"Where's my canning sugar?" That is the question of the day at the rationing board.

According to information learned by The Mountaineer yesterday, it will be ten days, maybe two weeks, before many local housewives will have the answer.

Almost 14,000 applications were made for canning sugar from this board on the 8th and 9th of May. Many others are yet to be received. In fact, a new ruling says that those failing to get their applications in on the 8th or 9th can now get a blank from any store and mail their application, together with spare stamp No. 13 to the board.

All that adds up to this—the board has had its allowance of "sweeten" cut, and applications continue to pour in. They have burned midnight oil, and have checked only half through.

And while it is not a sweet story, all The Mountaineer could learn, was "we're knee deep in applications; not much sugar in sight, and it will be ten days or more before the first sugar stamps can be mailed out."

A personal visit, and a "sugar" plea to the office personnel only delays matters, instead of hurrying the needed canning coupons on their way.

1944 Feeder Calf Sale Creates Demand For More

Buyers of Choice Steer Calves At Clyde Sale Pleased With Records of Animals.

There will be a demand for more choice steer calves this fall due to the success of the feeder calf sale which was held in Clyde last September. It was learned from Howard R. Clapp, county farm agent, this week.

The buyers of the calves last fall have been pleased with the animals purchased from this section and it is anticipated that there will be a good market for this type of stock this year.

One car load of choice steer calves were shipped to the Eastern part of this state where they were distributed among 4-H Club members who fed them out for the Kinston Fat Stock Show and Sale on April 18 and 19th. The record of these calves has created demand, according to Mr. Clapp.

Calves Should Be Dehorned and Castrated

"Eastern North Carolina buyers want heavy calves weighing from 450 to 500 pounds and they want them dehorned and castrated. If we expect this market, we must give customers what they want. It is urged therefore, that we see that these two operations are performed, and that we hold back our good early spring calves for the Clyde sale, which will probably be held September 20th," said Mr. Clapp in discussing the outlook for

I want to get back to Waynesville, North Carolina, and farm," is what S/Sgt. Joe N. Tate, Jr., told the world over the British Broadcasting Company and the Mutual network recently. Sgt. Tate was on the program of "American Eagle in Britain."

His family here have received letters and long distance calls from numerous states. Some listeners had taken down the interview between the announcer and Sgt. Tate, who was 22 on the day the broadcast was made. The reception was clear, and his voice was so natural that his mother admitted she hugged the radio. He told of his many missions as waist gunner on a B-17 over Germany.

Posthumously Awarded

PFC CECIL R. ROBINSON, who was killed in action on Corregidor on February 23, has been awarded the Purple Heart, according to information received by his wife, the former Miss Emma Louise Leatherwood, of Newport News, Va.

Pfc. C. E. Robinson Posthumously Gets Purple Heart

Private First Class Cecil R. Robinson, son of Mrs. Ernest E. Robinson, and the late Mr. Robinson, of Hazelwood, has been posthumously awarded the Purple Heart, which has been forwarded to his wife, who is residing in Newport News, Va.

Pfc. Robinson was killed in action on February 23, on Corregidor by a Japanese sniper. He was attached to the 503rd Para. Inf., and had served in New Guinea a year prior to the time his company was sent to Corregidor to take part in the invasion.

Pfc. Robinson entered the service in March, 1943, and was inducted at Camp Croft. After taking his basic training at a Texas post he was sent to Fort Benning, Ga., for special training as a paratrooper.

He had served a total of 18 months in the South Pacific theatre. Surviving are his wife who will continue to make her home in Newport News; three brothers, Pfc. William Earl Robinson and Pfc. Johnny Robinson, both serving in the European theatre, and Donald Robinson, of Hazelwood, four sisters, Mrs. Howard Passmore, Mrs. Max Cochran and Miss Betty Jo and Miss Ernestine Robinson, all of this section.

Prior to entering the service Pfc. Robinson was employed by the Unagusta Manufacturing Company.

