Christ School To Play Here Saturday Night

The Christ School Greenies will meet the Mountaineers on the local field at eight o'clock Saturday night, for the first night meeting of the two teams of a long-standing rival record.

The visitors come to Waynesville with an unscathed and undefeated record for the season. They recently played Hendersonville to a scoreless tie on a wet field.

Coach Weatherby said yesterday his men came out of the Hendersonville game in fine shape, and lots of attention is being placed in the Christ School game, as it is always one of the Mountaineers' hardest battles.

A child was hearing about war and asked his father how they got started.

Father (starting to explain)—Suppose America quarreled with England.

Mother (interrupting)—England and America aren't quarreling.

Father—I know, but this is a hypothetical instance.

Mother—But you are misleading the child.

Father—No, I'm not.

Mother—Yes, you are.

Father—I tell you I'm not. It's an outrage the way you—

Child (interrupting)—Never mind, Dad. I think I understand now.

Revenue's Rolling In—From Manteo to Murphy

"Well, colonel, I see that the beer industry paid considerably over $8,000,000 taxes in the state last fiscal year," Abrer Aiken said to Colonel Bain when he was in town recently.

Colonel Bain's the beer committee's state director, you know.

"Big money, I call it," he went on. "Legitimate revenue that we should see is protected. And I, for one, am glad to see you protectin' it."

"Your self-regulation program, I lacked as it is by just about all the beer retailers, is a great idea. "Clean people, conducting business in a clean way—that's what appeals to Tarheel folk. Power to you, colonel. And power to you postwar, too—when we really need this tax money!"

From where I sit, a beer might be a mighty good sense. What's more, I believe all you taxpayers from Manteo to Murphy, just the way I do about it, too.

A Good Line

Black crepe afternoon frock.

By VERA WINSTON

THE BASQUE line is one that is becoming to most figures and it is astonishing that it is not more frequently encountered. It is used for this pleasing afternoon frock of black crepe. Soft tucking gives an attractive appearance to the draped neckline. Slim sleeves and high, rounded neckline. For a splash of color, there is a huge bow of fuchsia and pink satin ribbon on the slim bodice.

The Garret Funeral home was in charge of the arrangements.
