Published In The County Seat Of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park $1.75 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

Effort To Be Made

"E" Bond Quota.

naining Few Days To ss than a week left in

War Loan Drive, Hay-

within $190,000 of the 20,000 yesterday, accord-

N. Allen, chairman of was brisk here yesterrith continued hard work

stent buying, the quota sched by the 12th," Mr.

purchasers are a little bonds, and a special ef-be made during the rees days to show a big ynesville arga had sales

18,568,50 as of July

Canton area reported

14,417.25 as of the same area in the county auction sale held at

le Art Callery Tues-

led the Waynesville items of mer-

from nylon

by the larg-

and much-

Jonathan Woody,

len Reported

roft For Pre-

ction Exams

Camp Croft for pre-in-from the Waynesville lly Lee Howell served as the group and assistant ven Joseph Fisher Setodore Russell Safford, and group were seventeen vol-as follows: John Mull Cald-lyton Oliver Haynes, Henry

Price, Carl Jackson Rath-

were: Robert Floyd Rich,

Messer, Johnny Dee Moore,

Continued on page 6) -

ne McCracken

en Promotion

ARMY AIR FORCE

operating from an ad-has been on active over-ity for more than two years.

on And Auxiliary

tage Annual Clean

members of the local post

American Legion and Auxwill meet at the Legion on Depot Street and hold will be enjoyed.

Junior Byrd.

Sales rang-

half of the $822,000

n bends of this type.

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1944 (One Day Nearer Victory)

ed More 'E' Bond July Criminal Court To Convene Killed In Action

> Asheville, Will Preside Over Term.

The July Superior term criminal court will convene here on Monday morning, July 10, with Judge Zeb V. Nettles, of Asheville, presiding. The docket is said to be much larger than the last term of criminal court held here in Feb-

Drawn for jury service the first week are: Jack Medford, Beaverdam; Herman Duckett, White Oak; G. W. Wright, White Oak; J. A. Chambers, Iron Duff; J. Bascom Smathers, Pigeon; R. G. Jaynes, Beaverdam; J. B. Gaddy, Waynesville; Arley Parton, Clyde; Seth Wood, Beaverdam; Eleon Cathey, Pigeon; Roy A. Green, Fines Creek.

Claimed By Death

JOHN H. ALLEN, of Canton. well known farmer and religious leader, whose death occurred in an Asheville hospital last Friday. by merchants and

John H. Allen, were offered Prominent Farmer, Hopes, Deaverdam; C. D. Baren, Way-Buried Sunday Haywood is

...u×t bear he ke every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for 65-Foot Flag at a few Conton First Exptist church on mayier in John H. Allen, 71, proming at Hay Pole Precied wood county stork raiser and fathe war finance was who died in an Ashaville has cital on Friday.

Rev. F. H. Baker, of the Baptist - National church of Canton and Rev. S. R. of some 1.-Crockett, paster of the Hazelwood and scores of withd during Members of the Pigeon River Marsonic Lodge No. 386 of Canton were in charge of the services at of Champion mode the pole, ar by most Wed-

(Continued or page 7) ----

bank. The womaler the supervi-William Medford, is the stars and sales First Haywood Invasion Casualty

The telegram read as follows: examinations on Friday. "The Secretary of War desires me to express his deep regret that your son, Private Ernest B. Mes- Handy Hoglen ser, has been reported missing in action since eleven June, in France. Reported Wounded If further details or other information are received you will be In Action 2nd Time promptly notified."

Private Messer entered the ser-Everett Smith, Tommie aldwell, Charles Mark Di-Robert Alna Lafayette cember, 1943. He was serving with during the week. immie Lee Wright, Linuel the U.S. Army and was with the ler, Robert William Smith. Wilburn Setzer, Theodore Invasion forces, of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 2, has been reported missing in action the large flag. since June 11, according to a message received by his parents from wing sixty-four men re- the War Department.

Safford, McCreary George James Davis Safford, Calvin Messer, and Harold entering the service.

