This Newspaper Gets Award Of Merit For Pulpwood Campaign

This newspaper has just been given a beautiful Award of Merit by the American Newspaper Publishers Association of New York, for the part this paper has played in the campaign to increase pulpwood production.

The award will be framed and hung over the desk of the editor. The award is beautifully printed on ivory parchment, and measures about 13 by 17 inches.

A copy of the award, reduced in size, is being published in today's issue.

The award was given in recognition of the "outstanding contribution to the nation's war program... and for the effective effort of this newspaper to increase the production of pulpwood during the 1943 Victory Pulpwood Campaign."

In presenting the award, Walter M. Dear, chairman of the newspaper pulpwood committee said:

"You have cooperated most generously in the 1943 Victory Pulpwood Campaign, and I am happy to send you the enclosed Award of Merit as a token of appreciation from the Newspaper Pulpwood Committee of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

"While we cannot yet estimate the results of this newspaper campaign in terms of pulpwood production, I believe we can feel justly proud of our record. Your newspaper, with the support of your local pulpwood committee and your community, has performed a patriotic and vital service for our country and the men who are fighting for its preservation.

"However, one doesn't rest on one's record in wartime. Certainly, the boys in uniform are not getting because the trend has changed from Axis to Allied attack. The war has not been won yet, and there are stiff battles ahead on the home front, as well as on the fighting fronts.

"Pulpwood is still a vital war material, made scarce by the manpower shortage. Our fighting forces will need it so long as the war lasts, so long as there is an American soldier on foreign soil.

The War Production Board, at whose request we conducted the 1943 campaign, shortly will announce 1944 goals based on estimated military and essential civilian requirements. Consequently, I am asking for your continued support of the Victory Pulpwood Campaign in 1944 through the influential columns of your newspapers and the local pulpwood committees that you have formed.

"I am sure that we can count on your continued cooperation in the Victory Pulpwood Campaign for 1944 and so long as there is an acute need for weapons and materials of war made from pulpwood."

Sleet Storm Hit This Area Christmas Day

The blanket of ice that was spread over the highways of this area on Christmas Day kept many who planned to spend Christmas with friends and families from making their trips, or if they had started, placed them several hours in reaching their destination.

Buses ran on irregular schedules for the greater part of the morning and around 2:30 all schedules were cancelled and no buses traveled on the highways from that time until around 3:30 Sunday morning when the regular hours were resumed.

A number of persons are reported to have slipped and fallen, but no serious accidents have been reported. Many persons who had planned to deliver their Christmas gifts during Christmas Day, were forced to wait until Sunday. A drizzling rain poured down

Post Office Only Place To Be Closed On New Year's Day

Business in the community will not take a vacation from a regular work-a-day Saturday this week, despite the fact that it falls on New Year's Day. The merchants took action on the matter a few weeks ago, and it was decided that due to the fact that the Christmas week-end was of unusual length, the day would not be observed with a vacation.

The post office will be the only office closed for the day. In the U. S. Postal Service New Year's Day is a national holiday and is always observed as such.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown, of Bristol, Tenn., spent the holidays here with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Davis. Mrs. Brown is the former Miss Catherine Davis.

Christmas Eve night and by morning the temperatures had dropped and as a result there was as much as two inches of ice surface in many places, with every inch of highways coated in a perfectly frozen sheet.

It was pointed out by many of the local citizens, that had the tire on most cars not been in such a worn condition automobile owners would not have been so cautious as to stay off the highways, but that under the conditions they were afraid to venture out.

There was said to have been fewer motor vehicles off the highways in this area during the first part of Saturday than ever noted since the automobile has been the accepted mode of travel.

'44 Business Depends On Collapse Of Axis, Says Roger Babson

Famous Statistician Predicts 10% Increase In Retail Sales During 1944.

By Roger W. Babson

Babson Park, Mass.—Most firms are booked to capacity. If any more business were offered they would not be able to handle it for many months. This is roughly my forecast for 1944. The Babsonchart Index of the Physical Volume of Business for the final quarter of 1943 averaged 141 compared with 150.7 for the same period of 1942. The all-time high was reached in December, 1942, when my Index stood at 155.6. It is not possible that this record can be exceeded in 1944.

COMMODITY PRICES

War developments will influence commodity prices during 1944. The collapse of Germany could result in a sharp, though temporary, reaction in leading wholesale indexes. If the going in Italy or elsewhere should prove unexpectedly hard—indicating a longer war—prices should firm. Cattle and hogs may bring lower average prices. Soybean and corn prices face the test of large marketings. They will do well to hold. Increased imports of coffee, cocoa and sugar will hold down their prices.

Continued heavy demand is indicated for most industrial commodities. To what extent efforts to roll back food prices to September 15, 1942, levels will succeed is problematical. Mounting over-all shortages, unprecedented demand and necessity for maximum output will tend to maintain strong upward pressure on most prices. Advancing parity prices, storage, insurance and black markets further tend to keep prices high. Subsidies will be granted certain producers during 1944.

INVENTORIES

Businessmen should watch the Government's policy of disposing of its huge inventories of consumer merchandise. With supplies at a much higher level than in World War I, retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers should insist there be no dumping on domestic markets. This could smash prices. Flooding the export markets could make it difficult to sell goods abroad at a fair profit. I hope a substantial portion of our surplus will be given to the peoples of Continental Europe and China.

SALES PROSPECTS

I forecast that retail dollar sales will average 5 to 10 per cent higher in 1944 than in 1943. Sales volume of consumer goods will again start to climb as smaller companies get the okay on postwar merchandise. I expect some decline from 1943 in the physical volume of retail sales due to scarcity of goods and less employment. Substitute merchandise has sold well but manufacturers and wholesaler— (Continued on page 6)

PUBLIC WANTS ALARM CLOCKS

"What are some of the shortages which have bothered you most?" Nearly 5,000 persons throughout the country were asked this question, in a recent survey of consumer requirements made by the Office of Civilian Requirements. The most serious inconvenience and hardship is caused by the shortage of food affects the greatest number—followed in order of number by elastic, galvanized ware, some textile products, and alarm clocks. "Most of the needs brought out by this survey can and will be met," Arthur D. Whitesides, vice-chairman of OCR, said.

Miss Eleanor Messer, who resides in Asheville, was the guest of relatives here during the week.
