

CHURCHES

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. C. Madison, Pastor
Church school with classes for all ages opens at 10:00 o'clock. Promotion Day will be observed, and it is hoped that every member of the Sunday school will be present.

The pastor will be in the pulpit for both services. At 11:00 o'clock his subject will be "The Greatest Question Ever Asked". The hour of the evening service will be changed to 7:30. At that time he will speak on the subject, "All Things New." A men's chorus will furnish music for the evening service.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30.

JUNALUSKA METHODIST CHURCH

Pastor, Miles A. McLean
Sunday school convenes at 10:00. Church service will be at 11:00 at which time the pastor will speak on the topic, "Reclaiming the Indifferent Church Member." This day is set apart as Visitation Sunday and during the afternoon various teams of visitors will call in the homes of the members.

The young people will meet at 7:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Church rooms located on second floor of Masonic Temple. Sunday service each morning at 11 o'clock. On the first Wednesday of each month testimonial meetings will be held.

"Healings" will be the subject of the Lesson Sermon on Sunday morning. The Golden Text will be taken from Lamentations 5:19 "Thou, O Lord, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Please note the change in time. Earl Messer, superintendent, and his department superintendents have worked out an interesting and informative program for Promotion Day next Sunday. This program will be given in the church.

COLIC AND GAS?

If your child suffers with colic and gas cramps he needs relief quickly. Often a mild laxative is the answer.

Triena FOR CHILDREN

Triena gives thorough relief, when a laxative is needed—it's made with famous senna. It's easy to give Triena, too, because it's flavored with delicious prune juice. Children like its taste. Let Triena help you. Don't delay—if faulty elimination makes your child cross and unhappy. Try dependable TRIENA. Give only as directed. 30c. large size only 50c.

auditorium, and correlated with the worship hour.

Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. Please note the change in time. At the conclusion of the Promotion Day program of the Sunday School the pastor will speak briefly on "Keep Moving."

Training Union at 6:30 p. m. Please note the change in time. At the general assembly the various departments will present a Promotion Day program.

Evening worship at 7:30. Again, please note the change in time. This will be the beginning of the special week of evangelistic meetings. The pastor will speak on "The Christian's Duty In A Revival."

Monday evening at 7:30, and every evening next week, with the exception of Saturday, special services will be held. Rev. J. H. Kyzar, the beloved and able pastor of the First Baptist church of Laurens, South Carolina, will be the guest preacher in these services.

All other church activities scheduled for next week will be canceled in order that nothing will conflict with the revival meeting.

We cordially invite the other churches and visitors to attend these special services.

'WILDCAT' STRIKERS PICKET BOARD

WORKERS OF THE KELSEY-HAYS PLANT picket the executive board of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) in Flint, Michigan, in protest against the union's non-support of their strike—which the UAW says is unauthorized. The strikers insist on the reinstatement of three of their fellow workers who were let out. (International Soundphoto)

T/Sgt. R. J. Bryson Helps With Hospital Paper At Miami

T/Sgt. Robert J. Bryson, of Waynesville, is aiding soldier patients in getting out the "Convalescent Chatter," weekly newspaper of the Miami Beach AAF Hospital's five units.

Patients may also study typography, typesetting, photolithography and photography at Miami air corps center. Further instruction is available in feature writing, modern news reporting, business law, state and federal government, and studies in rural society, all offered by the United States Armed Forces Institute.

"Keeping 'em down on the farm after they've seen the world" will be no problem, according to the officers of the AAF Regional and Convalescent hospital at Miami.

In addition to the other subjects just mentioned soldiers may take agricultural courses including dairy farming and cattle production, farm management, soils and crops, sanitation and disease control, vegetable farming and farm forestry.

Ray White, Seaman 1/c, Saw Jap Surrender

Ray White, seaman, first class, USNR, of Cove Creek, witnessed the formal Japanese surrender from the submarine, USS Hake, in Tokyo Bay, according to information received from the fleet headquarters.

The Hake and 11 other boats representing the submarine service, which sank more Jap ships than any other Allied military arm, surfaced shortly before the ceremonies on the USS Missouri.

The Hake, during her war patrols, sank or damaged more than a dozen enemy craft of various types.

Improved varieties, liberal applications of fertilizer, improved cropping practices, and the concentration of crops on the most adaptable land have brought record crops throughout the United States.

Lt. Hobart Hyatt En Route To Post In California

First Lt. Hobart B. Hyatt is spending several days in Waynesville as the guest of his mother, Mrs. Robert W. Livingstone. Lt. Hyatt is on en route to his new assignment at Fort Ord, Calif., from which point he is slated for Pacific duty. The past ten months Lt. Hyatt has spent at Fort Sill, Okla., where he has been an instructor.

Flight Officer Bradley Discharged From Service

Flight Officer Richard L. Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley, of Waynesville, has been honorably discharged from active duty with the Army Air Forces from the Separation Center at Fort Bragg. Retaining his commission and rank, he is still subject to recall during the present emergency.

Before entering the service as a volunteer at Fort Bragg, in April, 1943, he was a student at Davidson College.

He received his commission as flight officer at Selman Field, La., in October, 1944, and served overseas with the 8th Air Force, returning to the States in May, 1945.

He is entitled to wear the European Theater of Operations ribbon, with two battle stars, Air Medal and the Presidential Citation with Oak Leaf Cluster, which he won as a navigator on B-24 type aircraft. His last duty station was San Marcos Army Air Field, a unit of the AAF Training Command.
