Herb's Got a Great Little Wife

Everybody's talking about he drops his ashes, maybe-she what a grand job Herb Helm is doing at the war plant. Not just one shift, but two a day-to help build the war materials our men

Good for Herb! But I'd like to say a word for Mary, Herb's wife. She runs the house, cooks the meals, takes care of the children, and works on salvage drives and bundles for the Red Cross. Believe me, that's tiring work for any woman!

Yet when Herb comes hometoo tired to talk or watch where makes allowances, keeps smiling, brings him a restful glass of beer, and makes enough conversation for them both. Next morning, Herb goes to work refreshed and cheerful. From where I sit, women like

Mary Helm are doing a great war job themselves . . . being tolerant and kind to husbands who are working under a heavy wartime strain. Bully for them!
