

Catherine Louise Moody Becomes Bride of Lt. (jg) Paul A. Gossett

The marriage of Miss Catherine Louise Moody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grady Moody, of Hollywood Road, to Lt. (jg) Paul A. Gossett, son of Mrs. Ethel Gossett, and the late J. H. Gossett, of Clyde, took place Sunday afternoon, August 27th, at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor of the First Baptist church of Waynesville, performed the ceremony.

The vows were spoken in front of an improvised altar with a background of mountain greenery and an arch entwined with clematis. On either side were floor cases of gladioli and tall candelabra bearing lighted cathedral candles.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk jersey dress and her accessories were in blue. Her hat was of soft blue straw trimmed with white feathers and her corsage was of sweetheart roses and peonies.

Mrs. Ruth Gossett Bowman, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor.

Hugh A. Moody, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Little Andy Owens, nephew of Mrs. Gossett, served as ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a light weight wool dress in blue and her corsage was of red roses. Mrs. Gossett, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of brown tulle.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the guests attending the marriage which included the members of the two families and close friends. Assisting in receiving and serving were: Mrs. Ed Hall, of Canton, aunt of the bride, Mrs. R. R. Campbell, Mrs. Homer Platt, and Mrs. John Campbell, of Waynesville.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moody and is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school. For the past year she has held a position with the Bendix Radio Corporation of Baltimore.

Lt. Gossett has been in the service for the past eight years and is home on a leave. He took his boot training at the naval base in Norfolk, Va., and since then has served with the U. S. Navy in all parts of the world. At present he is stationed in New London, Conn. At the time he entered the service he was employed by the Enak Corporation.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip in this section of the state and following their return will go to New London, Conn.

Mrs. W. T. Crawford has returned home after spending several days attending the Baptist Conferences at Ridgecrest.

Mrs. Russell Gilliland has returned from Galveston, Tex., where she visited her husband, Henry Russell Gilliland, seaman second class. Mrs. Gilliland was accompanied by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Carpenter Gilliland.

Bride-Elect's Maid Of Honor Gives Breakfast

Miss Martha Way was hostess of a wedding breakfast at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way, Jr., to the Wagenfeld-Anton bridal party on Sunday noon. The bridal motif was observed in the flowers and the appointments.

The bride and bridegroom with members of the bridal party were seated at one long table, while the other guests were seated at small tables. Each table was centered with an arrangement of white asters and clematis. Places were marked by hand painted place cards of brides. Miss Way was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Hilda Way, and Mrs. Hubert O'Donnell.

After the serving of breakfast the bride was presented with a dozen crystal glasses.

Those attending the affair were: Miss Corinne Wagenfeld and Lt. Robert Anton, Miss Ruth Wagenfeld, Aviation Cadet Harry Evans, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Wagenfeld, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick Anton, of Portsmouth, Va., parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Buchanan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Campbell, Jr., Miss Anne Heavey of Portsmouth, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way, Jr.

Among those attending the conferences held during the past week at the Southern Baptist Assembly grounds at Ridgecrest were: Mrs. Lawrence Green, and her daughter, Miss Merrill Green, Miss Helen and Miss Mary Medford.

Marriage Announced

MRS. JACK F. HOGAN, the former Miss Polly Francis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Francis, whose marriage to Lt. Jack F. Hogan, U. S. Air Forces, which took place on July 17, in Columbia, S. C., has been announced by her parents.

Mrs. Hogan is a graduate of the Waynesville township high school and of Virginia Intermont College of Bristol, Va. She was active in all phases of high school and college life.

Lt. Hogan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover B. Hogan, of Iron Duff. He returned in April from a year's service overseas. He completed fifty missions over enemy territory, and served as a pilot of a B-25 Mitchell bomber.

Lt. Hogan made missions in the Mediterranean, Sicily, Sardinia, Naples, Corsica and other places in the war theatre. He piloted his ship on three missions on one day over Salerno in that area. He has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, and has to his credit nine Oak Leaf Clusters. He was promoted from flight officer to first lieutenant while overseas, but did not get his silver bars until he arrived in the States. At present Lt. Hogan is serving as an instructor at the Air Base in Columbia, S. C. He is a graduate of the Clyde high school.

Local Eastern Star Members Guests In Canton

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. York entertained the members of Waynesville Chapter No. 165, Order of the Eastern Star, and other friends at a pot-luck supper, Thursday night, August 24, at their home, No. 5 Skyland Terrace. Those present were, Misses Lorrie Lange and Colleen O'Malley of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Nell H. Porter, Swannanoa, Mrs. Lucy Mae Willman and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Tingle of Asheville.

