Ed M. McNish has joined the Builder's Supply company as purchasing agent. It was announced this week. Mr. McNish will also serve in the same capacity for Grace Lumber Mills.

For the past several years he has been lumber advisor for the War Production Board in North and South Carolina. Prior to entering that field, he was in the building industry for 14 years in the South.

McNish is now making his rounds contacting manufacturers of building supply lines getting some items for the local firm just as they roll off the line.

He feels it is better to go after the merchandise rather than wait until the salesmen come to see us, said Harry Lee Liner, Jr., who is in charge of the firm.

Millions Given Government To Fight The War

WASHINGTON—The Treasury Department paid tribute today to some 50,000 American citizens and foreigners who quietly contributed more than $7,000,000 by mail to help win the war.

There was no better description of the story the Department had to tell than that in Secretary Fred M. Vinson's comment:

"The Treasury's records of war contributions tell one of the home front's most interesting stories, a convincing testimonial to the quality of American patriotism.

About $6,126,000 had been sent in since June 18, 1940, to "buy a jeep" or to "drop a bomb on Hitler" or for some such specific purpose. And $1,259,000—most of it from 50 regular contributors who paid each payday or each time they checked up on profits—was just for the "war effort."

One contributor still makes donations, but his letters now read: "For the peace effort."

The Treasury made public for the first time the names of some of the 50 regulars.

From a New York restaurant owner has come nearly $6,000. He contributed the interest on his war bonds and other cash payments.

From the proprietor of a souvenir store in Mexico City has come $9,000, representing 25 per cent of the Mexican's sales to American citizens.

One American contributor in Paraguay sent a consignment of honey to the U. S. Embassy there. He asked that it be distributed, that the purchasers fix a price and that the money be sent to the U. S. Treasury. It amounted to $13.41.

A man in Portland, Ore., sent amounts from $8.50 to $75 for a total of $753. Finally, when the war was over, he wrote: "It is with a faithful heart that this concluding contribution is enclosed."

From Gettysburg, Pa., came the thanks of a restaurateur who contributed a dollar a day beginning Jan. 1, 1942. He promised to make payments until the end of the war. With his final contribution he asked the Treasury to advise him if he owed any more.

A retired First Sergeant of Engineers of the United States Army had special stationery printed for his contributions, which totaled nearly $3,000.

Timely, Practical Household Suggestions by Ruth Currant of State College

Wash clothes well and you will not have to boil, bleach or blue them. None of these whitening methods is a good substitute for correct washing and rinsing, say home economists.

If clothes are not allowed to become too soiled, and then are thoroughly washed and rinsed in hot soft water, other whitening should not be necessary.

Boiling is recommended only for sterilizing clothing, bedding, and handkerchiefs after illness. It is a possible health hazard to the housewife who goes directly outdoors into the cold. However, boiling is a cheaper way to whiten than using a commercial bleach, and it is easier on the fabric.

Bluing does not whiten clothes but makes them look white by camouflaging the yellow or dinginess left by poor washing.

One of the most famous of all American pies is the sweet potato pie. Noted home economists give the following recipe.

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons fat, melted; one-half teaspoon salt; one-half cup corn sirup or sugar sirup; one-fourth cup orange juice; one teaspoon grated orange rind; 2 cups of mashed sweet potatoes; one or two eggs, separated; one-half cup of milk. To make, add fat, salt, sirup, orange juice, and grated rind to the hot mashed potatoes. Add beaten egg yolks and milk. Beat well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Pour this mixture into a ten-inch baked pie shell and bake in a moderate oven 30 to 40 minutes.

Before you start fires this fall, have the furnace, chimney, and flues cleaned, and repaired. Burning them out with a hot fire has destroyed many homes. Never use kerosene or gasoline to start a fire.

When not ironing, disconnect the electric iron. Use a heel rest or approved stand. Place electric cords so you can't trip on them. Keep them away from hot radiators.

Good lighting in every room—meaning adequate for the activity going on—cannot be too strongly recommended. To avoid shock and fire hazards, your electrical equipment must be kept in repair—no frayed cords, broken plugs, and faulty appliances.

Before climbing a step ladder, see that the spreader is fully extended and the footing firm. If the ladder is to stand on a concrete sidewalk or smooth surface, get someone to keep the ladder from sliding. Use a board under the base on soft ground. Face the ladder when climbing; don't lean too far out or attempt to carry too heavy a load.

Firescreens should fit snugly at top as well as sides. See that your chimneys are clean and in good repair.

Curtis, of Waynesville, has been discharged from the service at Fort Bragg, after serving 24 months overseas in the European theater, where he was attached to the 2nd Infantry Division.

Songs for a Better World

We were sitting around the members of Ed Crummit's barbecue last Saturday night, finishing our beer and hot dogs while Ed strummed the guitar... picking out old, friendly songs.

Soon everyone was singing. The harmony wasn't too good... but the spirit was—a spirit of friendship and good humor.

And it made me think how music—music of the people—overcomes barriers of prejudice and intolerance. A Yankee folksong or an English carol or a Southern melody—there's a common language of the... bind folks together... forget our grudges.

From where I sit, we help to make the whole kin. Maybe we ought to lot more of it... inform around the fire, and in the And it's sure true that a glass of beer fits into ture. It just naturally got that kind of music.
