THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

BELK-HUDSON COMPANY --

Mary Emily Siler Is Wedded To Carl Edwin Rothrock Saturday

arriage of Miss Mary the gift of the bridegroom

r, daughter of Mr. and *Mrs. David Stentz, matron of Rufus Siler, to Cap-am Rufus Siler, to Cap-honor, wore a gown of pink, with Edwin Rothrock, son of fitted bodice fashioned of brocade Edwin Rollifock, and en inted bodie fashioned of brocade Mrs Oscar Alexander of Reidsville, was sol-of Reidsville, was sol-sieeves were three-quarter length and the neckline was a sweetheart protection for the second of brocade and the full skirt of net The sieeves were three-quarter length and the neckline was a sweetheart the First Methodist model. She carried an arm bouthe rust arm bourector of Walnut Cove jums bordered with tiny white Church, of Walnut Cove. flowers. the Rev. J. Clay Madi-

· Sister Is Attendant

of the church, pro-Miss Betsy Siler, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and she ar of the church was ar of the church was be evergreens, with tall and model, and also carried an the gladioli and hyd- arm bouquet of pink roses and foer candelabra inter- blue delphinium. ong the greenery. The Serving as bridesmaids were spoken before an arch Miss Doris Rothrock, sister of the ptwined with white flowbridegroom, and Miss Mary Ann Massie, cousin of the bride They were lighted with wore gowns of pink net with high randles, against a backround necklines, three quarter white flowers and eversleeves, and and titted bodices with am of nuptial music was full skirts, and carried old-tashion-by Mrs W. D. Matney. ed bouquets of pink and blue flowfull skirts, and carried old-fashion-

Miss Jame Stentz, ers.

Matney played "The Captain Rothrock that as his from "The Tales of best man his father, Oscar Alexby Offenbach, "Clair de ander Rothrock, of Rendsville peBusse, "Intermezzo," Serving as ushers were Herbert I. celera Rusticana," and Buchanan, and Sam H. Bushnell, ceremony played "Lieb-Jr., of Waynesville, and W. B. Liszt Miss Stentz, McSpadden, of Chilhowie, Vad by Mrs. Matney, sang The bride's mother wore a gown by dilardelot, and modeled with a full fushia skirt is schubert. The and a chartruse bodice, embroidmarthes by Wagner and ered in fushia, and her corsage m were used for the was of purple orchuds. The brideand the recessional. groom's mother wore a model of was given in marriage gray and yellow, with the skirt of she wore a gown of gray and the bodice of vellow flownarquisette over taffeta ered material and her corsage was a fitted bodier with off- also of purple orchidseffect trimmed in a The bride is a graduate of the of soft folds of mar- Waynesville Township high school. the deeves were long. Peace Junior College, and the Wopoints over the hands man's College of the University skirt was made with of North Carolina, and has done ded training. The veil graduate work in social courses at as held in place by a the University of North Carolina. range blossoms and fell After graduation she was connect-1 gh of the train. She ed with the welfare department nde-bouquet of white in Lumberton for a short while string of pearls and an Cross. She took special training

MRS CARL EDWIN ROTHROCK, the former Miss Emily Siler, whose marriage to Captain Rothsered with stephanotis prior to joining the American Red rock took place at the First Methodist Church on Saturday evening, July 21st.

al brooch the latter at the National Reit Cross head-quarters in Washington. D. C. after which she served as execu- the living room.

tive secretary of the Rockingham Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woody rock, and Miss Dorls Rothrock, of and Haywood Red Cross chapters, received in the sun room and were Reidsville, Mrs. Clarence Wood, of ed to the 23rd Engineer Battalion and Miss Bette Hannah.

