

Options Made Local Unit Of Air Patrol

With the selection of members for the Waynesville Local Unit of the Civil Air Patrol, Dan Watkins, commander, announced several options made at the meeting Monday at the armory.

Gas Pains? Smash Distress?

Refer to Which A Little Has Been Added. First sign of distress smart women now know just what to do. They put a teaspoonful of neutral in a glass of real fruit and drink it after meals. Neutral is new. It's really for the symptoms of gastric hyperacidity, such as quick relief to the stomach distress, acid indigestion, heartburn, gas and other common causes by excessive acidity. Neutral at Smith's Cut Store and all druggists.

WAYNESVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Malcolm R. Williamson, Pastor. Whitener, Presvost, superintendent of Sunday School. Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. Morning Worship 11:00 o'clock. Sermon subject, "Praise the Lord." The special music for Sunday will feature Mrs. Henry F. MacFadyen, soloist, Sol Cohen, violinist, and Mrs. Nana Shankle as guest organist. The Pioneers and Young People will meet at 7:00 p. m. The Prayer Service on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. Earl Messer, superintendent. There is a department and class for all ages where one will find competent teachers, fine fellowship and spiritual instruction. Morning worship at 11:15. The pastor's theme will be, "The Love That Wins," based on Hosea 2:14-15. The soil is here likened to a fickle, faithless woman who despises the love of a noble husband. God is the husband and his people represent the unfaithful wife. The sermon will deal with the "husband's treatment of his unfaithful wife."

Training Union at 7:00 p. m. Miss Hattie Freeman is the efficient director of this organization, the purpose of which is to train and develop leaders for the church.

Evening worship at 8 o'clock. The pastor will attempt to impersonate Dismas, the Penitent Thief, who was crucified with Jesus. Dismas has a message for those of our day who try to "get by with things." Read Luke 23:39-43 for a better appreciation of this message.

Mid-week service Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The discussion of the prayer Jesus taught his disciples will continue. "Deliverance From Evil" will be the theme of this brief service which lasts only forty-five minutes.

Cottage prayer meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The place will be announced later.

We cordially and warmly invite all visitors who have no church home to worship with us in these services. All the churches of our town extend a warm welcome to the summer visitors.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. C. Madison, Pastor. Church School under the direction of M. H. Howles opens at 10:00 o'clock.

At the morning hour the pastor will speak on the subject, "I Died For What?" At 8:00 o'clock Dr. G. I. Humphreys, president of High Point College, and formerly a prominent pastor in the Maryland Conference, will bring the message.

The Youth Fellowship meets at 7:00 o'clock.

HAZELWOOD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. S. R. Crockett, Pastor. Sunday School at 10 o'clock. Lawrence Davis, superintendent. The pastor will preach at the Bethel Presbyterian church on Sunday morning.
