

Men From Route At Great Lakes

Men from the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., are being sent to the front lines. They are: Dewey Carver, son of Dewey Carver, Tinnie V. Carver, son of Tinnie V. Carver, and Charles C. Sutton, all of Waynesville.

L. Browning Is Promoted To Corporal

L. Browning is promoted to the grade of corporal since he was promoted in the Army at Camp Croft, October, 1942. Prior to his assignment to Herbert Smart Air Base, he completed a tour of duty in the Medical Corps at Robins, Ga.

Browning was educated in the schools of North Carolina, before entering the service, as a machine operator for a furniture firm.

Browning is the son of Mr. Mrs. L. Browning, route one.

Whisenhunt Is A Second Lieutenant

James E. (Dick) Whisenhunt, was recently commissioned a Second Lieutenant at Marafara, Texas Base, and has been retained as an instructor. Before going to Texas, he was stationed at Santa Anna, Santa Anna, and Marianna, Arizona. Whisenhunt is the son of J. E. Whisenhunt, of Swanwick, and the late J. E. Whisenhunt. He formerly resided in Hazlet and is a graduate of Waynesville high school and Brevard College.

Before entering the service in January, 1943, he was connected with the Sumco Products Co., in Waynesville, S. C.

He recently married the former Louise Macphus, of Hartsville, S. C.

"Well, Sarge, I was thinking about calling the folks when I get off tonight"

If you were away in camp, you'd know how much that call means. You can help the service men by not making any casual Long Distance calls between 7 and 10 at night. That's when most of them call and there's a big rush on many circuits.

Overseas

SGT. EUGENE SMATHERS, of Waynesville, R. F. D. No. 1, who left here with Company "H", National Guard Unit in September, 1940, is now serving overseas. He received his basic training at Fort Jackson. He was transferred to the Infantry and sent to Camp Blanding, Fla. From the latter he was sent to Camp Forrest, Tenn., and then to Camp Atterbury, Ind., then to New York and overseas.

Sgt. Smathers recently spent a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Smathers, of the Waynesville Road. He has won medals for expert pistolman, expert rifleman, and while on maneuvers in Tennessee won a medal for good conduct. He also made the highest score in his company on machine-gun range, while at Atterbury.

Prior to entering the service he was connected with the North Carolina State Department of Conservation and Development, and was connected with the Balsam fish hatchery.

Cutshaw Home On Brief Furlough From Overseas

Pfc. Benjamin E. Cutshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cutshaw, Sr., of Maggi, is spending two weeks with his family after serving overseas.

Pfc. Cutshaw entered service August 29, 1942, as a volunteer and was inducted at Camp Croft, S. C., then went to Fort McClellan, Ala., for six weeks then sent overseas.

Before entering service he was a student at W.T.H.S.

The meeting will begin at eleven o'clock, with the program centering around the theme of "prayer." The afternoon session will be devoted to the study of the book, "The Church After The War," with the pastor, Rev. W. Grady Burgin, in charge.

Insurance Agent—Now that you are married, I suppose you will take out a policy.

Newlywed—Oh, no, I guess not. I don't think she's going to be dangerous.

Thomas F. Davis Taking Course In Florida

Thomas F. Davis, motor machinist mate, third class, of Waynesville, recently reported to the Navy's Submarine Chaser Training Center at Miami, Fla.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman C. Davis of route 2, Davis worked for the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company in Newport News, Va., prior to joining the navy in Spartanburg in May, 1943.

Now undergoing an extensive and specialized training in anti-submarine warfare at the sub-chaser school, the only service activity of its kind on the east coast, Davis is learning to engineer the small ships of the sub-chaser fleet, whose main task is to track down and destroy enemy U-boats.
