For down right laughing purposes mostly and for sheerentertaining quality, we highly recommend the ring-leader of the non-fiction gang. "THE EGG AND L" written by Betty MacDonald. It does all of us a lot of good to slip out of the every-day groove of life, climb up on the side of the road and watch how the other fellow gets along. And when you follow Betty around for a day or two, you are completely breathless and wonder howand why she does it. Betty married a tall, dark and handsome Marine and then, as she expresses it, "took to the woods" to raise chickens. She succeeded in raising other things besides the clusive which came first . : the chicken or the egg?" question: such elements as insects, moonshiners, Indians, bears, pigs and Neighbors all go together to make Betty's life
