He took his plebe training at the Merchant Marine Academy at King's Point, Long Island, and from there was sent to sea. ### Scouts Enjoy Outing At Lake Junaluska

Catching a couple of big fish by one of the smaller Scouts and a menu featuring Hunter's Stew cooked over a camp fire featured the hike of the members of Troop No. 2, Waynesville, last Wednesday afternoon to Lake Junaluska.

The small boy with the big fish was Tommy Gibson. Dan Watkins and Tom Ray cooked the Hunter's Stew as part of a menu including soup, hot chocolate and chocolate pudding as part of their merit badge on cooking.

The boys hiked both ways from Waynesville. Guy Massie, Scoutmaster, supervised the trip.

Scouts enjoying the trip were: Billy Richeson, Tom Ray, Dan Watkins, Bobby Harry, Tommy Gibson, R. G. Coffey, Johnnie Mae Allison, Donnie Leatherwood, and Parker Gay. Candidates Donald Corwin, Johnny Patterson and Sammie Jones also attended.

If the leaders of any group have technical power, the group itself will be a tyrant when it can.

Smile Or Two

A LITTLE EARLY

Patriotic Norwegians were among the first to exploit the telephone in the war of nerves against the Nazi invaders and the local Quislings. One of the favorite methods is to phone the wife of a Quisling, the conversation following this pattern:

Patriot's voice: "Hello. Am I speaking with the wife of Sven Erling?"

Mrs. Erling: "No. This is his wife."

Patriot's voice: "Pardon me. I'll call back later."

Lady—I want a head of cabbage and I'm in a hurry.
Grocer—Yes, ma'am. Shall I wrap it up for you?
Lady—No. I'll take it bare-headed.

How Dry I Am!

Smith—I wish I had my wife back again.

Jones—Where is she?

Smith—I swapped her for a bottle of whiskey.

Jones—And now you realize how much you love her?

Smith—No. Now, I'm thirsty again!

Well Started!

Army Man—Are those new bombers finished yet?

Manufacturer—Well, no, not exactly.

Army Man—Well, how far along are you with them?

Manufacturer—We've got the air ready!

Eggactly!

Ted—Your girl reminds me of an Easter egg.

Ned—What do you mean?

Ted—She's hand painted on the outside and hardboiled inside.

Danger Ahead

Him—Would you call for help if I kissed you?

Her—Yes, if I thought you needed it!

School Daze

Teacher—You missed my class yesterday, didn't you?

Smarty—Not in the least, ma'am. Not in the least!

Either Too Young

He—Better marry me. I'm strong and healthy.

She—No thanks. I want a man who's weak and wealthy!

Money Talks

Boy—I'd go through anything for you, baby.

Girl—Okay! Let's go through your pay!

WILLING AND ABLE

Joan—That girl reminds me of the draft board.

Jane—Why?

Joan—She takes all men between the ages of 18 and 38.

From Brooklyn

Private—The Sarge speaks Italian like a native, don't he?

Second Ditto—Yeh, like a native American!

Busy?

Housewife—Who put that statue under the sink?

Maid—That's no statue. That's the plumber.

Head of the Class

Teacher—Who was it who went into the lion's den and came out alive?

Smarty—The Lion!

No Overtime

Lady—How long is it since you've done any work?

Beggar—I'm sorry, ma'am, but I'm very sensitive about my age!

Slight Resemblance

Jones—Can you tell me what jeopardy is?

Smith—Sure, my brother-in-law is a jeopardy sheriff!

Family Trouble

Jones—Does your daughter live at home with you?

Smith—No, she doesn't live at home. She's not married yet.

Walkie Talkie

Mr. Brown—Why do you say Mrs. Smith reminds you of a camel?

Mr. Blue—They both go on and on and don't know when they're dry!

This One's On Me

Jones—My grandfather lived to be 90 and never used glasses.

Smith—So what? Lots of people prefer to drink from a bottle.

Right Name?

Doctor—I'll have to call some other doctors for consultation.

Patient—Go right ahead. Get as many accomplices as you want.
