RSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1945

PAGE ONE (Second Section)

Mary Elma Cox, of Goldsboro, mes Bride of Joseph E. Reece

d Mrs Ira Cox, of Goldsughter, Miss Mary Elma Merchant Marine, son Joseph Howard which took place o'clock in the Falling Creek near Goldsboro. pastor of the decorated in tall and pink gladioli arrangements Candelabra bearing were advantageousthe greenery and Schubert's "Serenade," al wedding marches the processional and ic entered the church ind carried an arm bouisters, and sweetheart ered with swansonnia. rap Cox, sister of the maid of honor. She aqua suit with black acand a corsage of red de had as her bridesmaid ster Miss Ruby Cox, and a corsage of talisdegroom had as his best

Jinnette, of Goldsboro. ushers were: Charlie ers of the bride. na Teachers College and d Goldsboro. groom is a graduate of tres. At the time he His 30-day leave will for reassignment.

parents in Cecil unis to Norfolk.

iced the marriage Joint Hostesses ent Earl Reece, engi-Give Party For Carroll Louise Bell

> Mrs. Ben Colkitt and Mrs. C. C. White were joint hostesses on Thursday evening of a bridge party and miscellaneous shower as a courtesy to Miss Carroll Louise Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Carroll Bell, whose marriage to Lt. Fred C. Phillips, U. S. Air Force, of Burlington, will be an important social event of early September. The party was given at the home ceremony a program of Mrs. Colkitt, which had been sec was rendered by arranged in quantities of summer spain, organist, and flowers with pink prevailing in the McCullen, and A. K. colors. Following several spirited The numbers progressions of contract the scores were totaled with Miss Jeanette Indian Love Burgin holding the top score and Lord's Prayer" and Mrs. John Allen, of Burlington. We Have Promised". Vt., winning the second high prize. The bride-elect was presented with many attractive gifts by the guests and her hostesses. Those enjoying the hospitality after by whom she was of the evening were: Mrs. Herbert nace. She wore a Buchanan, Mrs. James Kilpatrick, suit with black ac- Mrs. Ralph Prevost, Mrs. Nora Swift Atkins, Mrs. Bruce Jaynes, Mrs. Charles Ray, Mrs. Rudolph Hollous, Miss Anne Osborne, Miss Hilda Way, Miss Martha Mac Wyche, Miss Mary Mock, Miss Martha Way, Miss Rosalyn Ray, Mrs. Carroll Bell, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Susan Lyle, of MISS CMROLL LOUISE BELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Jacksonville, Fla., grandmother of Bell, of Waynesville, whose marriage to Lt Fred C. Phillips, Jr., U. siter, Miss Ruby Cox, the bride-elect, and Mrs. James S. Air Corps, of Burlington, will take place on Saturday afternoon Tyellow suit with black Howard, and Mrs. Paul McElroy, at 4 o'clock at Grace Episcopal Church here. Rev. Robert G. Tatum, at 4 o'clock at Grace Episcopal Church here. Rev. Robert G. Tatum, Jr., of Greenville, who were the rector of the church, assisted by Rey, J. Clay Madison, pastor of the guests last week of the latter's First Methodist church, will pronounce the vows.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Colkitt. North Carolina

m Mediterranean and Saturday, September 1. ed in the service he was fires, around which the guests by the Dayton Rubber later gathered. ted on September 6, Bell, Lt. Fred C. Phillips, Jr., Becomes Bride Of Honored With h he will report to Nor- bridegroom-elect, Miss Freda Tea-and will resume her Carroll Bell, parents of the bridethe New Hope school, elect, Mrs. Susan Lyle, grandmothdely following the cere- er of the bride, Lt. Fred Peacock. suple left for Western of Asheville, who will serve as Louise Brown, to Private First the management of the Waynesville

Johnny Harris.

the bride's parents. The Rev. the Hotel LeFaine.

sent overseas

American

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Waynesville high school and

The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of the high school of Bur-ontinued her education at Salem College and the University of ington and was a student at North Carolina State College at the time he entered the service. He volunteered in the Air Corps and was called to active duty in March, 1943, and was graduated from the Cadet Pilot School, Maxwell Field, in April, 1944, and was then

