AT THE CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

L. G. Elliott, Pastor

Bible School at 10 o'clock. Earl Messer, superintendent. Let all officers and teachers be present a few minutes before time to start so that unexpected visitors will know where to go.

Morning worship at 11:00. The pastor will speak on the subject, "The Foundation Stone Secure." Those who heard the message last Sunday on "The Foundation of Civilization" will want to hear this message.

Training Union at 7:00 p. m. Pupils, come! The officers in charge of the 3 small assembly programs are worth coming to see and hear.

Evening worship at 8 o'clock. Please observe the hour as changed from 7 to 8 o'clock. The pastor will speak on the subject, "The Night of Opening Wand." This is a continuation of the series of sermons on the "Voices of the Night."

Mid-week service each Wednesday at 7:30 o'clock. The study with March 7th. The time will be at 8:00 o'clock. We had 204 present last week. Let's have 100 this week?

We cordially invite all those who have no church home to attend all these services. Attend church somewhere every Sunday.

A. G. Baldwin Honored On Birthday

The following account from a St. Petersburg paper will be of interest to the friends of A. G. Baldwin, of White Oak, who is spending the winter in Florida:

"A. G. Baldwin, a winter visitor from North Carolina, was honored recently with a lawn party in observance of his eighty-third birthday at Aunt Genie's Inn. Hostesses of the affair were: Mrs. Mattie Ness, Mrs. Margaret I. Spencer, Mrs. Mary A. Walch, Mrs. Anna Smith and Mrs. Fern Woodsworth.

The program included group singing, a duet by Samuel and Oscar Phifer and talks by Rev. J. W. Porter and M. Griffith. Gifts were presented by Mrs. Neese and refreshments were served by the hostesses."

Mrs. Rufus Downs has returned to Newport News, Va., after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, of Lake Junaluska.

On Leave Here

JAMES EVERETT SMITH, seaman second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, of Dellwood, is spending a 21-day leave with his parents. Seaman Smith volunteered in the Navy on January 10, 1944, and took his boot training at Jacksonville, Fla. Upon completion of which he was sent to Memphis, Tenn., where he took further training as an airplane mechanic for six months, receiving a certificate for Machinist Mate. He was then transferred to Jacksonville at a gunners school from which he received a diploma. He was later sent to Banana River Fla., and after receiving his wings was transferred to San Diego, Calif., for further training. Before joining the navy he was employed by the State highway and public work commission.

Winifred Rodgers Receives National Recognition

Miss Winifred Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Reeves, of Waynesville, who will receive her A. B. degree from Berea College in June, is among those students who will be listed in the 1944-45 edition of Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

This publication is published through the cooperation of over 600 universities and colleges. It is the only means of national recognition which is devoid of dues, fees and politics. Several students from each of these accredited colleges are selected each year by an unprejudiced committee, for their biographies to appear in the publication.

Miss Rodgers is president of the Berea Players, college dramatics society and is playing a leading role in the major show for this term, "The Importance of Being Ernest." She is circulation manager for the yearbook, and has been on the staff for two years. Last year she was junior class president, feature editor of the school paper and served on the inter-school recreational committee. She is a member of the Lower Division Senate.

civic life of the community. She is a past president of the Woman's Club, past president of the First District, North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, a member of the Book Club and has been active in the work of the First Methodist church.

"I lack words in which to express my appreciation to the people of this community and county, for myself and my family, for their friendship, for their professionally and their support in all the many ways which we have been affiliated. I will always want to come back to Waynesville whenever the opportunity is offered," said Dr. Gay in his talk this week.

Dr. and Mr. Gay have bought a home in Forest Hills, Greensboro. Mrs. Gay and their son, Parker, Jr., will join Dr. Gay sometime in June. The youth, Parker, is a student at the high school and has been active in Scouting.
