

Daughter Of Former Waynesville Resident Is Married In Florida

The marriage of Miss Frances Collins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Curtis Collins, to Conrad N. Swindell, technical sergeant, USA, son of Mrs. Nell Swindell, of Lakeland, Fla., took place on Saturday afternoon, September 9th, in the First Presbyterian church in Jacksonville, Fla. Rev. A. C. Holt, pastor of the church, officiated.

White gladioli against a background of palms and lighted tapers in graduated candlebra were used in decorating the altar of the church.

Mrs. Maye T. Mackinnon, organist, played a program of nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white lace. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves scalloped at the wrist. The full circular skirt of tulle fell in graceful folds from a fitted girdle of tiny beads at the waist. Her veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of seed orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and tuberoses centered with gardenias. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

Miss Elizabeth Swindell, of Washington, D. C., was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of pink chiffon fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of lavender asters and wore a matching arrangement in her hair.

R. S. Wheatly, Jr., acted as best man for the bridegroom and the ushers were Melvin Hill and Homer Grim, of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Collins, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue lace with matching hat and a corsage of pink button asters. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Swindell, chose a gown of black sheer with white accessories and a yellow rose corsage. Mrs. Maria Francis Head, of Waynesville, aunt of the bride, wore a gown of blue crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the marriage a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. White gladioli and asters were used in the decorations throughout the residence.

The bridal party and hosts received the guests in front of the mantel in the living room which had been banked in greenery and white flowers.

The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and was centered with an arrangement of white roses balanced by white tapers in crystal holders. The three tier wedding cake was placed at one end of the table.

The bride's mother is the former Miss Bell Francis of Waynesville, and has a wide family connection in this section. She is a graduate of Andrew Jackson high school and attended Duke University and the Washington School for Secretaries in Washington, D. C. She was employed at one time in the Department of the Interior and later served as secretary to her father.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Lakeland high school and attended Southern College in Lakeland. He was employed by the Finance Department of the U. S. Government in Washington, prior to entering the service in May, 1942. He has recently returned from two years graduating class. The next fall he entered Furman University, graduating in three years with honors, receiving his bachelor of arts degree. For two years he taught school and served two rural churches as pastor.

Later he gave up his school and rural churches to become full-time pastor of a church in Greenville, where he served until the fall of 1934, when he entered the Seminary.

During the three years at the Seminary he did full-time pastoral work in Indiana as a student pastor. In the spring of 1937 he graduated with the full degree of Master in Theology, and was asked to remain and do graduate work in the department of church history. He declined this offer to become pastor of the York, S. C. Baptist Church, where he remained almost 5 years.

Rev. Mr. Elliott has been pastor at Simpsonville for the past three years. The church has had remarkable growth under his leadership. He takes an active part in all church work of the association and state.

Two committees from here heard Mr. Elliott in his pulpit, and about three weeks ago he conducted mid-week prayer service here.

R. N. Barber Grows Extra Large Potatoes

R. N. Barber, Sr., is the owner of the largest sweet potato ever seen in this section. The Spanish Yellow Yam was grown in the Barber home garden, and weighs 7 pounds and 2 ounces and measures 23 inches in circumference.

Mr. Barber had two rows in the garden, and all that have been dug to date are larger than the average.

Nearly all the fun a man gets out of life comes from doing the things he can't afford to do.

"What kind of oil do you use in this car?"
"Well, generally I start out by saying my wife doesn't understand me."