Grace Church Will Be Host Of Diocese Meeting In 1946

The 24th annual convention of the Episcopal church of the Diocese of Western North Carolina will hold their 1946 meeting in Waynesville, it was announced at the meeting held last week in Hendersonville.

The members of Grace Church in the Mountains here will be hosts to the convention, over which Rev. Robert E. Gibbons, bishop of the diocese, will preside.

William M. Redwood, member of Trinity Church, Asheville, was re-elected treasurer of the convention at the meeting in Hendersonville. The standing committee of the diocese, was re-elected with the addition of A. B. Stoney, of Morganton, and Rev. J. P. Burke, rector of St. James Church, Hendersonville.

The interruption," said Mr.

Tate, "is to permit important repair work which can not be done with safety without disconnecting service. We sincerely hope that it is planned for hours when a minimum of inconvenience will be caused customers in the area to be effected."

Service will be off from 6:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. on Sunday morning.

Mr. Tate stated that while he regretted the disconnection of service for even a short time it was essential that the lines be kept in good repair at a time when abnormally heavy demands are being imposed by the war production board.

Ordinance Is Passed To Ban Wine Sales

Officers Find Wine Causes "Fighting Spirit" To Arise In Many Customers.

The legal sale of wine in Waynesville will be unlawful after the first of June, according to an ordinance passed by the board of aldermen last Thursday night.

This action will affect three places in town where wine is sold. The operators of these places will be given a thirty-day period in which to dispose of all their stock now on hand.

On the other hand any place entitled to sell beer may continue to operate, according to the law so long as it does so in an orderly manner, and in compliance with the regulations.

Town officials have had the matter under consideration for the past several months, and went into every phase of the plan as operated in other communities.

The ordinance was passed by the aldermen in view of the increased consumption of wine and due to the fact that the officers report that most all drunkenness results from wine.

At present there are four places in the town in which beer is sold. Town officials are issuing warning that all places now handling beer will be carefully "scrutinized" before licenses are issued or renewed.

Women To Have Large Part In 7th War Bond Drive

Mrs. Bonner Ray, County Chairman, and Mrs. Ben Sloan In Charge of Waynesville Area.

Due to the increased quota assigned to Haywood county in the Seventh War Loan Drive, the Women's Division under the leadership of Mrs. Bonner Ray, county chairman, the women of the area are taking a more active part in the sales than in the previous campaigns.

Mrs. Ben Sloan is serving as chairman of the drive in the Waynesville area.

A booth will be maintained at the First National Bank for the next several weeks with some member of the women's committee in charge each day.

Those who will sell bonds at the booth in the First National Bank include: Mrs. Carl Hill, Mrs. Jonathan Woody, Mrs. James Kilpatrick, Mrs. Ben Collett, Mrs. Whitener Prevost, Mrs. Felicia Stovall, Mrs. June Smathers, and Mrs. Charles Ray.

Much interest is being manifested in the workers who are competing in the Blue Star Brigade for recognition for number of bonds sold. The minimum of ten bonds will entitle a bond saleswoman to be rated a second lieutenant and a number of those selling bonds will gain even higher ranks if the sales continue as they have started out this week.

Electric Current To Be Off Sunday 6:00 to 7:30 a.m.

Electric service will be discontinued throughout Hazelwood, Lake Junaluska and Waynesville areas on Sunday morning, May 20, according to an announcement by J. E. Tate, manager of the Carolina Power and Light Company.

"The interruption," said Mr. Tate, "is to permit important repair work which can not be done with safety without disconnecting service. We sincerely hope that it is planned for hours when a minimum of inconvenience will be caused customers in the area to be effected."

Service will be off from 6:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. on Sunday morning. Mr. Tate stated that while he regretted the disconnection of service for even a short time it was essential that the lines be kept in good repair at a time when abnormally heavy demands are being imposed by the war production board.

Edward Scheidt, special agent in charge of Charlotte, will be in charge of the conferences. Judge J. W. Pless will address the group.