Miss Louise Brown Mrs. MacFayden Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brown, of Mrs Henry MacFayden, who has Elon College, have announced the recently come to Waynesville to marriage of their daughter. Miss reside since her husband took over ma and are visiting the best man at the wedding. William Class Chester S. Davis, son of Mr. Country Club, was the guest of W. Willetts, Tony Jones, and and Mrs. C. S. Davis, of Hazel- honor at a bridge party on Satwood, which took place in a quiet urday afternoon, given by Mrs. C. candlelight ceremony on August F. Kirkpatrick, in the lounge of Kenneth D. Redgister, of Burling- Garden flowers in a variety of ton, performed the ceremony, us- colors were used throughout the ton, performed the ceremony, us-ing the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. K. D. Redgister, soloist, and Mrs. J. Gilliam, accom-panist. The program included, "I Love Von Truly", and "Ah Sweet John L. Davis, of Lake Junaluska Mystery of Life". The traditional wedding marches were played for Swift, Mrs. Cornelia Nixon, Miss Robina Miller, Mrs. Rufus Siler, and Miss Amelia MacFayden, Miss

Marriage Takes Place On Saturday THE UNION-

1946 Furs and Furred Coats

Come see our collection of 1946 quality furs - yours at thrifty savings now! Our label stands for fresh pelts, the newest blends, fashion-hit silhouettes-furs you'll wear for seasons! Above: Mink Muskrat.

ard Cox and Ira Cox, The R. Prevosts de is a graduate of East- Hosts Of Picnic ber of the faculty of New For Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prevost were high school in the class hosts of a picnic at "The Rock" e volunteered in the on Wednesday evening in compli-Marines in November, ment to Miss Carroll Louise Bell. has served in the Atlan- whose marriage will take place

Supper was cooked over blazing The guest list included Miss ARKWAY KNOLL DINNERS Reservations Requested By Noon During Week.

By Saturday Noon For Sunday Dinners.

Telephone 9166

American Plan

Has Come At Last!

Restrictions have been romoved on gas appliances and on gas use.

As you know it takes time between the time of cutting back government orders and the flow of appliances to reach the public.

Now-

have on order a supply of equipment—so you can use the Ras-and of appliances, gas ranges, water heaters. alers and gas refrigerators. We hope within the near luture to give you the type service you want.

he Meantime-

Quality Merchandise is worth waiting for! We carry only quality merchandise . . . and we'll have it as soon as available.

Complete gas service — Appliances, systems, gas Household and Commercial Use

The living room was decorated Louise MacFayden, sister-in-law of with vases of white gladioli and the honor guest, joined the group fern. On each side of the altar during the tea hour. were placed palms and candelabra holding lighted tapers. The bride and bridegroom enter

Miss Phyllis Terrell, who has ed the room together and were unbeen employed in Washington, D. attended. The bride wore a white  $\begin{bmatrix} C \end{bmatrix}$  for the past summer, returned wool tailored dress with black achome on last Sunday and has recessories and corsage of gardenias. sumed her work as a member of Following the ceremony an in- the faculty of the Crabtree high formal reception was held. For school the occasion the dining room was decorated in the bridal motif, with arrangements of white gladioli and Fia. He went overseas the last of December, 1944, and was attached white dahlias combined with fernery, one howl of which cento the 28th Division, serving with the First Army in France and Gertered the table. The floral armany. He holds the Infantry Comrangement was placed on a large bat badge, and the European thereflector and the three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature atre ribbon with three battle stars. After his furlough is completeed soldier and his bride were cut by he will report to Camp Shelby, Miss., and Mrs. Davis will make For traveling Mrs. Davis wore an aqua wool dress with a corsage her home with her parents.

the time he entered the service he was attending an apprentice school at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company. Private First Class Davis was inducted in the service in July, 1944, at Fort Bragg and took his basic training at Camp Blanding.

the bride.

of gardenias

Hazelwood.

Main Street

Waynesville