

Mary L. Palmer Wedded To Sgt. W. F. Duncan

The marriage of Miss Mary Louise Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Palmer, of Hazelwood, to Sergeant William Frank Duncan, son of Mrs. Frank Duncan and the late Mr. Duncan, of Greenville, S. C., was solemnized Saturday afternoon, February 12, at 4:30 o'clock at the Hazelwood Baptist church.

The Rev. J. M. Woodard, pastor, performed the vows, using the ring ceremony.

The altar of the church was decorated with ferns and greenery. Only members of the family and intimate friends were present for the wedding.

Mrs. Bee Cunningham, pianist, presided at the ceremony, played the "Flower Song". For the recessional she used the march from "Lohengrin".

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride wore a two-piece dress of navy blue silk with white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow gerberas. She wore a gold bracelet, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Palmer, Hazelwood. She is a graduate of the Waynesville high school.

Sgt. Duncan is stationed at Fort McCall, Ala., having been in service since November 11, 1941. Following the marriage, the bride's mother entertained with an informal reception at their home.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature arch of white roses from which tiny white wedding bells were suspended. The center was covered with tulle and small yellow rose buds interspersed with miniature white love birds.

Mrs. Kenneth Scruggs, sister of the bride, presided at the bride's table. Others assisting in serving were Miss Naomi Palmer, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Hugh Palmer, sister-in-law for the bride.

At present Mrs. Duncan will make her home with her parents while Sgt. Duncan is in service.

To Brighten Rainy Days

White water-proofed taffeta rain-coat.

By VERA WINSTON

SOME OF the coats dedicated to old Jupiter Pluvius are so good looking that it is a great temptation to wear them when it isn't raining. Of this type is this attractive rain coat of white water-proofed taffeta with collar of black velvet. Three black buttons, one at the neck and two at the waist, fasten the ample lap-over. A small peplum lends additional chic, and the separate bow tie worn under the collar is optional.

Woman's Club To Have Program On Art and Library

The February meeting of the Waynesville Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon at the Hotel LeFaine with Mrs. Frank Ferguson, Mrs. Stanley Brading and Miss Jessie Herren as associate hostesses. Mrs. James W. Killian, president, presided.

Miss Robina Miller, chairman of art, was in charge of the program. She introduced Mrs. Inez Brooks, teacher of art in the Waynesville township high school, who in turn presented six of her students, three Girl Scouts and three Boy Scouts, members of the local troops. The six students displayed arts and crafts which they had made under the supervision of Mrs. Brooks and explained in detail the type of their work and how it was created.

Miss Margaret Johnston, newly elected county librarian for Haywood County Library, spoke to the club on the library system. She stressed the importance of reading today and the part a library will play in the post war planning.

During the business session the club went on record as endorsing the Bolton bill concerning recognition of the rank of nurses. It was voted to make a $5.00 donation to the cancer control drive and also a similar amount for work in training the blind.

A social hour followed adjournment.
