

THE BOOK CORNER

Reading From Left To Right

—With—
FRANCES GILBERT FRAZIER

It contains fifty sketches and plans, ten pages of details and one hundred hints for home builders.

Then as a twin companion to the above is HOW TO BE YOUR OWN DECORATOR, by Helen Koues. The name of the author will immediately bring to mind the many enjoyable hours you spent in living with Miss Koues when she was Director of Good Housekeeping Studio. Many a purchaser of Good Housekeeping turned to Miss Koues' pages before reading anything in the magazine.

There are three hundred, perhaps a few more than that, illustrations in HOW TO BE YOUR OWN DECORATOR, each illustrating distinct and explanatory.

As soon as you look at the inside cover of the booklet, you will immediately want to remodel your bed spread and hang new drapes at the windows. The expense will be trifling in comparison to the results obtained. All through the book you will find startling suggestions that will mean so much in beautifying your home. New furniture will not be necessary and the old, like shoes, is so much more comfortable. Remember how comfortable a pair of old shoes are when remodeled, re-soled let's say? Well, your home will be a new home with all the comforts of the old left in to cheer you and make life a pleasanter place in which to abide.

Sgt. Buford Trantham Given Bronze Star

Tech. Sgt. Buford C. Trantham has been given the Bronze Star medal for campaigns he participated in in Germany.

Sgt. Trantham's home is Canton, route one.

Seaman Howard Sutton Crosses the Equator

Howard E. Sutton, seaman second class USNR, having crossed the equator about a night cruiser in the Pacific and undergone the customary initiation may now wear the title of "Full-Fledge Shellback."

Initiation ceremonies for the Ancient Order of Shellbacks were staged by the "old salts" of the crew. The "ceremonial" celebration was held on the weather deck as the cruiser steamed across the equator.

Newest members of the select nautical club are awaiting "two things—more 'peaches' to come aboard for initiation and the next crossing of the equator according to information received from the cruiser.

Seaman Sutton, wife Mrs. Beacie Sutton and two children, Junior and Shirley Ann, live in Hazelwood.

Sgt. Chas. D. Ketter Now Serving in France

Sgt. Chas. D. Ketter is serving with the 1st platoon, Company B of the 23rd Engineer Battalion in operating the utility section at Camp Chicago, located in North-eastern France, near Reims according to information received from the U.S. forces in France.

Aided by promises of war, the platoon maintains planning, roads, buildings and other facilities at this redeployed camp, which houses 13,000 troops.

Camp Chicago is one of the 17 installations in the assembly area command, which will redeploy 300,000 troops each month to the Pacific or the United States.

The unit served in Africa and England before landing at Utah Beach on D-Day. The men were assigned to the 1st Army through France, Belgium and the Battle of the Bulge and Germany. The first platoon was at Esleben, about 50

Library Notes

Centering the interest of children of elementary school age and their parents is the announcement this week of the "Reading For Fun Club", which will be conducted by the Haywood County Library from the period beginning July 14th and lasting through September 1st.

Since the library has been operated as a county unit plans have been in the making to organize a summer reading club, but until the present there has not been a sufficient number of juvenile books in the library to sponsor such a club.

One of the objects of the club is to keep children reading during vacation so as to continue the habit, for summer reading always contributes materially to the standard of the elementary student miles from Leipzig on VE-Day. The platoon received a commendation from Major General Huebner, 1st Infantry Division commander, for fighting as infantry at Aachen.

Sgt. Ketter entered the service on December 22, 1942, and was inducted at Fort Jackson. He took his training at Plattsburg, N. Y., and from there was sent overseas, where he has served for the past 22 months. Before entering the service he operated the Farmers Exchange which he owns.

Devere K. Medford On Duty In Atlantic

Devere K. Medford, seaman first class USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Devere K. Medford, Clyde, is serving on a seaplane tender which has just returned to the States with Naval aviation personnel who operated from England.

Seaman Medford has been on duty in the Atlantic theatre for the past eight months. He attended the Clyde high school and entered the navy in August, 1943.

At the opening of school again in the fall.

The books are to be read at home, and each reader will be assisted by the librarian and assistant library worker in selection and general program.

The features of the club will be posted on the bulletin board in the library. A parachute with the name of the reader will be placed on the bulletin board under the cut-out places and as books are read the parachute will come down nearer to earth to complete the jump.

Each jump will represent five books for fun reading, according to age level. As many jumps as one wishes to make may be taken.

All children who complete two jumps (ten books) will be entitled to reading awards.

