HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for May 6 is I and II Samuel; I Kings 1-11, the Memory Verse being II Chronicles 1:10, "Give me now wisdom, and knowledge.")

A MAN named Elkanah had two wives, and the name of the one he loved better was Hannah. Hannah had no children but the other wife did, and she twitted Hannah with her childlessness. Hannah went to the temple, where Eli, the prophet, sat, and wept and prayed for a son, whom she said she would dedicate to the Lord.

Her prayers were answered, and when her son was born she called him Samuel and gave him to the priest to serve him. When Eli grew old and his sons unmanageable, the Lord called Samuel to be his successor.

When Samuel grew old, the people clamored for a king. They wanted him to lead them against their enemies. Other nations had kings, and they wanted one. Samuel opposed the idea and told them God was their king, but they were not satisfied. The Lord told Samuel to choose a man he would designate, and Saul was chosen for his fine physique. He was a Benjamite and at first he was humble, devout, and a wonderful leader. Under him the Israelites conquered their enemies and prospered.

Saul displeases God. Finally, however, Saul displeased the Lord and Samuel by his willfulness, disobedience and disrespect for the laws of God by officiating at the rite of sacrifice in Samuel's place. So the Lord told Samuel He would choose another king, and His choice was a handsome young shepherd, youngest son of Jesse, who killed the giant, Goliath, when the Philistines were attacking the Israelites.

At first Saul loved David and made him his armor bearer, and also, when bad moods came upon the king, David would soothe him with his harp playing. Gradually, however, Saul became jealous of David and finally hated him so much that David was forced to flee for his life. Saul's son, Jonathan, however, loved David always, and the story of their friendship is one of the most beautiful in the whole Bible.

David began to reign when he was 30 years old, after the death of Saul, over only the tribe of Judah, however. Later he was anointed king over all the 12 tribes. David, too, displeased the Lord by his conduct, and Nathan was sent to tell him so. David, indeed, did many wicked things, but always he grieved when he had sinned and tried to make amends, also praying for forgiveness. The Lord forgave him, and promised that his seed should reign over Israel and that some day one of his descendants should be the Messiah. David captured Jerusalem, the first time Israel had taken the city.

In the latter part of his life, when his enemies were captured and the kingdom firmly established, David planned the building of the temple at Jerusalem. He was divinely instructed not to build it, however, but only to gather material, organize the priests and Levites and to see that his son, Solomon, was anointed his successor.

David mourns Absalom. Solomon's mother was Bathsheba, and he was not David's oldest son. Of Absalom, the oldest, an exciting story is told. He was by no means a dutiful son, and conspired to take the throne away from David. He was a handsome man, and David loved him so much that when at last he was killed after rebelling against his father, David mourned deeply. Solomon was anointed before David's death. There is a great deal of brutality in the record of the beginning of his reign, in the crushing of his enemies. He also made an alliance with Egypt and married Pharaoh's daughter, which was forbidden by divine law.

The people and Solomon sacrificed in high places, and the Lord came to Solomon in a dream at Gibeon and asked what he wanted most of all. Solomon asked to be given "an understanding heart to judge." Thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this Thy so great people? God was pleased and made him so wise and understanding that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee. He also gave him riches and honor for all his days. If thou wilt walk in My ways.

Solomon's wisdom was such that it was known all over Israel and the people feared the king. If possible, tell the story of the two women and the child and Solomon's judgment thereon.

Solomon built the great temple, taking seven years to build it, and he brought into it the things David had collected and dedicated to it.

Unit of Sgt. Webb In England Wins Award

Sergeant Clyde D. Webb, son of Mrs. Calvin Webb, of Luck, is serving with the 609th Ordnance Base Ammunition Maintenance Battalion in England. His unit has recently been cited for meritorious service and awarded a unit plaque for superior performance of duty during the preparatory phase of the invasion of Western Europe and the build-up following D-Day.

Working around the clock, seven days a week the battalion personnel operating one of the largest maintenance supply depots in England met every deadline required of them during the invasion weeks.

"Credit for the award goes to every man in the outfit," according to Lt. Col. Gilbert D. Oartrudge, Cleveland, Ohio, commander of the battalion. "They worked hard, they earned it and deserve it."

With the award the members of the unit are entitled to wear a two-inch gold wreath, the meritorious service unit insignia, on their right sleeve.

Sgt. Webb has been in the service for the past 33 months. Before his induction he was employed by the Dayton Rubber plant here.

Clothes Sprinkling
In sprinkling clothes for ironing, warm water penetrates and spreads through fabrics faster. Placing the sprinkled and rolled-up clothes on a warm (not hot) radiator for a short time also helps get the ironing ready in a hurry.

Slightly Wounded

PFC. ROBERT CRAIG BRADSHAW, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, of Clyde, R.F.D. No. 1, who was reported slightly wounded in action in Germany on March 30, according to information received from the war department by his parents. He entered the service in July, 1944 and was inducted at Fort Bragg and then sent to Camp Blanding, Fla., for his basic training. He has served in France and Belgium before going into Germany. At the time he entered the service he was employed at the Houston, Texas branch of the Champion Paper and Fibre Company.

CONSUMER DECLARATION

Your coal dealer is now supplied with the necessary form for filing this Declaration. The Declaration requires you to state, among other things, the number of rooms to be heated, your normal coal requirements, and the amount of coal you are ordering.

Place Your Declaration and Order Now

Only unless you place your Declaration and your order for coal with your dealer is he required to deliver any coal to you.

If you place your order and your Consumer Declaration with your dealer before May 15, you are entitled to get, before October 1, 30% of your normal annual requirements if you are ready, willing, and able to take delivery of any usable solid fuel on terms agreeable to you and the dealer.

Generally a dealer is prohibited from delivering, and the consumer is prohibited from receiving, during the period April 1, 1945, to March 31, 1946, more than 80% of the consumer's normal annual requirements.

Generally a dealer is prohibited from delivering, and the consumer is prohibited from receiving, before September 1, 1945, more than 50% of the consumer's normal annual requirements.

Your coal dealer recognizes the probabilities of unforeseen difficulties arising in carrying out these regulations. He, therefore, asks you to learn the facts—how they apply to you and how they apply to him. Your co-operation is essential.

There's a man that I know, and he lives near you,
In a town called Everywhere.
You might not think he's a man from his hat
Or the clothes he may chance to wear;
But under the jacket with many a patch—
Is a heart more precious than gold—
The heart of a man 'neath the coat of a boy,
A man who is twelve years old.

We never may know what the future will make
Of the boys that we carelessly meet;
For many a statesman is now at school,
And presidents play in the street.
The hand that is busy with playthings, now
The reins of power will hold,
So I take off my hat and gladly salute
This man who is twelve years old.
