

Mrs. Chas. Tillett Recommended for World Position

Mrs. Charles W. Tillett, of Charlotte, assistant chairman of the Democratic national committee in charge of the women's division, is being strongly recommended to President Truman for appointment as one of the five members of the United States delegation to the general assembly of the United Nations.

Mrs. Tillett has conducted thousands of meetings in every state in the union in her capacity as assistant chairman of the Democratic national committee and has a wide acquaintance through the nation. She is the first woman to hold her present post.

Mrs. Tillett, a native of Burke county, is the daughter of Mrs. Sallie Thomas Avery, formerly of Waynesville, and her late husband, Avery of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. She is a niece of Mrs. James H. Thomas here and has often visited relatives in this county.

MRS. LUCIUS PRESSLEY, who before her marriage in Clayton, Ga., on August 15, to Private First Class Lucius Pressley, son of Mrs. Velma Pressley, of Cherokee, was the former Miss Ida Mehaffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawson Mehaffey, of Hazelwood.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school and at the time of her marriage held a position with a firm in Hazelwood.

The couple were accompanied to Clayton for their marriage by Mrs. Ralph Lucas, of Hazelwood, Mrs. Charles Edwards, Jr., sister of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mehaffey, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, of Salem, Ill.

The bridegroom attended the Canton high school and was a student there when he volunteered for service with the Signal Corps Company of Canton and left for active duty in September, 1940. He has served for 33 months in Panama with the 6th Air Force. He has been granted a 30-day furlough and upon completion will report to Greensboro air base for further assignment.

Carroll Louise Bell Becomes Bride Of Lt. Fred C. Phillips, Jr., On 1st

The marriage of Miss Carroll Louise Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bell, to Lt. Fred C. Phillips, Jr., U. S. Air Forces, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Phillips, of Burlington, was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, September 1, at 4:30 o'clock in Grace Episcopal church with Rev. Robert G. Tatum, rector, assisted by Rev. J. Clay Madison, pastor of the First Methodist church, pronouncing the vows.

The church was arranged in quantities of white gladioli, tuberoses and hydrangea, interspersed with arrangements of clematis. On either side of the altar tall vases of gladioli were placed in front of floor candelabra bearing lighted cathedral candles.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Hugh A. Love, organist, Miss Jessie Mae Jeffcoat, of Burlington and Joe Emerson Rose, soloists. Miss Jeffcoat sang "O Perfect Love" and Mr. Rose sang "Ave Maria" by Schubert. Mrs. Love played "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star" by Wagner, "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell, "Prelude" by Chopin and "Traumerel" by Schumann. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a full skirt, which fell in a long round train. The bodice, which was tight fitted was trimmed in the back with a long row of tiny buttons self covered, and the long sleeves ending in points over the hands were trimmed with insertions of lace made of tiny satin folds, which also fashioned the round collar of the bodice. Her veil of illusion fell the full length of the train of her gown and was worn with a Juliet cap of pearls. Her bouquet was of tuberoses, white

DAR Chapter To Hold First Meet Of Year On Sept. 12

Mrs. Harry Marshall will be hostess of the initial meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to be held on Friday afternoon, September 14.

Mrs. James W. Killian is chairman of the program committee. Mrs. W. F. Swift, regent, will preside. All members are urged to be present for a discussion of plans for the coming year.

she has been extensively entertained.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Burlington high school and was a student at North Carolina State College at the time he entered the service. He volunteered in the Air Corps and was called to active duty in March, 1943, and was graduated from the Cadet Pilot School, Maxwell Field, in April, 1944, after which he was sent overseas.

Lt. Phillips was shot down over Belgium while on a mission over enemy territory in June, 1944, and was captured by the Germans in August and held a prisoner until April 17, 1945, when he was liberated by the Americans.

The out-of-town guests attending the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Phillips, Miss Betsy Stafford, Miss Emma Jean McKeel, and Miss Jesse Mae Jeffcoat, all of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Payne and Mrs. Susan Lyle, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. W. F. Bell, Mrs. O. C. Dudley and daughter, Mary Ann Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Holland Bell and daughters, Patricia and Diana Bell, William Frank Bell, III, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Williamson and daughter, Miss Adeline Williamson, all of Canton; Miss Victoria Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dumtoit, Mrs. Mayne Peacock, and Lt. Fred Peacock, of Asheville; Mrs. Anna LePlant, of Raleigh, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bell, of Spartanburg, S. C.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon gown modeled with a black skirt and a fuchsia sequin bodice, and her black hat was trimmed with fuchsia. She wore a corsage of purple orchids. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in turquoise and her corsage was of lavender orchids.

Following the wedding at the church Mr. and Mrs. Bell, parents of the bride, entertained with a reception at their home in Grimsby Park. The residence was arranged in quantities of white gladioli in white bowls. Greeting the guests at the entrance were Mrs. Nora Swift Atkins, and William Payne, the latter of Jacksonville, Fla.

Receiving in the living room were the mothers of the bride and bridegroom, with the bridal party, Mrs. Ralph Prevost directed the guests to the gift room and Elizabeth Watkins, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, and Lane Prevost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prevost.

Mrs. Ben Colkitt directed the guests to the dining room where the following served: Miss Janette Burgin, Miss Betty Morgan, Miss Freda Mae Teague, Miss Gladys Ezzell, Miss Vivian Watkins, Miss Betty Wilson, and Miss Patsy Gwyn.

The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake decorated in the bridal motif and topped by a miniature wedding scene. The table was covered in a handsome linen and lace banquet cloth, with ropes of simlax festooned from the four corners of the table. Crystal holders bearing lighted tapers further adorned the table at each end, while crystal dishes were used for the candies and nuts.

Following the reception Lt. and Mrs. Phillips left for a two weeks wedding trip to an unannounced destination after which they will visit the latter's parents in Burlington. Upon completion of the bridegroom's leave he will report to Miami for further assignment, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Phillips.

For traveling the bride wore a fall model of sheer wool in navy and powder blue plaid. Her accessories were in navy blue and her corsage was of white orchids detached from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school and continued her education at Salem College and the University of North Carolina. Since the announcement of her engagement
