

Program At Announced

Program plans for the third summer season of the Junaluska Assembly Methodist Church, (Lake Junaluska, N. C.), have been announced at a meeting of the program committee in Nashville, Tenn., held by Dr. F. S. Love, district superintendent, and members of the denominational governing boards. The Assembly will hold its summer conference on June 4, with a Religious Conference and Music Week, beginning August 24. The conference on Evangelism, with Camp Meeting features, will be held July 8-15; the District Students' Conference, July 15-22; the Women's Society of Service, July 24-31; the Conference, August 1-7; the Pastors' Conference, August 7-12; the Laymen's Conference, August 12-17. A continuous program of activities under church auspices will be announced by Dr. Love.

The Junaluska Assembly program and projects are in the objectives of the Southern Jurisdictional Board. Dr. W. F. Quillian, executive secretary of the board, has issued a statement at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council "will cooperate with the Junaluska Assembly to open new avenues of approach to Methodists in the Southern Jurisdiction." The summer program to be held by Dr. Love during the summer of 1945.

HEAD COLDS
ANG-ON
To relieve discomforts, the best thing you can do is a good spoonful of home-made VapoRub in a bowl of water.
Feel the wonderful relief as you breathe in the medicated vapors that soothe the cold-congested, breathing passages. See how the irritation quiets down and helps clear the airways.
Rub throat, rub chest, rub back with VapoRub at once. VapoRub works fast—2 weeks at once—to bring relief from distress. Remember—VapoRub you must use.