Mrs. Ila G. Campbell, Mrs. Dorothy Fields, Mrs. James D. Green, Mrs. Mary Lou Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Francis, Mrs. Meta E. Dieus, Mrs. Mary Oakes, Mrs. Willis P. Christopher, Mrs. Olive Green, Mrs. Louise Limer, Mrs. Rufus L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lee Bramlett, Mrs. Mollie Shoolbred, William Shoolbred, Mrs. E. K. McGee, Mrs. Ruth M. Queen, Mrs. Shuford Howell, Miss Kathryn McGee, Mrs. John M. Queen, and Mrs. G. C. Davis, all of Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mease, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce B. Nanney, Mrs. O. F. Gillis, Miss Mary Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Willis, Mrs. Clyde Hildebrand, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Billups, Pat Long, Miss Adeline Williamson, Mrs. F. R. Bowers and son, Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. York, Miss Phyllis Ann York, Miss Caroline York, Phillip B. York, Jr., and James York, all of Canton.

Miss Wagenfeld Honored With Dinner Party

The former Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, whose marriage to Lt. Robert F. Anton, USNR, of Portsmouth, Va., was an important event of the week, was given a dinner party on Thursday evening at the Parkway Hotel by Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn. Miss Wagenfeld was presented with a gift of linen.

The guests were seated at one long table which was centered with an oblong arrangement of white flowers. The guest list included the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Earl C. Wagenfeld, her sister, Miss Ruthie Wagenfeld, Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, Miss Martha Way, Miss Hilda Way, and Mrs. L. M. Richeson.

Mrs. Julius Hoyle, Jr., left Saturday for San Francisco, Calif., where she plans to spend several days with her husband, who is stationed there, serving with the navy.

Rev. Be Cunningham's son, Philip, who holds a position with the Vultee Air Corps Corporation in Elizabeth City, N. C., is spending two weeks here.

Joint Hostesses Honor Bride With Contract Luncheon

Mrs. J. Wilford Ray and Mrs. A. H. Dubreuil were joint hostesses on Thursday of a luncheon in honor of the former Miss Corinne Wagenfeld, whose marriage took place on Sunday afternoon to Lt. Robert F. Anton. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Ray and quantities of late summer flowers were used throughout the residence. On the bride's table a color motif of pink and white was used, while mixed arrangements were noted on the other tables.

Following the serving of luncheon the guests enjoyed several spirited progressions of contract. Mrs. Tom Campbell, Jr., won the high score prize and Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, Jr., was the winner of the low score prize. The honor guest was presented with several pieces of linen.

The guest list included a number who were present only for the luncheon and did not remain for the games. Those present were: the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Earl C. Wagenfeld, her sister, Miss Ruthie Wagenfeld, Mrs. W. T. Hannah, Mrs. Herbert O'Donnell, Mrs. J. J. Ferguson, Mrs. Ben Sloan, Mrs. Sam H. Bushnell, Jr., Mrs. Chas. D. Ketner.

Mrs. J. M. Madison, Mrs. Tom Campbell, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Martha Way, Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, Mrs. George Scott, Mrs. Harold Tingen, Mrs. James Harden Howell, Miss Tillie Rotha, Miss Emily Siler, and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Earley Announce Marriage Of Daughter On August 26

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Earley, of Waynesville, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edith Earley, to James H. Trammell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Trammell. The marriage was solemnized on Saturday, August 26, in Clayton, Ga. The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Mack Mercer, and Miss Leona Trammell. For the present the couple are making their home with the bride's parents.

guests over the week-end, Miss Faye Chambers of Marion, Miss Anne Damtoft of Asheville, Miss Elizabeth Peden of Canton, and Miss Charlotte Crawford of New London, Conn., and Black Mountain. Miss Gwyn and her guests were classmates at St. Mary's School, Raleigh.

Mrs. Howard Jennings, who has served as a counselor at Camp Red Wing, in the Adirondacks, for several summers, is expected to arrive home in the near future. She will visit friends in Canada and New York City before coming home.

The One and Only

Season Skipper

Two Complete Coats In One

$45.00

Exclusive In Waynesville At

The TOGGERY

JIG-SAW PUZZLES

Some Simple - -
Some Difficult - -

YOU'LL ENJOY THESE

The Mountaineer

"Stationery and Supplies for Office, Home and School"

A Message From Ray's

Bulldozers!
Peters WORK SHOES HAVE WHAT IT TAKES!

They're heavy duty shoes, Mister... Designed to do a tough job every day... To give the most comfort... And built tough to last longer than just ordinary shoes... And we guarantee to fit you perfectly.

WORK TO WIN and BUY MORE BONDS

Every type — style — and quality that is today available — will be found in our Shoe Department.

—Shoes That Are Good Shoes—

8 INCH BOOTS

Laced - to - the - toe logger style boot — made for the toughest wear — in the style illustrated.

It's a Peters Boot — and a jimdandy. Only a limited number available.

As illustrated to the left - You can have

- 1—An all leather boot that is especially a good farm shoe.
- 2—The same type shoe with a cord sole.
- 3—Not yet in, but expected soon—An extra quality boot by Ball Band that will be as easy on your feet as a bedroom slipper — and which will wear like iron.

—Safety Toe 8" Boot—
—As illustrated to the right—

A safety toe boot in Peters Diamond Brand.

Ray's Shoe Dept.