> Fines Creek high school and was This is the second time during the engaged in farming prior to his past ten months that he has been

es To Meet Quota Here On Monday

Judge Zeb V. Nettles, of

W. A. Smathers, Waynesville; Dave Melwood, Waynesville; C. N. Allen, Waynesville; O. M. Hamp-Atten, Waynesvine; O. M. Hampton, Beaverdam; Rufus Marcus, Waynesville; Nathan Walker, Clyde; Roy Matney, Ivy Hill; John Fullbright, Fines Creek; Grady Messer, Crabtree; Hugh Best, Haseltine Swift Stentz. Messer, Crabtree; Hugh Best, Crabtree; Edgar Morrow, Jonathan Creek; Dave Pless, East Fork, Ned Chewford.

Drawn for second week are: David Turner, Waynesville; Carl McCracken, Waynesville; J. C. Hipps, Deaverdam; C. D. Burch, nesville; Boone Cagle, Clyde; Tom

(Continued on page 7) ---

At Court House

Presbyterian church officiated house grounds by a construction Mrs. W. F. Swift. Fibre 'empany. The machine sleep A crew from the Wayne-ville rees surprent noured the concrete tempdation, which is seven Pvt. Ernest Messer feet deep, and four feet square. The finishing touches on the top of the foundation were completed for to Mrs. Storiz stated: yesterday.

one of the best and highest in this uncertainty with which war has gie; Floyd Dean Fullbright, Way Private Ernest Boyd Messer, 21. area. The pole supplments two surrounded the absence of your besville, R.F.D. No. 2; Jack Wil son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Messer, the pressure of the wind against other pole which failed to stand

The Agricultural Award flag which was awarded the county last February will not be flown from Gwyn Advises Farmers the pole as it adds too much weight

Handy Hoglen, technician fourth vice on January 22, 1943 at Camp grade, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Croft. From Croft he was sent to Hoglen, of the Crabtree section of Camp Young, Calif., and then to Haywood county has been reported Camp Maxie, Tex., prior to being wounded in action according to insent overseas to England in De- formation received by his parents

Young Hoglen was serving with the armed forces in Italy at the Pvt. Messer is a graduate of the time he was reported wounded. reported wounded while in combat,

HERE and THERE

HILDA WAY GWYN

ENSIGN MARJORIE PLOTT

men, for women who have definite N. They are the daughters of Mr. families are asked to bring the aftern working tools.

men, for women who have definite N. They are the daughters of Mr. In the bulk of the North Caro in the North Caro in the bulk of the North Caro in the North Caro the afternoon spent in privilege of interviewing two such grey uniforms with their regulation most certainly be congestion in the open.

The first of October—there will allowed the first of October—there will allowed the program at the most certainly be congestion in the open. mg up the grounds, a busi- girls during the past week. So tion navy caps and also in their ession will be held of the we want to pass on to you the white uniforms, as shown above. oups after which a picnic interview plus our impressions of Lt. (jg) Lucile Plott and her ing respect for professional we- Plott, both serving in the N.C.U.S. prices can be obtained." paid for stocker and feeder cat- Wednesday.

LT. (jg) LUCILLE PLOTT

(Continued on page 2) -

CAPTAIN DAVID S. STENTZ, who was reported missing in action on May 25, 1943, has been officially Jack Way, and R. V. Welch.

Capt. David Stentz in the county. He attended the Kentucky Medical School at Louis-Officially Reported wille, and began the practice of medicine at the age of 17. At

Capt. Stentz Has Been Re- (Continued on page 6) ported Missing Since May

Fighteen During so we regard the relative Month Of June ing with the U.S. As Corps, failed any spart board; to return from a dive bember nuthe war records.

- (Continued on page 7) - wood,

During Next Two Months

The beef cattle business

North Carolina is now in the most critical condition in several years, according to T. L. Gwyn, cattle marketing specialist with the State Department of Agricul-

In the opinion of Gwyn, this serious situation is due in large measure to the drought which has prevailed in many sections in the eastern counties and has also affected pastures and crops in the Gwyn estimates that the hay crop in the western counties of the State will be approximately 50 per cent of that harvested in 1943, and is of the opinion that the corn crop in many sections throughout

North Carolina will be virtually worthless unless ample rainfall comes before July 15. The failure

"Grass in the mountains is both late and very short," declares

Gwyn, and he adds that this and selling off of stocker and feeder

Carolina, Virginia and elsewhere,

"If the bulk of the North Caro-the market and consequently severe breaks will occur in the prices for conditioning.

late summer and fall, he said.

mountain areas.

