Margaret Ferguson Makes Fine Scholastic Record At College
 Miss Margaret Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ferguson of Clyde, R.F.D. No. 1, has won scholastic distinction at Appalachian State Teachers College, according to an announcement from the institution.
 During both the fall and winter quarters she maintained a high honor rating in all her studies. The quality of her work is represented by 289 per cent on a scale where 300 per cent is the highest possible. She is a graduate of the Fines Creek high school in the class of 1944 and is pursuing mathematics and science as her two major courses at Appalachian State Teachers College.

Haywood Men Serve Together
 Sgt. Arthur W. Buff (right) and Cpl. Salem Wyatt, former schoolmates in the Waynesville Township high school, who have been together since January 12, 1942, when they met in Seattle, Wash., and were sent to the posts mentioned, with the exception of a few months when Sgt. Buff was operating a radio station on an outpost. They were in a P-28 Lightning fighter squadron and according to Sgt. Buff, the best outfit in the Aleutians Islands. Sgt. Buff was radio maintenance man and Cpl. Wyatt was cook, butcher, baker and did anything else that was need to be done.
 Sgt. Buff has returned from 24 months overseas and states that when he left Cpl. Wyatt, "it was like leaving a brother." They lived on "C" rations for a month straight at one time. They lived in tents without floors or doors, and after the wind would be blowing 120 miles an hour in 90 mile gales with plenty of snow and sleet added, according to Sgt. Buff. "The living weather is 'the worst in the world' with always fog, rain, snow and wind, the sergeant pointed out. The accommodations were improved during the latter part of his stay, but even then are none too comfortable.
 Sgt. Buff recently visited his family at Maggie, his wife and parents, after which he was sent to Miami for reassignment.

Herman E. Downs Serves With Distinction
 Pvt. Herman E. Downs, of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 1, was a member of the U. S. Railway Shop group which worked in face of Nazi counter-attack with the forces in Belgium, when a German jet-propelled fighter plane swept over a high embankment, its machine guns firing in December, 1944.
 Pvt. Downs was with a group of U. S. Army mechanics, sprawled among locomotives protected only by the sharp bank, took what cover was possible at a split second notice as the fighter plane's twin bombs hurtled into the area. The plane had no sooner sped away

Two Haywood Men Meet In Philippines
 Somewhere in the Philippines, Pfc. Robert C. McGaha met his cousin, Pvt. George Gunter, for the first time in three years. Both men are from Waynesville. Pfc. McGaha is the son of Mrs. Burl

McGaha and his wife, Mrs. Dorothy McGaha, and his daughter, Ann McGaha, reside on Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 1. He attended the Waynesville Township high school and was employed by the West Mining Company at the time he entered the service in September, 1942. He was inducted at Camp Croft.
 Pfc. McGaha is now in an anti-aircraft outfit. His overseas duty started in Australia where he spent five months before entering combat. He has been overseas 17 months, and eight of this period has been in combat. He took part in two invasions, of the Admiralty Islands and the Philippines campaign.

Cpl. Taylor Sutton Returns To Hospital
 Cpl. Taylor Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sutton, of Waynesville, has returned to Lawson General Hospital, Atlanta, after spending a several days furlough with his parents.
 Cpl. Sutton entered the service in 1942 and was inducted at Camp Croft and from there was sent to camps in California and Kentucky before he was sent overseas, where he served for 18 months.
 He was wounded in Germany and returned to the States on February 3. At the time he entered the service he was employed at the scenic highway construc-
