

Asheville Division Baptist W.M.U. Auxiliary To Meet

The Asheville Division of Women's Missionary Union Auxiliary of the North Carolina Baptist Convention will hold its annual meeting on October 31, in Calvary Baptist church in West Asheville, according to an announcement made this week by Mrs. J. R. Morgan, of Waynesville, president.

Visiting speakers on the program include Miss Kathleen Mallory, of Birmingham, Southern W. M. U. corresponding; Miss Rose Marlow, returned missionary to China, and Miss Katherine Alice, state W. M. U. Young People's leader, from Raleigh.

Reports from the division officers, special music and general inspiration features will make up the program, in addition to the speakers.

The division embraces the following counties: Buncombe, Henderson, Madison, Transylvania, Haywood, Mitchell and Yancey counties. All churches in this area are expected to send representatives and pastors regardless of whether or not they have organized into societies of W. M. U.

Serving with Mrs. Morgan are the following officers: Mrs. E. R. Elmore, of Mars Hill, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. O. Crenshaw,