To Sell Their Cattle

Dr. R. L. Walker, Haywood Doctor, Buried Saturday

Funeral services were conducted on Friday afternoon at the Crabtree Baptist church for Robert L. Walker, 80, Haywood county physician, who died at the Haywood County Hospital on Wednesday night. Burial services were postponed until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock pending the arrival of a son from Florida and were conducted in the church cemetery.

In charge of the service were: the Rev. Forrest Ferguson, the Rev. R. P. McCracken, and the Rev. J. R. Burgin, the latter pastor of the Methodist charge.

Active pallbearers were: Hugh, Ed, Spencer and Babe Walker, G. Russell and Fred Trull.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the Haywood county medical society and Jonathan Woody. Jeff Reeves, Hugh Leatherwood,

The nieces and grand nieces

Dr. Walker was a native of Haywood county and had been a practicing physician for 51 years Dead By War Dept. the time of his last illness he was visiting some of his patients in well of the county become a shifteen after overly-taken as the set by we as after during the month of Mantas and one which was held the first state. his wife. Mrs. Hashine Swift has and see now subject to call in the court house help on Monday, ity of case or exected to make and as the world steady, danglater of captain and make the schooling source system. Howard R a frame cars retained the age of the The following are included in the court, such again for a period of only in those latered and and five Captain Strutz, the way six rouge away link to the clock of marroux near Palernio, Sarv., according to F.D. No. 2; R. V. Bradley, Clyde, the coming year. E F D. No. 1; Rufus Colorsburg. The adjutant general in his let- Majar, Waynesyille, Waynesyille, Wayne McNeil Hicks, Waynesyille, Major, Waynesylle, R.F.D. No. .; ed as county fire warden for the the analy physician be called im-"I hope you may find sustaining K.F.D. No. 1; Donald Aster Rath The pole is steel gray, and is comfort in the thought that the mone, Joe; Floyd Rufus Fie, Magisband has enchanced the honor burn Setzer, Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 2; Harold Junior Byrd, Hazel-

Ten Boys Become

Town and county tax collectors, and attorneys for all towns in Hay-wood, Jackson and Transylvania Bob Francis Wins counties will meet here Friday, Peyton B. Abbott, Assistant Director of the Institute of Government, who has just completed two guidebooks: "The Foreclosure of the Smoky Mountains National City and County Property Taxes Park Chapter of the Future Farm-Cities and Counties of North Caro-

Their purpose is to discuss mattures, and (3) stay clear of the tax collectors, attorneys and finovercrowded October market and ance officers in the field of local the break which is likely to occur taxation and possible improvements in the tax laws.

Are Best Time To Sell In tle." Cattle are now bringing good View Of Drought and Feed prices, the demand being sharp, and Special Assessments in North ers of America was given a $100 and these prices should prevail Carolina," already distributed, and cash award at the recent State conthrough July and August. By "Guidebook for Tax Collectors in vention of the FFA held in Raleigh, maintenance of a steady flow of cattle into market during these lina," which is in process of printmonths, the seller will, (1) have ing. the advantage of an active market, (2) lighten the load on his pas- ters of interest to county and city

Quiet Wartime 4th Is Observed In County County Library To Be Open Each

Haywood observed another wartime Fourth of July in a sane, and conservative manner.

Business suspended, and citizens of these crops will lead to heavy took the day to catch up on things liquidation of cattle during the they had been postponing during the rush of the times.

Peace officers reported only four arrests, marking the day the quietest in the memory of even the other conditions will result in the oldest officer.