A list of books will be kept so that each child may present it to their teacher when school begins. Students and their parents are asked to visit the library this week and get the names enrolled in the Reading for Fun Club, so that the members may have ample time to get full credit for their reading.

Never in the history of the library has there been such an attractive and educational selection of books for juveniles, and it is at this time that the reading habit which follows a lifetime is more likely to be acquired.

Pvt. Geo. W. Swanger Is Awarded Badge

Private George W. Swanger, of Waynesville, has been awarded the Expert Infantryman badge after completing a rigorous course of training in the Infantry replacement training center at Camp Blanding, Fla.

The award of this badge, which calls for additional compensation above base pay, means that Pvt. Swanger is an expert in the use of several of the infantry's weapons and has done a more than satisfactory job of learning the other military skills required of a Doughboy.

At the time he entered the service this year, he was employed by R. N. Barber and Company. His wife, Mrs. Allie Fair Swanger, lives in Waynesville.

Miss Sarah Leatherwood has arrived home from Chapel Hill where she has completed four months of graduate work in social service at the University of North Carolina. Before returning home she visited classmates in New York and Washington, D. C. Miss Leatherwood will be here with relatives for a short vacation.

Remarkable Treatment for Stomach Distress From Too Much Stomach Acid

Are you tortured with the burning misery of too much free stomach acid? Use of the famous VON TUBERUS is bringing comforting relief to hundreds of such cases. Sincerely grateful people tell of what they call the "wonder" Von Tub. has done for them. This gentle, soothing, non-toxic, non-habit-forming stomach acid and to bring relief from such conditions. If you suffer from indigestion, gas, heartburn, belching, bloating, sour stomach and other symptoms due to excess stomach acid, Von Tub. should be your first-aid remedy. Get it from your neighborhood drug store. Get $1.25 Trial Size. Also available $2.00, $3.50 sizes. At SMITH'S CUT RATE DRUG STORE and other good drug stores.

They're all big days for Long Distance these days. Our job is to take them in stride and get your calls through without waiting.

Most of the time it works out that way, but sometimes there's an extra big crowd on some circuits.

Then Long Distance will say— "Please limit your call to 5 minutes."

Buy War Bonds and Stamps

MARGARET JOHNSTON
County Librarian

Centering the interest of children of elementary school age and their parents is the announcement this week of the "Reading For Fun Club", which will be conducted by the Haywood County Library from the period beginning July 14th and lasting through September 1st.

Since the library has been operated as a county unit plans have been in the making to organize a summer reading club, but until the present there has not been a sufficient number of juvenile books in the library to sponsor such a club.

One of the objects of the club is to keep children reading during vacation so as to continue the habit, for summer reading always contributes materially to the standard of the elementary student miles from Leipzig on VE-Day. The platoon received a commendation from Major General Huebner, 1st Infantry Division commander, for fighting as infantry at Aachen.

Sgt. Ketter entered the service on December 22, 1942, and was inducted at Fort Jackson. He took his training at Plattsburg, N. Y., and from there was sent overseas, where he has served for the past 22 months. Before entering the service he operated the Farmers Exchange which he owns.

At the opening of school again in the fall.

The books are to be read at home, and each reader will be assisted by the librarian and assistant library worker in selection and general program.

The features of the club will be posted on the bulletin board in the library. A parachute with the name of the reader will be placed on the bulletin board under the cut-out places and as books are read the parachute will come down nearer to earth to complete the jump.

Each jump will represent five books for fun reading, according to age level. As many jumps as one wishes to make may be taken.

All children who complete two jumps (ten books) will be entitled to reading awards.

A list of books will be kept so that each child may present it to their teacher when school begins.

Students and their parents are asked to visit the library this week and get the names enrolled in the Reading for Fun Club, so that the members may have ample time to get full credit for their reading.

Never in the history of the library has there been such an attractive and educational selection of books for juveniles, and it is at this time that the reading habit which follows a lifetime is more likely to be acquired.

Private George W. Swanger, of Waynesville, has been awarded the Expert Infantryman badge after completing a rigorous course of training in the Infantry replacement training center at Camp Blanding, Fla.

The award of this badge, which calls for additional compensation above base pay, means that Pvt. Swanger is an expert in the use of several of the infantry's weapons and has done a more than satisfactory job of learning the other military skills required of a Doughboy.

At the time he entered the service this year, he was employed by R. N. Barber and Company. His wife, Mrs. Allie Fair Swanger, lives in Waynesville.

Miss Sarah Leatherwood has arrived home from Chapel Hill where she has completed four months of graduate work in social service at the University of North Carolina. Before returning home she visited classmates in New York and Washington, D. C. Miss Leatherwood will be here with relatives for a short vacation.