Reception Held

Following the ceremony at the Hilda Way. church the parents of the bride F. Swift received in the entrance gladioli at one end of the table hall, and the receiving line com- and on either side were three

Captain Rothrock is a graduate in charge of the bride's registrar. Greensboro, aunt of the brideof Virginia Polytechnic Institute Mr and Mrs. Hugh Massie receiv- groom; Miss Prather Sisk, of Fayin the class of 1940. He volunteer- ed at the entrance to the dining etteville, Miss Louise McLoud, of ed in the service in 1941 and has room Mr and Mrs. T. Lenoir Lumberton, Mrs. John J. Marshall. recently returned to the States Gwyn greeted the guests in the gift Mrs. Richard P. Woodbury, Miss after twenty-two months overseas room. Miss Alice Quinlan served Betty Walters, Mrs. Henry C. Wall, tour of duty in the Enropean the-atre of operations. He was attach-Scaman, Mrs. James Kilpatrick, son, of Rockingham; Misses Ann of the 3rd Armored Division. He Mrs. M. H. Bowles and Mrs. G. the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. was wounded and has been award- C Ferguson presided in the din- George II. Ward, of Asheville: ed the Purple Heart and also holds the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement Rev. Robert W. Turner, of Wal-nut Cove; Mrs. Walter Rungan, of Kenneth Brugh. Miss Evelyn Oak Ridge, Tenn., Mrs. Milton

Arrangements of flowers in MacSpadden, of Chilhowie, Va., pastel shades were used through. Mrs. Jack Elwood, of Canton, Ohio, were bosts of a reception at their out the residence, while the bridal Mrs. George Ward, of Asheville, home which was attended by over motif was used in the dining room. Miss Jane Stentz and Mrs. J. Dale 300 guests. Capt and Mrs W A tan shaped vase held white Stentz of Shelby. F. Swift received in the entrance cladich at our and of the table

Miss Mary Davis and Mrs. E. J. posed of the bridal party, the pronged silver holders with white Stockton, of Charlotte, spent last hosts, and the parents of the tapers. At the other end of the week-end as the guests of Mrs. parents of the bridegroom stood in table was the three tier wedding J. M. Medford at The Maples.

The Hugh Massies Hosts At Luncheon For Wedding Party

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie were hosts of a luncheon on Friday as a courtesy to their miece, Miss Emily Siler, and Captain Carl Edwin Rothrock, the members of their wedding party and the out-of-town guests here for the marriage on Saturday evening, July 21.t, at nine o'clock.

The bridal motif was observed in the dining room and mixed arrangements of summer flowers were used advantageously throughout the residence. Attractive favors were presented each guest.

Those present for the affair were: Miss Emily Siler, Captain Rothrock, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Alexander Rothrock and Miss Doris Rothrock, of Reidsville, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler, Miss Mary Ann Massie, Mrs. David Stentz, Miss Prather Sisk, of Fayetteville. Miss Louise McLoud, of Lumber-ton, Rev. Robert W. Turner, of Walnut Cove, Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Bushnell, Jr., Rev. and Mrs. J. Clay Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, Miss Betty Walls, of Rockingham, Mrs. Milton Brock-meyer and Mrs. Kenneth Brugh, of Pulaski, Va., and Mrs. W. L. Mat-cake which bore the bridal motif and was first cut by the bride and bridegroom with the latter's saber For traveling the bride wore a cllow palm beach suit with small gray hat with vell and gray accessories, and a corsage of white orchids which was detachable from her bridal bouquet.

After the reception the couple left for a weeek's wedding trip at an unannounced destination. after which they will go to the Northington General Hospital, Tuscaloose, Ala., where the bridegroom has been a patient since he arrived from overseas. He will receive treatment there for the coming four months.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Alexander Rothand Corric Kerr, great aunts of Siler, Miss Martha Way and Miss Brockmeyer and Mrs. Kenneth Brugh, of Pulaski, Va., W. B.

Many Other New Arrivals

in Fall Suits

Real fashion news because it's sleek, smooth, and smart! Note the brief jacket tailored just like a pilot'sthe skirt, blade-slim to minimize your hips. From an advance collection.

Today, We Are Changing The Display Of Service PICTURES

The Pictures So Graciously Loaned Us For The Display Are Ready For You To Pick Up

Again, We Thank You For the Loan of the Fine Photographs.

"Home Of Better Values"

Big News In Good

HOSIERY

In New Summer Shades . . . In Such Names As-

Hillcrest--

Reigning Beauty --

BELK - HUDSON

COMPANY

"Home of Better Values"

Reign Beau - -

42 and 45 Gauge

90c - 95c

48 Gauge

S1.01