Carrie E. Mann, USNR, Home For Leave

Carrie E. Mann, HA 1/c, USNR, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. N. T. Mann, of Canton, R.F.D. No. 2, spent a week-end leave in the county with her family. She entered the service on July 27, 1944, and enlisted in Knoxville, Tenn., and was sent to Hunter College, Bronx, N. Y., for training. Upon completion of this course she was sent to Bethesda, Md., for corps training. From the latter she was transferred to Camp Lejeune and later to Cherry Point. At present she is stationed at Atlantic Field.

Prior to entering the service she was a nurses aide at the Haywood County Hospital and then at St. Joseph's Hospital, Asheville. She is a graduate of the Bethel high school. She has four brothers in the service, Cpl. Cecil E. Mann, and Cpl. James Mann, both in France, Pfc. George Mann, stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., and Pfc. Marshall Mann, at Harrisonburg, Pa. Another brother, Pvt. Troy W. Mann, has recently been discharged from the army.

Raines Brothers Serving Country

ALBERT RAINES AND GORDON RAINES, sons of Mrs. Nelson Curtis and the late Bill Raines, of Waynesville, R.F.D., are serving in the armed forces. Albert Raines, seaman first class, entered the service in August, 1943, and took his boot training at Bainbridge, Md. He was assigned to sea duty upon completion of this training and has served for the past 18 months in the Pacific area. At the time he entered the navy he was employed by the Welco Shoe Corporation. Gordon Raines, apprentice seaman, entered the service on February 22, 1945, and was sent to Bainbridge, Md. for his boot training. After completion of boot training he was sent to Camp Peary, Va., where he is now stationed. He also was employed by the Welco Shoe Corporation at the time he enlisted in the navy.

Recipe Checks Pain Quickly

Cranberry rolls which are quick to make and quick to disappear are made by rolling a standard baking powder biscuit dough one-fourth inch thick. Spread a sweetened and thickened cranberry filling on the dough and roll jelly roll fashion. Cut one inch slices from jelly roll and place cut side down in greased muffin pans. Bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, for 10 minutes.

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME Prepared by OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

CIVILIANS AT WAR

The Government needs and asks its citizens in the 181st week of the war against Japan to: 1. Enlist your dog for scout duty with Pacific combat troops. The Army needs 500 large dogs immediately and 1,600 before August. Write the Quartermaster General, Washington, D. C. 2. Plan to can your surplus early vegetables and fruits. Present high blue point values indicate how necessary home-canned foods will be next winter. 3. Insulate your home now to keep it cool during summer, as well as to save fuel which will continue to be scarce next winter.

Table with columns: REMINDERS, Last Date For Use, and items like MEATS, FATS, PROCESSED FOODS, SUGAR STAMPS, FUEL OIL, SHOES.