The athletic programs at the cattle. This will have two effects: high school grounds drew good than ever before. He said, "Out overloaded markets and elimina- crowds, while the dance at the ar- of the war itself may come a blesstion of butcher cattle competition. mory in the evening was one of ing. I feel it is a war in which Ordinarily, these thin cattle the largest ever held in Haywood. Christians may participate without would be an excellent purchase Hundreds were unable to get on any restrictions of conscience of for feeder cattle buyers in Eastern the dance floor.

in the grip of the drought and is in an address at the Lake during sion is broken down and we are unable to provide sufficient feed the morning. The usual number of sporting

Canton business houses observed

Governor Broughton spoke on 'Christianity and World Peace." The Governor who has been the Fourth of July speaker annually at the Methodist Assembly during his administration.

In the course of his address the Governor expressed the conviction that men in the service will come out of the war with deeper ideas concerning God and the Church body or mind. Christianity means A large number of citizens a fight and the sword of conflict Attending Educational but for the fact that the east is heard Governor J. M. Broughton will be our experience until oppresfree."

Among the platform guests for Gwyn's advice to cattle produc- events were carried out throughout the Fourth of July program at the ers: "Sell now, if your cattle are the community, with family groups Lake were Bishop H. M. Dobbs, of The weatherman gave this area ernor was introduced by Dr. W.

> auditorium a luncheon was given a two-day holiday-Tuesday and Governor and Mrs. Broughton at the Terrace Hotel.

No Polio In County, Precaution Urged By Local Health Officer Dr. C. N. Sisk Gives Symp-

Crowds.

precautions.

toms Of Infantile Paralysis

and Urges Children Avoid

With the outbreak of infantile paralysis in various areas in North Carolina, Dr. C. N. Sisk, district health officer, is warning the citizens of Haywood to take certain years and under be kept at home and away from places where people congregate such as swimming pools, wading pools, shows, carnivals, picnics and summer camps.

county Dr. Sisk recommends that all citizens be on the alert and points out certain symptoms of polio, It is an organism so small that it cannot be seen with an ordi-many microscope. The germs enters the body through the nose and throat. The first symptom is a mild fever, usually accompanied by headache with occasional nau-ea

The last phases of the discuss disease may varied; with little attention having been gold to it.

In a small period on of case, honores, the man a progressor to a mond that it while the

When a child delycons sugges-mediately. It is requested that all cases be reported to the health department promptly. It is advisable that patients be treated in a hosprevention. Vaccines, sera and nasal sprays have been tried with-

There is no proven means of pital, if that is possible.

out success.

While there are no cases in this

He advises that all children 12

Re-Appointed

HOWARD ROLLARD, who was as yomiting and distributa named county farm agent for Haywood by the commissioners at lasts from one to three days. In their meeting on Mondays. a large proportion of en-e- no further symptoms develop and the

Board Rename Clapp and Miss Smith To Posts

Mr. Mary Margaret South chows at allowed a y 90-Sam Gaddis, Cove Creek; Hubert county from deprenstration agent, parently assure some a manify ion against an enemy installation Francis Caldwell, Waynesville, R. was reappointed to her pression for from the mother Eldringe Caldwell was reapports ting symptoms it in important that period of one year.

Tax Officials To Meet Here Friday, July 14th

July 14, at 3 o'clock at the court Cash Award At N.C. The meeting will be conducted by State FFA Meeting Bob Francis, son of Mr and Mrs

Henry Francis, and a member of according to J. C. Brown, vocation al agricultural teacher in the local high school. The award was made by the Firestone Rubber Company and was handled through the Future Farmers organization. Young Francis was singled out along with others in the state for his outstanding supervised practice work and other Future Farmer activities in the

(Continued on page 6) -

Friday Evening

The Haywood County Public Library will open to the public on each Friday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 according to Miss Margaret Johnston, county librarian.

The evening hours are being observed for the benefit of the visitors and the local people here and broughout the county who are especially busy at this time of the This weekly schedule will be held through the months of July and August and a continuation will depend upon the needs at a later period.

Local Health Authorities Meet At W. C. T. C.

Dr. Mary Michael, assistant district health director, and Mrs. J. R. McCracken, supervisor of public health nursing in the district, For years we have held a grow- younger sister, Ensign Marjorie in marketable condition and fair and several business places holding Asheville, Mrs. Broughton and R. are attending a two-day education-Teachers College.

The institute which is part of a state-wide program sponsored by the State Board of Health, is being held primarily for the purpose of coordination of the community, home and schools in a health pro-