

Mrs. J. H. Howell Has Paper On Lee At UDC Meeting

Mrs. J. Harden Howell had the paper of the afternoon at the January meeting of the Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy which was held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John M. Queen, with Mrs. James R. Boyd as associate hostess. Her subject was "Robert E. Lee."

Mrs. Howell reviewed the life and accomplishments of this great Confederate leader. She also gave the highlights of the United Daughters of the Confederacy bulletin.

Among the communications read was a letter from Capt. Alden Howell and his daughter, Mrs. Jack Johnson, of Los Angeles, thanking the chapter for a Christmas gift to the former, who is the only living Haywood veteran of the War Between the States. Captain Howell observed his 104th birthday anniversary on February 18.

Plans were announced for the annual Lee-Jackson declamation contest held at the high school on the 23rd. It was announced that 90 per cent of the members had purchased bonds during the Sixth War Loan Drive.

Mrs. E. J. Hyatt reported that Christmas remembrances were sent to all the widows of Confederate veterans living in the county, and cards to the relatives of the members now in the armed forces.

A social hour followed adjournment. Mrs. James R. Boyd, president, presided over the meeting which was largely attended.

WILLING TO DIE ONCE

There was to be a hanging. Sheriff was about to adjust the noose and put the black cap over the man's head, when it was discovered that the official's watch was wrong and that it was half an hour earlier than the legal time for the execution. When the situation was explained, a local politician arose and remarked that he would, if allowed, occupy the 30 minutes in talking in behalf of his candidate for Congress. The condemned man looked at the would-be orator. Then he turned to the Sheriff: "It it's all the same to you," he remarked. "I'll waive that 30 minutes. Hang me right now. I've heard that politician before."

A NEW RECORD FOR LONG DISTANCE

MORE CALLS IN 1944 THAN EVER BEFORE

There were more Long Distance calls in 1944 than in 1943—more than any other year in history.

1945 has started off with a rush, and some circuits are still crowded.

When that's the case, Long Distance will ask your help by saying—"Please limit your call to 5 minutes."
