Cornelia Nixon, and Mrs. E. A. Williamson. A number of specially invited guests were present for the meeting.

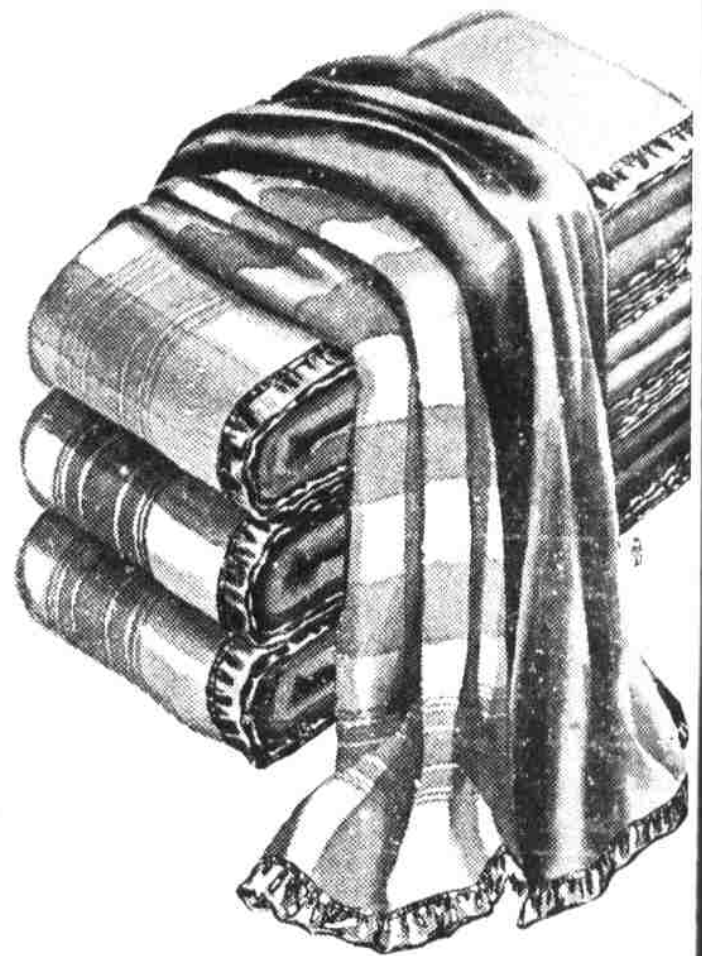

A man who wouldn't lie to a woman has little consideration for her feelings.

You Will Find At Ray's Lovely

And Nothing Is Nicer Than

LINENS - - - BLANKETS - - - COMFORTS

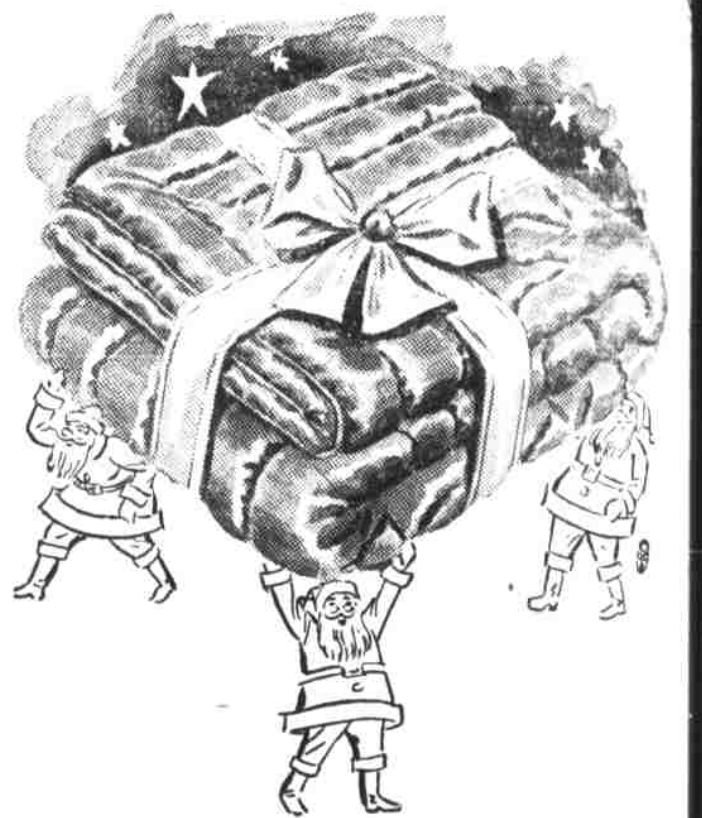

Blankets Are Being Shown Of Lovely Gift Types That Anyone Would Appreciate

Gift Type Singles - - $3.19 up

Gift Type Doubles - - $5.50 up

Indian Blankets - - - $1.98 up

An All-Wool Comfort - - - $9.50

Expected Soon - - - $5.50

Let Us Have the Pleasure of Showing You

Ray's Dept. Store

LOOK WHO'S HERE...

AT FOUNTAINS NOW 5¢

Pepsi-Cola Company, Long Island City, N. Y.
Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Asheville

Nelly Don

ENKA rayon brings fresh interest to wintry wardrobes

Their role is to brighten dark accessories and lighten your wardrobe problems! Fine washable rayons that are well made, well fitting, indicative of Spring.

a-Print Nelda Crepe of Enka rayon in blue, tan or red, 14.44.
b-Whimsy print Georgette Enka rayon in navy, grey, tan or light blue, 14.44.

The Toggery

Include Building and Loan In Your Plans For the Future.

Many are planning to build homes and modernizing, and still others are looking forward to the day when their boys and girls will go away to college.

This association can help you with all these plans.

October Series Open Now.

HAYWOOD Building and Loan ASSOCIATION

Phone 17 Main Street

PARK THEATRE

WAYNESVILLE, N. C.

MATINEE Saturday and Sunday 2:00 and 4:00 P. M.—NIGHT SHOWS 7:00 and 9:00 P. M.—SUNDAY NIGHT Opens 8:15, Begin 8:30—ADMISSIONS Adults 30c Tax Included; Children Under 12 Years, 11c Tax Included.

Thursday -- November 25
"Hoosier Holiday"
With Dale Evans and G. Byron.

Friday -- November 26
"They Came To Blow Up America"
With G. Sanders.

Saturday -- November 27
"Border Patrol"
With William Boyd.

LATE SHOW — 10:30 P. M.
"Scream In The Dark"
Starring R. Lowrey and M. MasDonald.

Sunday -- November 28
"Young Ideas"
With Mary Astor and H. Marshall.

Monday-Tuesday -- November 29-30
"Old Acquaintances"
Bette Davis, Miriam Hopkins, Gig Young (Byron Barr)

Wednesday -- December 1
"Alaska Highway"
Starring Richard Arlen and Jean Parker.

We Are Exclusive Agents In Waynesville For Rufus Siler's:

SILER'S PURE PORK SAUSAGE
SILER'S LIVER MUSH
SILER'S SPARE RIBS

All available meats properly cut in our Grade "A" Market by experienced butchers.

BALLENTINE'S

"Home Of Good Things To Eat"

It's Thrifty, Healthy and Economically To Eat...

Fruits and Vegetables

We have the best the market affords... see our selection daily