THE LORD fulfilled His promise to Sarah, and she gave birth to a son and they called him Isaac. Great was the rejoicing in Abraham's tests, and after the child was weaned there was a great fonst.

All this time Hagar's son, Ish-mael, hal been Abraham's only son and heir, and now he was dislaced by this baby. No wonder Ishmael was not happy and that he "mocked" the infant. Sarah saw him mocking, and always jealous of Hagar's son, she demanded that Abraham send them both away. Abraham was grieved, as he was very fond of this son, but the Lord told him not to be downcast, because He would take care of them and make of Ismael a great nation.

Eagar and the boy wandered into the wilderness, and at last, with food and water gone, Hagar made her sen to lie down under the scanty shade of a shrub, and set some distance off and wept.
