Maybe A Lucky Break

There may be times when there won't be any soft drinks at all during the next few months according to Joseph W. Milner, president of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages.

Pacific Policy

There is nothing wrong with the Navy's proposal for a system of strategic bases in Pacific Ocean, but there is quite a little wrong with the things that are being said about it, according to Maj. George F. Elliot.

For The Crippled

We see that Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, State superintendent of education, hopes to start some type of educational program within the next few years for the 24,000 crippled children of the state who are unable to attend school.

General Marshall's Warning

We read with interest General Marshall's report to Congress during the week in which he warned that an unarmed America will court disaster, and advised universal peacetime military training so that the United States could quickly mobilize 4,000,000 trained fighting men if war should threaten again.

Peacetime Casualty

In the era of peace the black marketeer should by rights be the first peacetime casualty. Regrettable as it is there are always some people who will not play the game fair.

Hog Killing Time

We notice in the farm magazines that we are being reminded that it is "hog-killing time" once again. Just between us it was not necessary to call our attention to the fact of this glad season.

Hospitality Appreciated

The FBI and the law enforcement officers who met here last Thursday in their semi-annual meeting were high in their praise of the brand of hospitality they received at the hands of the town and county.

HERE and THERE

President Truman must have at some time in his life been exposed to the kind of appetizing barbecue that Julius Sader makes, otherwise he would not have given the advice he did to a citizen of Town Line, N. C., last week.