MARGARET JOHNSTON
County Librarian

Centering the interest of children of elementary school age and their parents is the announcement this week of the "Reading For Fun Club", which will be conducted by the Haywood County Library from the period beginning July 14th and lasting through September 1st.

Since the library has been operated as a county unit plans have been in the making to organize a summer reading club, but until the present there has not been a sufficient number of juvenile books in the library to sponsor such a club.

One of the objects of the club is to keep children reading during vacation so as to continue the habit, for summer reading always contributes materially to the standard of the elementary student miles from Leipzig on VE-Day. The platoon received a commendation from Major General Huebner, 1st Infantry Division commander, for fighting as infantry at Aachen.

Sgt. Ketter entered the service on December 22, 1942, and was inducted at Fort Jackson. He took his training at Plattsburg, N. Y., and from there was sent overseas, where he has served for the past 22 months. Before entering the service he operated the Farmers Exchange which he owns.

At the opening of school again in the fall.

The books are to be read at home, and each reader will be assisted by the librarian and assistant library worker in selection and general program.

The features of the club will be posted on the bulletin board in the library. A parachute with the name of the reader will be placed on the bulletin board under the cut-out places and as books are read the parachute will come down nearer to earth to complete the jump.

Each jump will represent five books for fun reading, according to age level. As many jumps as one wishes to make may be taken.

All children who complete two jumps (ten books) will be entitled to reading awards.

A list of books will be kept so that each child may present it to their teacher when school begins.

Students and their parents are asked to visit the library this week and get the names enrolled in the Reading for Fun Club, so that the members may have ample time to get full credit for their reading.

Never in the history of the library has there been such an attractive and educational selection of books for juveniles, and it is at this time that the reading habit which follows a lifetime is more likely to be acquired.

Private George W. Swanger, of Waynesville, has been awarded the Expert Infantryman badge after completing a rigorous course of training in the Infantry replacement training center at Camp Blanding, Fla.

The award of this badge, which calls for additional compensation above base pay, means that Pvt. Swanger is an expert in the use of several of the infantry's weapons and has done a more than satisfactory job of learning the other military skills required of a Doughboy.

At the time he entered the service this year, he was employed by R. N. Barber and Company. His wife, Mrs. Allie Fair Swanger, lives in Waynesville.

Miss Sarah Leatherwood has arrived home from Chapel Hill where she has completed four months of graduate work in social service at the University of North Carolina. Before returning home she visited classmates in New York and Washington, D. C. Miss Leatherwood will be here with relatives for a short vacation.

MARGARET JOHNSTON
County Librarian

Centering the interest of children of elementary school age and their parents is the announcement this week of the "Reading For Fun Club", which will be conducted by the Haywood County Library from the period beginning July 14th and lasting through September 1st.

Since the library has been operated as a county unit plans have been in the making to organize a summer reading club, but until the present there has not been a sufficient number of juvenile books in the library to sponsor such a club.

One of the objects of the club is to keep children reading during vacation so as to continue the habit, for summer reading always contributes materially to the standard of the elementary student miles from Leipzig on VE-Day. The platoon received a commendation from Major General Huebner, 1st Infantry Division commander, for fighting as infantry at Aachen.

Sgt. Ketter entered the service on December 22, 1942, and was inducted at Fort Jackson. He took his training at Plattsburg, N. Y., and from there was sent overseas, where he has served for the past 22 months. Before entering the service he operated the Farmers Exchange which he owns.

At the opening of school again in the fall.

The books are to be read at home, and each reader will be assisted by the librarian and assistant library worker in selection and general program.

The features of the club will be posted on the bulletin board in the library. A parachute with the name of the reader will be placed on the bulletin board under the cut-out places and as books are read the parachute will come down nearer to earth to complete the jump.

Each jump will represent five books for fun reading, according to age level. As many jumps as one wishes to make may be taken.

All children who complete two jumps (ten books) will be entitled to reading awards.

A list of books will be kept so that each child may present it to their teacher when school begins.

Students and their parents are asked to visit the library this week and get the names enrolled in the Reading for Fun Club, so that the members may have ample time to get full credit for their reading.

Never in the history of the library has there been such an attractive and educational selection of books for juveniles, and it is at this time that the reading habit which follows a lifetime is more likely to be acquired.

Private George W. Swanger, of Waynesville, has been awarded the Expert Infantryman badge after completing a rigorous course of training in the Infantry replacement training center at Camp Blanding, Fla.

