AMPHIBIOUS BAND ALL SET
 SAN DIEGO, California—Any army or marine bands that have potential plans of parading down Tokyo streets when the Americans reach Tokyo had better consult a group of sailors at the U. S. naval amphibious training base near here. The base lays claim to the fact that it has the only band in the world trained in amphibious warfare—ready to blare forth the minute it reaches Tokyo bay.

PRACTICALLY A HABIT
 BRAZIL, Indiana—Records revealed that Clay Circuit court judge Robert B. Stewart was the fifth member of a law firm, established in 1891 by the late Judge John M. Rawley, to serve in succession at that particular post.

ALL-AROUND WAC
 SAN ANTONIO, Texas—Triple winner is WAC Pfc. Jane Windham, originally of San Antonio, but now of an air transport command base in England. Pfc. Windham is pin-up girl of the boys at Gore Field, Mont.; she can hit the high C when she sings in operettas, as she used to do before the war, and in the army, she's the only WAC who holds the dual rating of crew chief and flight engineer.

INDIA STUDENTS INCREASE
 LAHORE — More than 80,000 students will take spring examinations at Lahore's Punjab university this year, according to the registrar. A tremendous increase in candidates for matriculation has resulted from improved economic conditions in rural areas, and also from the large number of openings in government service due to the war, the registrar said.

SQUARES 50-YEAR THEFT
 MICHIGAN CITY, Indiana—Fifty years ago, a man, now living in Grand Rapids, Mich., stole two pairs of children's stockings while working in the prison knitting mills as a convict. Recently he wrote Warden Alfred F. Dowd of the state prison about it, adding that he had been "converted," and enclosed a dollar bill to pay for them.
