Judah's Concern for His Family

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Sept. 16 is Genesis 43, 44, the Memory Verse being I John 4:7, "Let us love one another.")

"AND THE FAMINE was sore in the land." That was in the land of Camain, where Jacob and his family lived. So when the food that was brought from Egypt was gone. Jacob suggested that his sons go again to Egypt to buy

Judah took upon himself to answer his father, reminding him that the ruler of Egypt under Pheraoh had said to them, "Ye shall not see my face except your brether (Benjamin) be with you."

spake? Is he yet alive?" Joseph Blesses Benjamin

They answered that he was well, and then he saw Benjamin, his mother's son, and asked, "Is this your younger brother of whom yo spake to me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

Joseph left them at this, and, retiring to his chamber, he wept He then washed his face so that they would not see traces of tears, and they dired, he and the Egyptians with him at one table. the Jews at another, Several times he sent choice dishes from his table to theirs, but Benjamines share was five times larger than that of his brothers.

When they were about to leave, Jeseph instructed his steward to fill the sacks with corn, put there money in the top of each one, and into Benjamin's sack put his own elver cup. This was done, and when they were a short distance away the steward came running to them saying the master's cup cas missing. They were shocked, being very certain they were must cent, but in Benjamin's sack the cup was found.
