HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The . International . Uniform Lesson on the above topic for June 24 is Acts 11:19-26; 13:1-3; I Timothy; Hebrews; I Peter, especially I Timothy 6:1-20, I Peter 4:7-5:4. the Memory Verse being I Timothy 6:11, "Follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, pa-

OUR LESSON today is concerned with the missionary journeys of the early church preachers, and with the moral lives of Christians.

tience, meekness")

Stephen, you remember, was the first Christian martyr, being stoned to death, but dying gloriously, firm in his faith.

The Christians were scattered about after this, some going as far as Phenice, Cyprus and Antioch They were at this time preaching to Jews only "And the hand of the Lord was great with them and a great many believed, and turned unto the Lord"

The church at Jerusalem heard about these things, and they sent Barnabas as far as Antioch First he went to Tarsus to seek Paul, and when he found him the two proceeded to Antioch At Antioch. which is situated 15 miles from the Mediterranean coast, far north in Syria, on the Orontes river were several prophets and teachers "As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Ghost said. Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them." By the way, it was at Antioch that the term Christian was first applied to con-

Paul's Long Missionary Life So began a long missionary life for Paul, 15 years, establishing the Christian church in most of the great cities of Asia Minor and southern Europe. The last three epistles he wrote, the two to Timothy and one to Titus, are called "the Pastoral Epistles," because they contain, mostly, directions to these two men in their pastoral work The second Epistle to Timothy is concerned with the life of the believers. Paul advised that servants nev er should be unruly or insolent to unbelieving masters; neither' should they insist tupon social their masters became Christians. Paul was not a social revolutionist, but he taught great principles which he wished the disciples to follow in their lives.

Paul warned Timothy against "perverse disputings of men with corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness." "Godliness with con-tentment is great gain," he writes. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content

They that are rich "fall into temptation and a snare . . . For the love of money is the rest of all evil

But thou, O man of God ffee these things, and follow after righteousness, godlinesa, taith, love, patience, incekness Fight the good fight of faith, by field on eternal life.

Use Riches for Good of Others

Paul doesn't preach agroust riches, only that if a man has them he should use them wesely. for the good of others as well as of himself

In his first epistic, Peter tries to strengthen the followers of Christand give them courage to suffer persecutions

Beloved, think it not strange cencerning the nery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove your as though a strange thing happened unto you

"But repore, masmorti as ve are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with sceeding joy

But let none of you suffer as murderer or as a thirt, or as an evildoer or as a busybody in other men's matters."

'And as a last reminder of the duties of Christians, Peter writes. Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly, not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind."

In those days all Christians or almost all-were poor, especially the preachers, and they must be housed and fed as they taught - the # gospel. # Hospitality, then, was necessary in every community where they worked. Not only the poor in a general sense, but those engaged in this holy share what they had with others was one of the fundamental duties equality or political freedom if of early Christians.
