VICTORY SMILES IN GERMANY

A WINNING TEAM displays confident, happy smiles in this photo taken somewhere in Germany. Lt. Gen. George S. Patton irrepressibly demonstrates with gestures how his men are tearing through the Reich as Su-preme Allied Commander Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower listens. Looking on are Gen. Omar N. Bradley, commander of the 12th Army Group, and Lt. Gen. Courtney Hodges (extreme right), commander of the U.S. First Army. This is a U. S. Army Signal Corps Radiophoto. (International) set on fire. On the order of the tank commander, Pfc. Moody abandoned the tank, then it was discovered that the driver was wounded and could not dismount by himself. Without orders Pfc. Moody, without regard of his own safely, climbed back on the burn ing tank and together with the tank commander lifted the wounded driver from the burning tank thile others of the crew were ighting the fire. This heroic deed was accomplished under direct fire from enemy self-propelled guns. Pfc. Moody's bravery and thoughtfulness for his fellow crew man is a great credit to the military service in which he is serving. I was in this action that Pfe_Moody was wounded."

PET FRUIT Milk Sherbet

Available At Your Pet Dealer This New Sherbet Tastes Almost Like Ice Cream

As you know, butterfat is a highly rationed item. For that reason, only a limited amount can be used in the manufacture of ice cream. Our research laboratories have found a way to make a dessert without using butterfat, which resembles ice cream in looks and taste. In fact it is ice cream less the butterfat.

Millions of Long Distance and Toll calls go over Bell System lines every twenty-four hours.

Most of them are handled about as promptly as before the war.

But sometimes there's a crowd on the line and then the pleasant voice of Long Distance will say-"Please limit your call to 5 minutes."
