

Jennie Greer Becomes Heir Of Lt. Keith Cooper

Impressive Ceremony Held At First Methodist Church On Monday

The wedding of Miss Jennie Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Greer, of Hazelton, and Lieutenant Keith Cooper, United States Marine, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cooper, of Greensboro, took place at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Methodist Church of Waynesville. Rev. Madison Madison, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride was escorted by her father, Lt. Cooper, and the groom by his best man, Mr. Robert Millar, of Waynesville. The ceremony was held in the sanctuary of the church, which was decorated with white flowers.

The bride wore a dress of white tulle with a lace collar and sleeves. The groom wore a dark suit with a white shirt and tie. The ceremony was attended by many guests, including family and friends.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black with a white collar. The bridegroom's father wore a dark suit. The ceremony was held in the sanctuary of the church, which was decorated with white flowers.

Mrs. W. A. Cooper received at the front entrance, and Mrs. L. M. Richeson greeted the guests in the living room directing them to the dining room. The hosts with the bridal party received in the living room.

Miss Jerry Cooper presided at the punch bowl and others assisting in receiving and serving were: Mrs. H. E. Davis, Miss Dorothy Richeson, Mrs. A. P. Ledbetter, Mrs. Franklin Chance, Jr., Mrs. John Greer and Mrs. H. C. Biggers.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of white flowers and ferns. At one end was the bride's wedding cake with the bridal motif and at the other the crystal punch bowl.

After the reception Lt. and Mrs. Cooper left for a wedding trip. The bride wore a light blue gathering suit with black accessories and her corsage was of pink roses and blue iris.

Lt. Cooper received his education in the city schools of Greensboro and attended Brevard Junior College and North Carolina State College. He has recently returned from 12 months service in the South Pacific.

Among those from out of town attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chance, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Franklin Chance, Jr., and son, Lynn, 3rd, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. H. E. Davis and John Henry Davis, of Andrews, Md.; and Mrs. John E. Greer, and daughter, Miss Martha Greer, of Bessemer, Ala.

The Dayton Rubber Square Dance Team were special guests of the Ware Shoals Manufacturing Company, of Ware Shoals, S. C., Friday evening, February 2. The dance team, accompanied by Sam Queen's world famous Soco Gap String Band, entertained employees of the Ware Shoals Manufacturing Company with an exhibition of their special arrangement of square dance figures.

It will be remembered that this team won the championship square dance contest at the 1944 Asheville Folk Festival. Dancers in the party to Ware Shoals were: Wilkie Rabb, Bill Phillips, Geraldine Parris, Sara Campbell, Evelyn Moody, Jerry McKinley, Laura Bryson, Martha Moody, Joe Campbell, Kyle Campbell, Tom Campbell, Earl Blankenship, Buddy Parris, Dutch Fisher, Boyce Wyatt, and Walter Hyatt, with Mrs. Lura Kerley, as manager.

The absence of Sam Queen, who is ill, Joe Campbell substituted as caller for the dance.
