Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Walker Hold Open House On 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Walker of Clyde, R.F.D. No. 1, held open house on Sunday afternoon, Christmas Eve, in observance of their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Friends and relatives called between the hours of 2:00 in the afternoon and 8 in the evening. Blazing log fires added a cheerful note to the rooms in which the guests were received.

The house was arranged throughout with holly, Brazilian pepper berries, in addition to numerous vases of roses, carnations, chrysanthemums and poinsettias sent by friends.

Mrs. Walker, 77, bride of sixty years ago, wearing a becoming dress of rose shade, received with the bridegroom, 78, of sixty years ago. Mrs. Walker wore a strand of pearls a treasured gift of many years, and her flowers were white carnations.

The guests were welcomed at the front door by Mrs. Ruth Brian and Mrs. O. L. Yates. Miss Betty Jo Hawkins and Miss Martha Best had charge of the register.

In the dining room Mrs. Mary Hawkins, Mrs. Betty Burr Reece, Mrs. Frances Justice, Mrs. Ethel Walker and Mrs. Lou Lee Walker served Russian tea and cookies from an attractively arranged table in the Christmas motif with lighted tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, who are widely connected in Haywood county, were married at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram McCracken of Crabtree. The ceremony was performed by the late Rev. A. B. Thomas. There are four persons residing in the county who attended the marriage including Mrs. Charlie Hill, Mrs. Ellen McCracken, J. L. Walker and Dr. W. L. Kirkpatrick, the first three also called at the home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Walker is a prominent farmer and stock raiser in the Crabtree section. He is active in the affairs of his community, having served as superintendent of the Sunday school of the Rock Spring Baptist Church for more than twenty-five years. Mrs. Walker has also been active for many years both in the church and community affairs. She is a member of the Rock Spring Home Demonstration club.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the parents of the following children: Mrs. Frances Justice, Clyde, R.F.D. No. 1; Mrs. Betty Burr Reece, Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Adeline Henson (deceased); Paul Walker of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Ruth Brian, Lake Wales, Fla.; Clayton Walker, Waynesville; Mrs. Mary Hawkins, Clyde, R.F.D. No. 1; Eugene Walker and Ted Walker, of Canton; and Billy Walker, First Class Petty Officer, now in South Pacific.

They have twenty grandchildren, eight of whom are in the service. They are: Lt. Comdr. Aubrey Reece, of the Pacific area; S/Sgt. Albert J. Justice, South Pacific area; Sgt. Louis Reece, Keesler Field, Miss.; Pvt. Walter Hawkins, Camp Croft, S. C.; S/Sgt. Eugene Hawkins, now in France; Cpl. Carroll Hawkins, in South Pacific; Pfc. Paul Walker, now in Germany; and Asa Maples Reece, veteran's hospital, Johnson City, Tenn., who has recently received a medical discharge. They have eight great grandchildren.

Miss Abbie Faye Henry, who is a member of the faculty of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. Homer Henry, of Clyde.

YOU'RE NOT TOO OLD TO FEEL YOUNG

This is a message for men who have known life but no longer find it thrilling because of the lack of certain vitamins and hormones. Tromone, a recent medical discovery combining vitamins and hormones may multiply the vim and zest and enjoyment you once knew. Your whole approach, your whole attitude toward life, may improve when you begin to use Tromone. Now it may be possible for middle aged men to again enjoy the same spirit, vitality and pleasures that made their youth a thing to remember. Added years may not subtract from your pleasures when you use Tromone, the new medical formula combining vitamins and hormones. Follow directions on label. Tromone for sale by Smith's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

Among those present were: Patsy Sims, Maxine Sims, Patsy Reeves, June Hundley, Mary Chase Hall, Margaret Reece, Linda Welch, Mildred Medford, Clara Sue Shuler, Johnny Heinz, Anne Heinz, Susie Swanger, Bette Hannah, Evelyn Ferguson, Betty Felmet and Linda Burns.

Methodist Group Entertains With Reception For Rev. and Mrs. West

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church entertained with a reception last evening in the church dining room. The affair was given as a courtesy to Rev. Walter B. West, former pastor of the church and newly appointed superintendent of the Waynesville District, and Mrs. West.

Mrs. J. Harden Howell and Jonathan Woody welcomed the guests at the entrance. The receiving line was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Garrett, the latter retiring president of the Society, Mrs. Bonner Ray, incoming president, Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. West, Rev. and Mrs. J. Clay Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parkman,

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. Fred Martin and J. R. Boyd.

Mrs. Guy Massie presided at the tea table and was assisted by Mrs. S. H. Bushnell and Mrs. James M. Long.

Christmas decorations were used in the room and were noted in all the appointments. The hours were from 8 to 9:30 and a large number of the members of the church attended the affair.

Miss Carmen Plott, who holds a government position in Washington, D. C., spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Plott.
