The Author and Perfecter of Our Faith HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL' International Uniform Lessen on the above topic for April 1 is Matt. 27:57-28:10; Heb. 12:1, 2, the Memory Verse being Matt. 28:5, 6, "I know ye seek Jesus who hath been crucified. He is not here; for He is risen.")

JESUS, THE perfect One, had been put to death. Apparently He had few friends; His disciples had forsaken Him, afraid of being associated with Him. But He really had one friend-a rich man named Joseph of Arimathaea, possibly a member of the Sanhedrin. He, too, was afraid to admit openly, while Christ still lived, that he was a follower.

Now the Lord was dead. He boldly went to Pilate and asked that he might have the body for burial. Pilate gave his consent, as according to Jewish law, a person who had been executed must be taken from the tree that same

Doubtless others helped Joseph, and they took the body of Jesus from the tree, wrapped it in clean linen, and carried it to the tomb which Joseph had cut from the rock, probably for his own barial. Reverently they must have laid it in the tomb and rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchie, and departed. Next day the chief priests and Pharisees went to Pilate and ask-1 to have the sepulchre made securfor fear that the disciples would open it at night, steal the body, and then go about telling that Jerus had risen. It was just the nort of trick that they themselves would have been capable of, so they charged the disciples with thinking of it. They expected Pilate to see that this was done, but he said they could do whatever they thought proper - doubtless rather weary of these smug men. "So they went, and made the sepulthre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch."

Women Come at Dawn + "In the end of the Sabbath, as it

"And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone, from the door, and sat upon it.

"And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead

"And the angel answered and said unto the women. Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified

"He is not here; for He is risen," as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay." The angel also told them to go quickly and tell the disciples that "He is risen from the dead, and behold. He goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him; lo, I have told you." Filled with joy and thankfulness the two Marys ran to tell the disciples and behold, Jesus met them, saying, "All hail!" They were frightened, but they came to Him and held Him by the feet and worshiped Him.

Jesus told them not to be afraid, but to go and inform the disciples; tell them to go into Galilee, and there they shall see Me."

While this Lesson deals primarily with the death and resurrection of Jesus, it seems really to finish the story to add that Jesus did meet His disciples in Galifee where so much of his teaching fe was spent, and where most of His miracles of healing took place. There He told them, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, bantizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." He also assured them, "Lo, I am with you alway, ven unto the end of the world."

In Hebrews 12, Paul wrote, "Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

"Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Hua began to dawn toward the first of | endured the cross, despising the the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the right hand of the throne of God."
