Our Refuge in This Storm Tossed World

Mother's Day Sunday May 13th

It's true, war brings about so many changes that we hardly recognize our old way of life. We're working harder, we're eating less, and life in general is of a more solemn nature. But there are some things that remain forever the same, forever good and beautiful. One of those things is mother love. It never has and it never will change. It's as perpetual as the stars in heaven and it shines as brightly in war-time as it does in peace. It's the hand that rocks the cradle.

But there's another hand rocking the cradle now. It's a little more wrinkled and not quite as strong as the other one, but it's a capable hand. It's the same hand that rocked the cradle in the last war. Yes, it's Grandmother's. She's keeping the home fires burning while the rest of the family keep the home safe for the future.