The award of this badge, which calls for additional compensation above base pay, means that Pvt. Swanger is an expert in the use of several of the infantry's weapons and has done a more than satisfactory job of learning the other military skills required of a Doughboy.

At the time he entered the service this year, he was employed by R. N. Barber and Company. His wife, Mrs. Allie Fair Swanger, lives in Waynesville.

Miss Sarah Leatherwood has arrived home from Chapel Hill where she has completed four months of graduate work in social service at the University of North Carolina. Before returning home she visited classmates in New York and Washington, D. C. Miss Leatherwood will be here with relatives for a short vacation.

MARGARET JOHNSTON
County Librarian

Centering the interest of children of elementary school age and their parents is the announcement this week of the "Reading For Fun Club", which will be conducted by the Haywood County Library from the period beginning July 14th and lasting through September 1st.

Since the library has been operated as a county unit plans have been in the making to organize a summer reading club, but until the present there has not been a sufficient number of juvenile books in the library to sponsor such a club.

One of the objects of the club is to keep children reading during vacation so as to continue the habit, for summer reading always contributes materially to the standard of the elementary student miles from Leipzig on VE-Day. The platoon received a commendation from Major General Huebner, 1st Infantry Division commander, for fighting as infantry at Aachen.

Sgt. Ketter entered the service on December 22, 1942, and was inducted at Fort Jackson. He took his training at Plattsburg, N. Y., and from there was sent overseas, where he has served for the past 22 months. Before entering the service he operated the Farmers Exchange which he owns.

At the opening of school again in the fall.

The books are to be read at home, and each reader will be assisted by the librarian and assistant library worker in selection and general program.

The features of the club will be posted on the bulletin board in the library. A parachute with the name of the reader will be placed on the bulletin board under the cut-out places and as books are read the parachute will come down nearer to earth to complete the jump.

Each jump will represent five books for fun reading, according to age level. As many jumps as one wishes to make may be taken.

All children who complete two jumps (ten books) will be entitled to reading awards.

A list of books will be kept so that each child may present it to their teacher when school begins.

Students and their parents are asked to visit the library this week and get the names enrolled in the Reading for Fun Club, so that the members may have ample time to get full credit for their reading.

Never in the history of the library has there been such an attractive and educational selection of books for juveniles, and it is at this time that the reading habit which follows a lifetime is more likely to be acquired.

Private George W. Swanger, of Waynesville, has been awarded the Expert Infantryman badge after completing a rigorous course of training in the Infantry replacement training center at Camp Blanding, Fla.

The award of this badge, which calls for additional compensation above base pay, means that Pvt. Swanger is an expert in the use of several of the infantry's weapons and has done a more than satisfactory job of learning the other military skills required of a Doughboy.

At the time he entered the service this year, he was employed by R. N. Barber and Company. His wife, Mrs. Allie Fair Swanger, lives in Waynesville.

Miss Sarah Leatherwood has arrived home from Chapel Hill where she has completed four months of graduate work in social service at the University of North Carolina. Before returning home she visited classmates in New York and Washington, D. C. Miss Leatherwood will be here with relatives for a short vacation.

TODAY
Another Big Day for Long Distance

They're all big days for Long Distance these days. Our job is to take them in stride and get your calls through without waiting.

Most of the time it works out that way, but sometimes there's an extra big crowd on some circuits.

Then Long Distance will say— "Please limit your call to 5 minutes."

Announcing---We Have Moved All Our Facilities to Our MODERN NEW HOME

Main Street, Next To Martin Electric Company

GOODYEAR TIRE SPECIALS

$3.00 For your turn-in tire on any size NEW GOODYEAR Passenger Tire.

$10.00 For any turn-in truck tire from 6.50-20 through 8.25-20 on NEW GOODYEAR Truck Tire.

If You Need Tires, See Us Before You Buy

VISIT US IN OUR NEW HOME

We have moved into our new home—one built specially for our business. The modern tire recapping plant is better prepared than ever to serve you, and while our service station building is being completed, we can give you AA-1 service, and plenty of gas and oil.

We have a large auto supply department which we will open soon—watch this newspaper for the announcement.

AA-1 SERVICE TO YOUR CAR

We Now Feature

SINCLAIR GASOLINE AND OILS

Special Friday and Saturday HIGH-TEST GASOLINE

Sims Tire & Battery Co.

Main Street ED SIMS, Owner Waynesville

We No Longer Operate The Gulf Station At Main and Pigeon Streets

The Emblem Of Superior RECAPPING and VULCANIZING The Only Shop In This Area With This Honor