

Miss Evelyn Craig Becomes Bride Of Lee Frank Worthington, U. S. Navy

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Jean Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Monroe Craig, to Lee Frank Worthington, A. R. M. 2/c, (C.A.), son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Esmond Worthington, was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 in the Waynesville Presbyterian church. The Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, pastor, pronounced the vows.

The altar was centered with a large basket of long sprays of roses against a background of greenery. On either side were placed tall candelabra.

Mrs. L. M. Richeson, organist, played the marches from Lohengrin for the processional and by Mendelssohn for the recessional. During the taking of the vows, she softly played, "O Promise Me" by deKoven.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore an afternoon dress of jersey in turquoise and fusch print. Her accessories were in black with a small off the face hat worn with a veil. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. John Frederick Mullins, of Hendersonville. She wore an afternoon gown of dusty rose and black print, with black accessories and her flowers were white carnations.

The bridegroom had as his best man Flight Officer Richard L. Bradley, AAF, of Waynesville, who has recently returned from the European theatre.

The bride's mother wore a suit of powder blue with navy accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a suit of Nile green with black accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Worthington is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school in the class of 1944, and of the Marguerite Hyatt School of the Dance, Asheville. She has studied dancing under the late Ned Wayburn and Harry DeMuth, of New York City. For the past year she has been an assistant in the Marguerite Hyatt School of the Dance in Asheville, and for the past three years has conducted a dancing school for younger children in Waynesville. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Craig, of Swannanoa, and the granddaughter of Allen Houghton, of Utica, Mich.

The bridegroom graduated from the local high school in the class of 1942 and enlisted in the Navy on February 17, 1943. He took his boot training in Bainbridge, Md., and from there was sent to the Aviation Radio-Radar School at N. A. T. C., Jacksonville, Fla. He also attended the Aviation Gunners School at N. A. G. S., Jacksonville, and the operational training school at Lake City, Fla. and Beaufort, S. C. He recently returned from the Southwest Pacific, where he served for 16 months. He will report to Class B-Combat Aircrewman School, Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn. on June 20.

Prior to the ceremony at the church Wednesday the bride's parents were hosts of a wedding breakfast at the Hotel Gordon. The bridal table was centered with a three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and was surrounded with an arrangement of bride's roses. Only members of the bridal party and the two families were present for the affair.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida, after which they will return to Waynesville, and the bridegroom will report to his new assignment. He will be joined later by Mrs. Worthington.
