T-Sgt. Athol Holder
Flight Chief At Harding

T. Sgt. Athol Holder, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Holder, of Richmond, Va., formerly of Hollywood county, who has returned from overseas duty, has been assigned to Harding Field, La., as flight chief. Sgt. Holder volunteered in the service in January, 1942, and was first stationed at Sheppard Field, Tex., where he completed the airplane mechanics course at the technical school. Later he took other courses prescribed for the 4-25 airplane at Douglas Aircraft Company, Inc., by the U. S. Army Air Force Technical Training Command at Santa Monica, Calif. He also took special aircraft electrical work at

SKILL

It's SKILL—three-way skill—that makes your medicine. The skill of the doctor in diagnosing and prescribing... the skill of our pharmacist in compounding... the skill of the makers of the quality drugs that go into the medicine. Together, these three skills mean reliable prescription work—each one participating to the fullest in the efficacy of your medicine. Your doctor knows best—and he knows our prescription service, too.
